ARRANGEMENTS BEING MADE FOR HOME-COMING

Student Government Conclave Terminated Last Saturday

The Women's Intercollegiate Association for Student Government closed its annual session at Allegheny College Saturday with a business meeting and reports from discussion groups.

The delegates who attended the conclave were: Misses Elyn Abramson, Adelphi College, L. I.; Madeline Ainsborough, University of Vermont; Charlotte Jazombek and Barbara Barstow, Alfred University; Lillian Beam, Western College for Women, Oxford, O.; Emelyn Edgemeyer, Miami University, Ohio; Margaret Cook and Viola Startzman, Wooster College; Harriet Webster, Connecticut College for Women; Elizabeth Adams, New Jersey College for Women; Veronica Kloos and Margaret Griffin, Carnegie Institute of Technology; Mary Iams and Fay Stover, Ohio Wesleyan University; Wilma Simon, Betty Geith and Mary Seitz, Western Reserve University; "Bud", Harry, and Elizabeth Bellamy, Hood College, Frederick, Md.; Anna Hallett and Jesse Neale, University of Richmond; Cecilia Fraser, Beaver College, Jenkinstown, Pa.; Carolina Dementing and Margaret Graham, Florida State College for Women; Marian Louise Shepherd and Helen Dugan, University of North Carolina; Virginia Ijamis, University of Maryland; Betty Rowe and Adeline Pfeiffer, Bloomsburg State Teachers' College; Edwerta Merrill and Jean Read, Wilson College.

Beaver College for Women, Jenkinstown, was chosen as host for next year's meeting. The woman who is head of student government there next fall will be president of the association. The position of vice-president and treasurer will go to the Adelphi College representative; and that of secretary to Connecticut College for Women.

Amendments to the constitution were discussed at the meeting, and a committee was appointed to publish a report on the national set-up of the associated women's student government organizations throughout the country. Miss Elizabeth Adams, New Jersey College for Women, is chairman of this committee which includes Miss Ruth Harry, Hood College, and Miss Caroline DeMontigne, Florida State Teachers' College.

Discussion Group Reports

Reports on the five discussion groups which were held on Thursday and Friday mornings were submitted by the leaders at Saturday's meeting.ing.

The discussion group of "To What Extent is Student Government Primarily of a Disciplinary Nature" was led by Miss Amy Bishop, of Allegheny. Miss Bishop stated that the ideal type of judiciary system is one in which each student exercises self discipline and in which social pressure enforces an honor system with the student government working along constructive and individual lines of case study.

"The Town Girl's Place in Student Government" was the topic of a session led by Miss Elyn Abramson, Adelphi College, who suggested that town

Delta Sigma Rho To Sponsor Girls' Contest In Chapel

Representatives of six sororities will speak in chapel Monday, October 29, in the women's extemporaneous speaking contest sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity.

The subjects of the women's speeches will pertain to local campus affairs, as has been the custom for the past few years, rather than to topics of more national interest, as used in the men's contest.

The women who will speak include Betty Elliott, Theta Upsilon; Amy Bishop, Kappa Alpha Theta; Christine Black, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Marianna Rall, Alpha Gamma Delta; Marian Grey, Alpha Xi Delta. Alpha Chi Omega will also have a representative.

The speakers are requested to report at the chapel at 10:50 on Monday morning.

To Hold Wakefield Oratorical Contest On Thurs., Dec. 6

The Wakefield Oration Contest will be held this year on Thursday, December 6, 1934.

As provided for by the will of the late Mr. James A. Wakefield, of Pittsburgh, a fund is available from which an annual awarding of three prizes is made for the three best orations. The winner of the contest will be awarded a first prize of $40.00; a second prize of $15.00 will be given the contestant delivering the second best oration; the third best oration will receive a third prize of $10.00.

The contest is open to the men of the Senior, Junior, and Sophomore classes on condition that the orations are the original work of the students entering the contest; no oration should exceed 1800 words in length. If more than six orations are submitted, the Speech Department reserves the right to eliminate all but six. The basis of choice is to be the quality of the spoken oration.

Winners of previous contests are reminded that they are not debarred, for that reason, from competing again. The Speech Department will choose Allegheny's representative in the Civic Oratorical Contest from one of the first three orations. This choice will depend upon which of the first three prize winners has developed the best oration by the time of the intercollegiate contest which is held in May.

The Speech Department has prepared a pamphlet of outlined suggestions for students who desire to engage in oration contests, which is now available at Professor Anderson's office in Arter Hall. All contestants are urged to report to Professor Anderson as soon as possible.

Hold Nominations For Junior, Senior Officers Monday

Nominations for officers of the Senior and Junior classes have been tabulated by the Men's Senate and Students' Relations Committee, after a poll was held in Bentley Hall, Monday afternoon.

