My dear Miss Tarbell:-

It came to our Knowledge to-day in a letter from Miss Bean that ~~he had had~~ Mr. Phillips had had an interview with Miss W. Sam was much excited about it, and he wrote Mr. Phillips asking him to send him a report of the conversation. There is nothing concealed between Sam and me now, and he knows that I should like to have Mr. P. say in his reply that the letter may be given me to read, too. I'll show Sam this note to you. I've shown him everything I have written or received since I left home, and I mean always to do so, unless in matters that do not interest him at all.

He has been very kind and loving to me all the time. I do the best and kindest I can for him. Our life has had a deep wound; but it is all given to God. "He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee." He has surely been dealing with us with heavenly love. We have great joy and peace together. Sam is in a state of utter nervous exhaustion, and is very sad. He does not always take the true view of things; and I know, - and tell him so, - that when he is once better, rested, and his mind restored to health, he will think and feel quite differently from now. Dr. Maguin, in Paris, laid out a very fine regime for him for a long time, all of quiet and rest.

I am very anxious to hear from you. Tell me how you are, if you are rested and feeling stronger. Tell me about Mr. Phillips, too, and all our dear friends, so nice and kind to us. Give my love to them all.

Miss Bisland came to meet us in Paris, and was most helpful and refreshing. She did us both a great deal of good.

Believe me, ever your affectionate and grateful friend,

Harriet H. McClure.

P.S. We are expecting to go on to Divonne about June 21st. Sam and I are both taking the Aix treatment. Sam has an appreciable beginning of gout. Then we have douches at Divonne, then a quiet mountain rest, and then Divonne again. Then Sam will see Dr. Maguin again. The Luffans are here, and that is a
