Dear Mr. Blossom:

Here is the revised Young article. I shall appreciate it if you can let me know before the end of the week if it is satisfactory. I am off for St. Lawrence University - Young's college - Saturday night, to be gone several days. And if there is anything you would like done to the thing I should like to know before I leave.

I find there is no portrait of Young. Jo Davidson did a bust, not very satisfactory they all think. The best I can do for you I think is the photographs I am sending.- among them his five latest poses. I think it would be out of the question for you to get a new picture at the moment - his mother is dying and Mrs. Young is very ill. It is hardly fair to ask him to sit.

Very sincerely