Three students having the highest number of votes for each office were selected to be voted upon in the final elections which will be held Thursday, October 25, in Bentley Hall. The Alumni Office will not be used as a polling place, but a special desk will be put up in Bentley Hall to take care of the balloting.

Senior Class

President: William Kennedy, Warren Keck, John Corcoran.

Vice-President: Louise Reynders, Frank Oakes, Dorothy Demmler.

Secretary: Elliott Jones, Virginia Lindsay, Louise Reynders.

Treasurer: Mildred Gleckler, Joseph Serene, John Lubic.

Junior Class

President: Arthur Vangeli, Charles Kearney, Richard Horn.

Vice-President: Amy Bishop, Robert Dennis, William Hyde.

Secretary: Orin Hawkins, Marjorie Joyce, Richard Rushmore.

Treasurer: Annabelle Broomall, Jane Stover, Edward Carney.

Local Colored Choir To Feature Armistice Day Program of Gospel Team

The Gospel Choir of St. John's Baptist Church is expected to be featured by the Allegheny Gospel Team in its Armistice Day program November 11 in Fifth Ward M. E. Church. This local choir is a talented group of colored singers and should present a worthwhile message in song.

The gospel team sponsored by the Thoburn Club holds services at the church on Wadsworth Avenue every Sunday at 11:00 a. m. The speakers for the next three Sundays are:

October 28—Reginald Ivett, '36.
November 4—Henry Reiley, '38.
November 11—Delbert Jolley, '36.

University Of Oxford Debaters To Appear Here November 9

According to an announcement made by Professor Hurst R. Anderson, head of the Speech Department, a debating team from the University of Oxford, England, is scheduled to debate Allegheny, November 9, 1934, at the Playshop Theatre, Arter Hall.

Although a topic has not been definitely arranged, it is tentatively certain that the subject for argumentation will be taken from the field of international economics.

This is the first time in the history of Allegheny College's forensic activities that a team of international prominence has been slated on Allegheny's schedule. The English team is conceded to be an outstanding group of proven debaters and the match will undoubtedly test the mettle of Allegheny's ability.

But the reputation of Allegheny debaters is an enviable one of recognized excellence, so that the verbal clashes with Oxford are certain to be of unusual finesse. Consequently, the event is expected to draw a record audience of debaters and professionals from other colleges and universities of Western Pennsylvania and Ohio. The public of Meadville will also be invited.

In order to properly execute the business and details of this Oxford-Allegheny debate, committees have been appointed under the supervision of Professor Hurst R. Anderson as follows: General Chairman, Joseph M. Harre; Chairman Finance, Earl E. Green; Publicity Committee, George D. Kish, chairman, Walter O. Jacobson, Elliott R. Jones, Arthur L. Vangeli.

Somnambulist Singers Bid Farewell To W. S. G. A. Delegates

Allegheny's charming women and the equally attractive representatives of the Women's Student Government Association, which met in convention at Allegheny during the past week, were allegedly entertained Friday night by a band of errant gentlemen from Caflisch Hall who indiscriminately inflicted, upon guest and student alike, a rapturous serenade replete with harmony as well as crooning.

Just prior to the Student Government Dance, which was attended by many a courtly swain from Caflisch, plans and rehearsals were hastily perpetrated in preparation for a musical seige of those sacrosanct cloisters—Hulings, Cochran, Tarbell, and Beebe—later that night.

At the unearthly hour of one o'clock, a goodly company of singers assembled in Caflisch court, as prearranged, attired in the most incongruous of accoutrements—pajamas.

This weird aggregation then proceeded to the respective women's dormitories and there emitted, according to a reliable informant, a medley of intonations strangely reminiscent of music.

The pajama-garbed serenaders, under the ministrations of Maestro Hendricks, converted the languid "Cussewago" into a raging torrent of song; even "Susie" became a thing of beauty—according to subsequent certified interviews with the serenaders themselves.

A trio, consisting of Messers. Black, Zwilling, and Leisher, chanted a rythmic refrain which was quite excellent—so they claim—and resulted in several encores. The impromptu chorus, numbering about thirty students, continued to wail prettily upon any provocation.

Grove City-Allegheny Rivalry Features Program

Playshop To Give Goldoni Comedy For Homecoming

As its part of the Homecoming program, the Allegheny Playshop will present Goldoni's colorful comedy, "The Fan", on Saturday evening, October 27, at 8:15 p. m. Tickets for this production may be secured at the Playshop box office in Arter Hall, or by calling 1386. The admission price is fifty cents.

This year's cast will be composed of both new and old members. The final selection of the cast has not yet been made, but it is expected that several freshmen will be in it. With the old members from last year as a nucleus, it is expected that "The Fan" will be presented with all the color that made it so popular last year. This play shows life in an Italian village of the eighteenth century, in which time the author lived. The whole play revolves about the purchase and disposition of a fan, in which the whole village has an interest. This play is especially interesting as it is an outgrowth of the commedia dell' arte, the gay and spontaneous comedy of the Italian Renaissance.

