Gentlemen:

I have your letter of April 2nd in which you ask me to suggest some basis for recommendation on your part to Miss Tarbell for a settlement of the transaction about which we have been writing for some time.

I have previously outlined in detail my position in this matter and I feel that I am entirely innocent of any wrong doing and I think that if I should be required to pay anything it should be in the nature of a nominal sum such as One Dollar ($1.00) rather than a penalty as in the case of wilful misconduct.

I am certain that Miss Tarbell has suffered nothing whatever by reason of the recitation of Mr. Lidyard.

I understand that Miss Tarbell has numerous personal friends in Akron and I am sure that they will all make apologies to her in my behalf with a view of having her overlook the matter in this instance.

Yours very truly,

ALLEN T. SIMMONS.
