

July 13, 1920

Mr. Henry H. Miller,
Steamboat Springs, Colo.

My dear Mr. Miller:

Some ten years ago you were good enough to write me some of your recollections of Abraham Lincoln. In one of these letters you speak of hearing as a boy a story-telling contest between Lincoln and Uncle Bill Sanburn, in Knoxville. Now, I have on hand at the moment a Boy Scouts' Life of Lincoln, and in this I want to make a point of the impression that Lincoln produced upon boys and young men.

It was your letter that called my attention to this point, and I have been wondering, in looking over my notes, if you could tell me anything more about this story-telling contest than was in your letter. If so I shall be very glad to have it. Or, indeed, any other reminiscences of the impression the man made upon you at that time and of the particular things that you may have noted about him.

I hope that you are well and that the years are dealing gently with you.

Thanking you in advance for any information that you can give me, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

132 EAST NINETEENTH STREET

July 13, 1920

Mr. Henry H. Miller,
Steamboat Springs, Colo.

My dear Mr. Miller:

Some ten years ago you were good enough to write me some of your recollections of Abraham Lincoln. In one of these letters you speak of hearing as a boy a story-telling contest between Lincoln and Uncle Bill Sanburn, in Knoxville. Now, I have on hand at the moment a Boy Scouts' Life of Lincoln, and in this I want to make a point of the impression that Lincoln produced upon boys and young men.

It was your letter that called my attention to this point, and I have been wondering, in looking over my notes, if you could tell me anything more about this story-telling contest than was in your letter. If so I shall be very glad to have it. Or, indeed, any other reminiscences of the impression the man made upon you at that time and of the particular things that you may have noted about him.

I hope that you are well and that the years are dealing gently with you.

Thanking you in advance for any information that you can give me, believe me

Very sincerely yours,

Ida M. Tarbell
2