Players Present Shaw's "Candida" To Gov't Delegates

The Allegheny Playshop gave its first performance of the 1934-35 season Friday afternoon, October 19, when George Bernard Shaw's "Candida" was presented, with the usual excellence of a Playshop production. The special matinee performance was in connection with the Women's Student Government Convention, in session here last week.

The cast contained several members not in last year's productions of "Candida". Mr. Edward Stainbrook was very well adapted to his role of the Rev. James Morell, a part which he has taken in every local performance of this play. Miss Helen Edmundson rendered a very fine characterization of the title role, that of Candida, Morell's wife. Mr. Paul Gilmore, who will also appear in "The Fan" this week, portrayed Eugene Marchbanks, that young member of English nobility with the soul of a poet, whose love for Candida proves his real strength. In Miss Amy Bishop was characterized with all fitness Miss Proserpine Garnett, Morell's secretary. Mr. Donald Murray, returned to Allegheny after a year's absence, played Mr. Burgess, Candida's contractor father; and Mr. William DunLany completed the cast as Lexy Mill, Morell's curate.

"Candida", which was produced under the direction of Miss Alice Huntington Spalding, brought to the Playshop stage a glimpse of the England of the 90's. The two pillars of English society, industry and the Church, stand out in personal relief as the play moves along its main theme, the conflict for the love of Candida between Morell and Eugene Marchbanks.

The production and business staffs under the supervision of Mr. J. W. Hulburt were composed of Earl Hague, Kathryn Miller, Myra Bankin, Sarah Thompson, Dale Beatty, Charles Kearney, Leslie Hesselgesser, George Kish, and Fred Neiman.

Der Deutsche Verein Adds 16 Linguists To Club Roll

Sixteen new members were initiated at the monthly meeting of Der Deutsche Verein, German Club, on October 16.

Dr. E. Spann spoke on the political situation in Germany today, tracing the growth of the Nazi regime.

Record Crowd of Alumni Expected to Attend.

The plans for Allegheny's annual Homecoming Day, which will be held Saturday, October 27, have been completed according to Miss Mina L. French, Secretary of the Alumni Association.

Letters and programs have been sent out to all alumni, urging them to attend. The largest gathering ever, of old grads is expected for the celebration of "Grad's Day".

Resumption of the ancient rivalry between Grove City and Allegheny on the football field, a soccer game also with Grove City, a presentation of "The Fan" by the Playshop Theatre, and an All-College dance are the highlights of this year's program.

Friday, October 26

Those alumni who will arrive here on Friday will witness the first home contest of the Allegheny soccer team, who engage the Grove City soccerites at 2:30 on Montgomery Field. At 7:30 p. m. a pep meeting will be held behind Arter Hall. A Men's smoker will be sponsored by the Block "A" Club in Cochran Hall at 8:30. At the same time Open House will be held at Hulings Hall. Men students are cordially welcome to come after their smoker is concluded.

Saturday, October 27

The entire morning will be open for the alumni to pursue their favorite hobbies. Golf, horseback riding, and other sports have been arranged by the committee in charge. Golf will be played at the Culbertson Hills Golf Course, where Mr. Andrew Culbertson has made a special rate to all Alleghenians who wish to play that day.

Classes will also be open to the visitors. The alumni office will be open all day for the purpose of registration of alumni visitors. At 12:00 noon, the annual Alumni Luncheon will be held in Hulings Hall. At 2:30 p. m. the football game between Allegheny and Grove City will take place. Immediately following the game, a tea, sponsored by the Pan-Hellenic Alumni Association, under the direction of Mrs. Paul Giddens will be held in Hulings Hall Living Room. At 6:00 p. m. the fraternities will all hold their annual fraternity dinners. In the evening, at 8:15, "The Fan" will be presented in the Playshop Theatre. The day's activities will be brought to a close with an All-College Dance in the gymnasium at 9:00.

Sunday, October 28

A Morning Worship Service will be held at the Old Stone Church at 10:45 a. m., with a sermon by Bruce S. Wright, '05. The Allegheny Singers will present a program in conjunction with the service. From three to five an Open House Tea will take place at the Tarbell House. All Alleghenians are invited to attend.

It is hoped that all alumni will make plans to come to Meadville for the Homecoming.

Karl K. Smock, '32, is taking charge of the arrangements for the men's activities, and Miss Dorothea Kerr, '21, is in charge of the women's program.

Omicron Delta Kappa To Hold Tapping Exercises In Chapel On Friday

Omicron Delta Kappa and the Men's Senate will cooperatively take charge of chapel on Friday.

The first part of the program will consist of the presentation, by Earl Green, acting for Omicron Delta Kappa, of the scholarship award to the fraternity having the highest average for last year. Following this will be the tapping ceremonies of four seniors into the activities fraternity.

The second part of the program will be in charge of the Men's Senate and will probably consist of a pep meeting in preparation for the next day's game.

