RADCLIFFE COLLEGE
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Record return to Mrs. Stewart

April 25, 1939

Dear Mrs. Stewart:

I am sorry to think that I shall miss Miss Tarbell when she comes to visit at Radcliffe. As you know, I shall be leaving Cambridge Tuesday night or Wednesday morning for New York and Chicago.

Dean Brown will be here on May first and second and will be glad to show Miss Tarbell whatever she wishes to see in the College. As you know, we have a college guest room in Briggs Hall which we should be glad to offer Miss Tarbell if she prefers to stay in one of the dormitories. Otherwise, I should be very happy to have her stay at my house, which will be in running order and where I think she can be made comfortable. In that case, Dean Brown would dine with her at my house on Wednesday evening, at seven; and they could talk during the evening. Then on Thursday Miss Tarbell could see the College and its activities, leaving Thursday afternoon or evening for Northampton.

Please tell Miss Tarbell that we shall be happy to have her here and that Miss Brown is looking forward tremendously to this opportunity of seeing her.

Sincerely yours,

Ada Comstock
