Saturday-

Dear Mrs. Tarbell

We are so glad you can make the article for us we wait every day for the fourth as we go to press on the fifteenth.
Although we have had no notice is plan for the future given to us yet, I am trying to plan the next issue of the magazine so that it will at least fit into the spirit of reconstruction. You have had many letters from me of late.
Perhaps they have not reached

You're added to the very heavy burden I know you are carrying just now. Please that I could see and talk with you. There is nothing that is worrying me especially but I rather want to to have some of your - made clear to me before we plan for the future. There seems to be to me one to whom can go to for help in clearing things up. I have been made responsible for many things without exactly understanding the powers in which I am to act, in plain words, dear lady, I am very nervous if a single grat! I can regulate this matter I feel sure it only I can plan

My own means of escape. Are you coming down any time soon? If not, I very much wish that I could come in & sp. y. for a day and talk with you. Please don't think that things are not going well here they are but the future is an ever given time & me that I feel could best be answered with your very nice and human help. Clara and I had dinner together last night. She has had