WE ARE THE HOSTS.

Saturday will mark the annual Home-Coming Day for Allegheny College. Once again the sons and daughters of old Alleghe' will come back to their Alma Mater.

It is up to the student body of Allegheny to show the Alumni a good old fashioned time. Give them a big hand and make them feel they are all welcome. When we stop and think about it, we can see that we owe a great deal to the alumni of this college, both young and old. They have helped in many ways to make the college what it is. It is because of the alumni of our college that we now have a reputation that is quite enviable.

Make them feel at home, students! Try to show them that we do appreciate the interest which they have in us, and the help they have given us.

Plans are being made for the "crashing" activities for Thursday evening.

Speakers At W. S. G. A. Convention

S. M. STURTEVANT

Miss Sturtevant, at present affliated with the student personnel administration, Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, spoke on the subject "The Function of Student Government on the Modern College Campus."

Miss Sturtevant said: "Government anywhere, broadly speaking, is intended to make people happy. It should not be a constructive nor a tyrannic measure.

"Two important functions of student government are the education of the governed, and the finding of the right leaders to head the organization," Professor Sturtevant stated. "The four essential qualities demanded of the leader are brains, balance, purpose, and sympathy."

Taking up the problem of discipline, the speaker classified offenders as ignorant, self-indulgent, anti-social, or fun loving. Offenders should be made to feel pain at their misdemeanors by realizing that they are working against the common good.

DR. THYRSA W. AMOS

The modern trend in the curricular activities emphasizes the individual and treats him as an adult, according to Dean Thyrsa Amos, University of Pittsburgh, in her address, "Educational Advantages of Extra-curricular Activities."

Activities are no longer based on the kindergarten idea of keeping the students occupied, with emphasis on the group or subject; instead they are planned to instruct adult individuals in the art of living.

Shouldering freshmen with responsibility, and electing popular, but incompetent collegians to important jobs are two big weaknesses in the collegiate program of activities, in Dean Amos' opinion.

Faculty and administration should take a lively part in activities, as well as students, to them mutual benefit, the speaker concluded.

FLORENCE M. NICHOLSON

In treating her subject of personality adjustments among college women, Dean Florence M. Nicholson, of Ohio Wesleyan U., attempted to answer four questions: "What is a well adjusted personality?" "What constitutes a personality adjustment?" "What kinds of maladjustments do we find on the campus?" "What can student governments do about these maladjustments?"

The speaker defined a well adjusted personality as one "who has an even balance and harmony, gets along easily, yet preserving her own individuality."

Some things causing maladjustments on college campuses are ill health, sex problems, competing desires, and senses of inferiority, the speaker stated.

Student government can help in cases of maladjustment by trying to understand girls instead of blaming them, and by handling rules and penalties so they do not hinder proper adjustment.

DEAN KARL LEEBRICK

Discussing the relationship of student government to the honor system, Dean Karl Leebrick, Syracuse University, said in part.

"The honor system is not of itself an essential part of student government. Under most circumstances, however, student government should concern itself with the honor system.

"Two things make the honor system difficult: The students fell that they must not bear tales; and most students believe in minding their own business. Both of these difficulties must be overcome by an education program."

"One of the chief results of the honor system should be not only its effects on the university, but also upon the individual in his future relationships in society after leaving the university.

"To make college life contribute most to students, there must be honesty before the desk as well as behind it."

Letters to the Editor

Editor, The Campus
Allegheny College
Meadville, Pennsylvania

Sir:

May I usurp sufficient space to clarify a personal situation which has been precipitated by the appearance in the last issue of the Campus of the "Letter to the Editor" above the signature of El Tintero? Certain individuals have assumed that I am the author of that letter.

May I merely suggest the absurdity of any such assumption?

Sincerely,
Edward J. Stainbrook.

Three Exhibits In Library Mark Contribution To Homecoming Program

In connection with the Home Coming program Reis Library will feature three exhibit groups, Miss Rowley has announced.

The rooms on the second floor, in which the original library is housed, will be open to both students and alumni on Saturday, October 27, from ten o'clock until twelve and from one o'clock until two. Also on exhibition will be the records of the old Philo-Franklin and Allegheny Literary Societies.

At the charging desk there will be a group of school books of an early date. Also several books and letters of Timothy Alden will be exhibited.

A man who has been smoking Granger for a long time said this:

"A package of Granger gives me and my old pipe about 9 hours of enjoyment.

"My pipe is about average size, and smoking it leisurely as I like to do, a pipeload of Granger lasts me about 25 minutes, and that means that I get about 21 good pipeloads from every package.

"Was there ever so much enjoyment for so small a cost?"

ALLEGHENY BOWS TO DICKINSON ELEVEN

'Gators Crumble Before Indian Onslaught, 21-0

Fumbles and Errors Prove Costly to Blue and Gold Cause.

