Dr. T. L. Flood, Editor,

Meadville, Pa.

March 19th 1891.

Dear Miss Tarbell

Your resignation as one of the Associate Editors on "The Chautauquan" dated this day is received.

I regret exceedingly that impaired health has forced you to detach yourself from "The Chautauquan". Permit me however, to express my high appreciation of your abilities as a writer and to thank you for the many years of faithful work you have done on the magazine. I esteem you as a high minded, honorable christian woman, whose strength and force of character I have learned to admire.

May God bless you in restored health, & give you prosperity wherever your lot may be cast in the future.

Faithfully Yours

T. L. Flood
