Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
152 East 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have been thinking lately, in fact it has come up in another direction, of the old plan of a young folks' Life of Lincoln by you. It was suggested to me as a "Boys' Life of Lincoln", but it would really be for youth, both boys and girls. I am setting this down so you will have it before you concretely, and you can think about it.

It is reenforced by part of a letter of Vachel Lindsay's, fostering the scheme of a Lincoln Pilgrimage. It looks as if there was a Lincoln revival coming.

Very sincerely yours,

John S. Phillips