After seeing their initial touchdown drive checked by the Dickinson Red Devils, the Blue and Gold aggregation offense and defense fell to pieces, enabling a series of Indian drives to culminate in scores.

Playing alert ball, and taking advantage of every 'Gator error, the Dickinson eleven tallied three touchdowns, and a safety, while holding Allegheny threats in check. They scored in the second, third, and fourth periods. Kiehl tallied the first two touchdowns on line bucks, while the third was made by Sivess, end, on a pass. The other two points were scored on a safety when Blasdell was forced to fall on a fumbled pass from center, behind his own goal line.

Allegheny threatened to score only twice, and was kept on the defense for the remainder of the game, by the strong smooth-working Carlisle team.

It looked at the start of the game as if the Tippineers were off for an early score. Taking the opening kick-off, Berger carried it to the 30. Diaz picked up nine. Weber romped around end for six yards and the 'Gators got a first down on their 45 yard line. Berger then flipped a pass to Hershelman that was good for 51 yards. Hershelman tripped, avoiding a tackler from behind, and fell on the 4 yard line. Here the Allegheny attack stalled. With four downs to make the remaining four yards necessary for a score, the backfield seemed to lose control and on the fourth down ended up on the 24 yard line, for a loss of 20 yards. On the first down from the 4 yard line, Diaz lost three yards, and Weber was stopped cold on the second down. Weber then tried a lateral pass to Berger, but the ball was fumbled and was finally recovered on the 24, from where Weber tried to boot a field goal, but the kick was blocked and Dickinson recovered.

At this point the Allegheny line seemed to be too anxious to stop a Red Devil drive, for three off-side penalties were handed out on three consecutive plays, giving the Indians the ball on their own 40, after giving them a first down. Here the Indians took to the fumbling tactics and the 'Gators took the ball when Blasdell recovered. But again loose play lost the ball. Berger lost four yards on a tackle drive, and then Diaz fumbled to give Dickinson the ball. The rest of the quarter see-sawed back and forth with neither team doing much.

The second quarter began with the Red Devils making a concentrated effort to score. Passes put the ball on the Allegheny 1 yard line, where the 'Gator line held for two downs, but Kiehl finally lugged the oval across the line. Larson's place kick was wide, and Dickinson led 6-0.

MCKIM – HALFBACK

Sammy McKim, who has been idle because of broken ribs, broke into the line-up on Saturday, but was forced to the sidelines again by injuries.

Weber caught the kickoff on the goal line and ran it back to the 30 when he fumbled and Dickinson recovered. Their offense was stopped cold by a now determined 'Gator line, but another fumble put another score on the Indian side. After receiving a punt on the 4 yard line, Blasdell dropped back to kick, but fumbled the ball in the end zone, and had to fall on it for a safety giving Dickinson an additional two points.

Another Allegheny drive started, with McKim, substituting for Diaz, carrying the ball. Taking the ball on the 45, McKim made a yard through center, and then went through tackle for five more yards. Weber made it another first down off tackle. Berger went through the line for four, and then on a reverse, made five more, but the rally was checked by a 15 yard penalty for holding. The half ended with Dickinson in possession of the ball on the Allegheny 45.

Flashes of offensive power were again displayed at the start of the second half. Hershelman ran back the kick-off to the 30 yard line, where Berger reversed for 13 yards, and a first down. McKim picked up five more at right tackle, and Berger picked up three more, but Weber was stopped with a loss of a yard. McKim, injured, had to be removed.

Dickinson took the punt and after a series of first downs by the medium of a mixture of running and passing plays ended up on the Allegheny 2 yard line, where Kiehl again went over for a score. Another series of fumbles and loss of yardage followed another 'Gator offensive attempt.

The fourth quarter opened with Diaz intercepting an Indian pass on the Dickinson 28. Berger passed to Hershelman for 5 yards. Another pass to Blasdell netted four, and Diaz made a first down on the 18. A lateral pass, Diaz to Berger picked up six yards, putting the ball on the 10 yard line, but the sight of the goal line, seemed to check the drive, Berger dropping a lateral, and then a pass went into the end zone with no one near the ball. Another pass was knocked down, and Dickinson took the ball.

Another fumble paved the way for the final Indian tally. Diaz attempting a quick kick fumbled the ball but recovered, for a loss. After the punt, Dickinson started a drive through the second string 'Gator team. Harvey found a mammoth hole at guard for 21 yards. Then three successfully completed passes in a row, gave Dickinson another touchdown and brought the score to 21-0. The game ended soon after.

