

Miss Ida M. Tarbell.

The "Lily's" safely received. So long a time had elapsed since I had sent them to Mr. Hart, that I feared their safety; they are the only ones in existence, save the file which Mr. Bloomer gave to the Albany Library. Mr. Hart suggests my giving them to Library of Congress, and Theodore Stanton, who is an old friend, and son of Elizabeth Cady Stanton wants me to give them to Cornell. However when you get ready for them again will loan them to you.

I have also Mrs. B. Lorners autobiography written by either herself or husband.
You know they were former residents of Seneca Falls same as Mrs. Stanton. so I knew them all well. As famous American women are in your line. How you know Jermina Wilkinson, the Preacheress of the 18th Century.
I have her life with picture in book. Which you can take at any time.

Sincerely yours.

(Miss) Janet McKay Cowing
