

June 28, 1933

Dear Mr. Davis:

Thank you for the trouble you have taken in answering my inquiry passed on to you by Mr. Marshall. It gives me exactly the information I wanted about the lighting of buildings at the Chicago Fair of 1893.

I should like to see that article of which you speak in the Cosmopolitan Magazine for September 1893. I am asking my secretary to see if she cannot find a copy in the shops that handle old magazines. If not, she will write you asking you to lend me the one from your record file. I shall take good care of it, if it is necessary to borrow it, and shall return it promptly.

Thanking you again for the trouble you have taken, believe me

Very sincerely

Mr. R. R. Davis