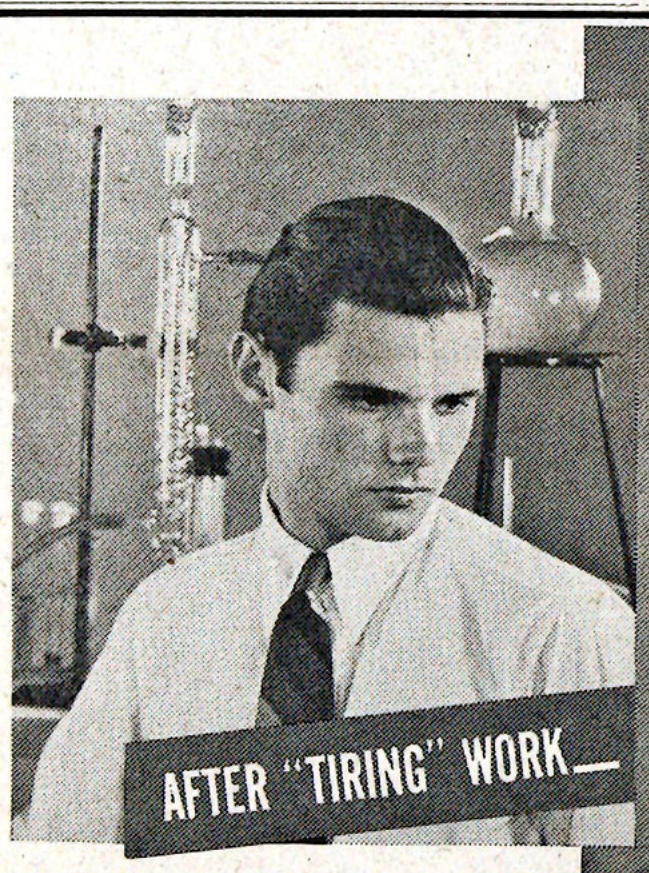

Dickinson tried 10 passes, completing six, while Allegheny tried seven, only three of which clicked. The 'Gators piled up 5 first downs, while the Indians ploughed through for 13. The Tippineers were outrushed 179 yards to 63, and gained only 59 by passes, to 90 by the Red Devils.

Thrush, Clark, Larson, and Kiehl all had too much for the 'Gators to cope with. Weighing an average of 190 pounds, this quartette, along with Sivess, end, pounded out a victory for the Red Devils.

Tales of a varied sort came back with the team on their return from Alfred. We still like the one about Bill Berger practicing his persuasive wiles on a certain waitress in a Bradford hotel. How about it, Bill, did you get the stewed apple?

Allegheny Takes Part In Diamond Jubilee Of Oil Exposition In Titusville

Alleghenians took a prominent part in the Diamond Jubilee of Oil held at Titusville this August. To this exposition came prominent men from all over the country to honor Col. Drake, who at that locality, seventy-five years ago, drilled the first of the many oil wells that now adorn this country.

On the nights of August 24 and 25 was given "The Pageant of Oil", which depicted the growth of the oil industry from August 27, 1859, when the first well came in near Titusville, to the present day. This pageant was written by an Allegheny graduate, Elmer Hickman, '16, who also directed the 300 persons in the cast. Mr. Hulburt, of the Allegheny Playshop, assisted him in this task.

Mr. Hickman took the part of Timothy Alden in the Allegheny Centenary Pageant written by John Pierce Baker in 1915. He is now connected with the Carnegie Tech drama department.

Alumni From Playshop Enter Various Fields Of Dramatics

That dramatic training received in college can be turned to good use is shown by the success of Allegheny alumni who were formerly prominent in Playshop activities.

Three of the Playshop's leading actors of the past few years are now connected with the Erie Playhouse. These are Bramer Carlson, '33, Charlotte Merwin, '33, and Jean Holman, '34. Mr. Carlson is engaged as both stage manager and actor, and now has a part in "The Drunkard", soon to be presented. Miss Merwin, in addition to her acting ability, also possesses that of translator. She has translated several plays from French to English. Her favorite is one by Alfred de Musset, "A quoi revent les jeunes filles," If the title holds any key to the plot of this play, we can easily tell why this is Miss Merwin's favorite.

William Roos, '34, is now in New York, engaged in dramatic activities in the theatrical capital of the United States. Robert Wilson, '29, now teaches dramatics at the Jamestown, N. Y. High School.

Virginia Jane Miller, '34, and Helen Wicks, ex-'37, are both continuing their work in dramatics. Miss Miller is taking graduate work at the Yale Drama School, while Miss Wicks is attending the Carnegie Tech Drama School. The excellent work of both last year will be remembered.

The Playshop is now building a scale model of the stage of the Playshop Theatre. This model, which will be one-fourth size, will be used in the construction of scenes and in the working out of lighting effects.

