Dear Mrs. Brown:

How kind of you to send me the copy of the Lincoln story which had interested you. I had seen this but jumped to the conclusion when you spoke of it that it was something somebody else had said about Lincoln.

Frankly, I am not so proud of what I did in this attempt. I tried hard but it never quite came off.

I hope you will be seeing you and Dr. Brown again at the Club.

Very sincerely

Mrs. Barnum Brown
