

Wm. W. W. 80

November 18, 1939

Dear Mr. Wakelee:

Thank you for your congratulations on my 82nd birthday.
I am planning to have many more of them.

I am pleased that you have read and liked my books well enough to tell me so.

And now as to that elevator. You see I live in what is called a walk-up - not my house.
I only rent a studio apartment.
When the stairs become too much for me I shall no doubt look for an elevator, and I shall hope it will be one of the Sedgwick elevators.

Thanking you for your letter, believe me

Very truly yours