"Hangovers"

Do you know what head of a department in this "residential institution" of ours recommended "Mae West" for his children? This calls for a cheer! More people like this are always welcome . . . How many persons turned red when they walked into the Phi Delt House the night of the Alpha Chi pledge party? Perhaps we have been laboring under a delusion concerning the gentlemen scholars! . . . Suggestion for the week. Let's take up a collection or plan a benefit of some sort, to raise funds for the replacement of the steps back of Wilcox. It is necessary that something should be done while some are left who look back with some degree of nostalgia upon it's potent accessability. In addition to reviving a most historic spot, the reconstruction would relieve a certain amount of prevalent overcrowding of various places on the campus, which has proved quite distressing as well as distracting . . . Echos from the Student Government Convention: "My such a good time as you people have here, don't you ever have to work at all. Now at our school—." "Allegheny men expect too much on short acquaintance, but they are nice." "My! Is it really customary for the men around here to run around without shirts? Why, at our school, the boys would never think of associating with the women without a shirt and tie on!" At least that much, please! . . . Now, perhaps, after the student Government dance we can appreciate our own Co-eds. Maybe we're pretty fortunate after all. If we could only have a convention of the Men's Senate so the women could see how lucky they MAY be . . . As the women say it—Freshman year: Took a chance; Sophomore year: Paid for taking a chance; Junior year: Let's take a chance; Senior year: No chance at all! . . . Best of the week—Helen Edmundson as Candida, especially in the last scene, and Paul Gilmore as Marchbanks. Difficult parts beautifully done . . .Have you heard about the young sophomore romeo who exclaimed as he helped a nervous Theta from a rickety bridge, "Be still, fluttering heart"? . . .The old threshold of Bentley Hall (built before the first railroad in America) has sometimes threatened to take the place of the now defunct Wilcox steps . . . We hear the college is planning to beautify the lower ravine with trees and a pond. What no benches? . . . "Your home is where your family is." Wonder how many co-ed's families moved to Waldemeer last week-end? Well Isham Jones!—What New England girl signed out to go home over last week-end? . . . Did you hear about that bicycle ride taken by one of the Hulings residence staff, the ride that started on the top of the hill, but couldn't stop at the desired place, because the rider didn't know how to stop, and had to coast all the way down to the Diamond before the bike would come to a halt? . . . What cute little co-ed had to walk along Route 19, because she threw a pillow? . . . Some dizzy co-ed thought that a mushroom was the Hulings Hall vestibule, after 10:00 at night . . . T'was coincident that the Alpha Chis used the Phi Delt house for their dance . . . A definition was once given here on the campus that a local fraternity was a sorority, then the ex B. U.s got a lot of publicity. Then came the merging of this "sorority" with a frat, the Delt-B. U. merger. Now we suggest the combination of another frat-sorority, the Phi Delts and Alpha Chis . . . And by the way, it's about time men were allowed to take their dates to fraternity houses. That is legally! Now that, for some unknown reason, the lounge at Hulings is to be only a "playroom", its getting difficult even to find a place to sit down. The one lone sitting room in the dorm is going to be overcrowded when it gets too cold to stroll. Admitting that the women's rules are fairly liberal, why not take another step and solve the where-to-go-problem . . . These profs.—No sooner does a student get some decent little rag on his mental nakedness than up bobs some prof. to snatch it away . . . Well, we'll close with this:

A freshman on the campus green
Prepared to do some fussing,
A sophomore copped the little queen

What industrial person took Mariana Rall up on her poem appearing in last week's issue of this paper, and counted the light bulbs and organ pipes in chapel, even going so far as to tell Mariana she had missed by three?

Allegheny To Meet Strong Opponent In Grove City

Goal Line of Strong Grover Team Uncrossed So Far This Year.

Grove City will present a formidable grid machine next Saturday afternoon against the 'Gators, when one of the oldest rivalries is resumed in the big Home-Coming event.

To date in a series of 77 contests each team has won 37 victories and have tied three times.

Grove City's team possesses a fine defense and a good scoring attack. Their goal line has not been crossed this year, and the lowest score they have run up was 18 points against Slippery Rock. Last week the team ran over Bethany by the score of 30-0. This certainly is a formidable record, but the 'Gators will be in the game fighting every quarter to break up this string of victories and to bring Grove City into camp.

Their outstanding player is Smith, their 190 pound smashing full back. The team is made up this year largely from veteran material, and uses the double wing back offense. Orris and Gross are veteran halfbacks, and Waleski calls their signals.

Tomko and Schwartz are back in their old positions this year at end, and Beeres and Binder are veteran first string guards. For tackles they will present a new 200 pounder, and a veteran, Ashwood.

The main trouble which Allegheny experienced last Saturday was in punting. Two of the punts in the Dickinson game went only about five yards, and the ends did not cover the punts as they should have. Coach Tippin is working on this point in particular this week, and expects to have that difficulty ironed out by next Saturday. If he can bring Allegheny's punting and covering back to the level displayed in the Clarion game, there should be no trouble whatever from that angle.

Sigs Upset Phi Psis In Football League, Non-Frats Lead

The past week found more of the touch football games completed with many upsets and close contests being witnessed.

On Tuesday, October 16, Beta Kappa downed Alpha Chi Rho in a close game, 12-8.

Late in the first half Vaughan intercepted a pass and ran for a touchdown, giving the Chi Rhos the lead. But a moment later Gaskett passed to Settembrino, to tie the score.

The Chi Rhos again took the lead in the second half when they caught Gasket back of his own goal line, making the score 8-6. A break gave Beta Kappa the winning touchdown when Settembrino intercepted a pass thrown by Goodrich and carried it over, giving the B. K.'s the game, 12-8.

Neither side was assured of victory in this game until the final whistle. The Phi Psis took the lead early and pushed over a touchdown in the first quarter on a pass from Wilson to DuMars. Again in the next quarter they scored, making things look bad for the Sigs.

However, the Sigs scored a few minutes later on a running pass play, Serene to Shields to Werle.

The Sigs entered the third quarter with renewed vigor to put over two touchdowns in rapid succession. Serene passed to Shields and to Dunkle for these scores. A pass, from Wilson to Myers, put the Phi Psis even again with the Sigs, at 18 all.

With only a little time remaining, Serene broke through for the final score on a running play, to win.

The Phi Delts defeated the Delts Friday, 24-18. The game was tied at 6 all at the half, but the Phi Delts drew away in the third quarter to win.

Dixon and Blackwood Advance To Semi-Finals In Tennis

The first round and two matches of the quarter finals of play have been completed in the Women's Inter-Sorority tennis tournament.

Hazel Dixon and Libby Blackwood both advanced a step nearer the title by winning their quarter final matches. Libby Blackwood defeated Betty Beach 6-4, 6-1, in a match that was a toss-up during the first set. Hazel Dixon again ran through her match, having little trouble defeating Julia Fergueson, 6-1, 6-1.

Other quarter-final matches are Mary Miller vs. Isabel Hepler and Dorothea Ely vs. Emma Robertson. These matches will be played off this week.

In connection with the tennis activities, Miss Nancy Peffer has also announced that an all star team in singles and doubles will be selected from each class, and that an intramural contest will be held in the near future.

'Gator Soccer Team Drops Two In Varsity Debut

BOW TO SLIPPERY ROCK 5-0.

Varsity soccer made its debut last week at Allegheny by bringing a defeat at the hands of Slippery Rock, 5-0. The game was played out of town, at Slippery Rock on Tuesday, October 16.

Early in the Slippery Rock game Allegheny was given a free kick, and rapidly drove down the field with the ball, only to lose it on a scoring try. Slippery Rock gained possession, and passed and booted the ball down into 'Gator territory, where Dennis broke up two scoring attempts. On a corner kick Welsh kicked the ball past the goal for the first score of the game. Allegheny countered with a drive which unfortunately came to no account, and a minute later Onufrak scored over Dennis' head to end the quarter, 2-0.

Crawford opened the second period by scoring another goal, and a later scoring try from a corner kick by Clark lost the ball for the Teachers. Allegheny had possession and took the ball down the field. Shafer was given a center kick and nearly scored on it, but it was headed over the goal post by Ewing. The half ended with Slippery Rock in the lead, 3-0.

Welsh scored again in a fast third quarter, in dust so thick that the players were almost invisible from the sidelines. This period saw the 'Gators displaying their best form of the game. Again in the final period Welsh scored over Hutchison's head. Allegheny tried a belated rally, and rushed the ball down the field several times, but neither team was able to score before the game ended. The final score was 5-0 in favor of the Teachers.

Sports Chatter

A linesman and a water boy for Allegheny were supplied by the soccer team. Jerry Acker and Bob Dain were these two officials.

We see by the papers that Grove City and Ithaca both defeated their Saturday's opponents by rather lopsided scores. Grove City beat Bethany 30-0, while Ithaca swamped Hartwick 45-0.

Sam McKim received another rib injury last Saturday. He had hardly recovered from two broken ribs when he entered the game.

RED DEVILS HUMBLE 'GATORS 6-0.

Alligator soccerites dropped their second game of the season on Saturday, when they fell before a clever Dickinson team, on Biddle Field, Carlisle, Pa.

Pushed hard from start to finish, the Allegheny soccer kickers put up a hard fight, but lost 6-0, to the cooperative offensive drives put on by the Red and White.

As the game continued, after a bad start, the experience of playing with a team that has long been under fire, the 'Gators assumed a better position, and during the last quarter found them clicking, with the 'Gator backs bobbing up everywhere, and taking the ball, with well placed boots, down the field into threatening positions, where the greater experience of the Red Devils finally aided them in recapturing the ball.

Dickinson was able to score in each of the periods, continually playing in Allegheny territory during the first three quarters. They displayed an aptness at making goals in every manner, making their last two scores from corner kicks.

The experience of the Dickinson team gave them considerable advantage over the 'Gators. They were able to use their feet in passing the ball down the field with such effectiveness that they could easily be compared to a basketball dribbler. Kerstetter carried the brunt of the attack, aided considerably by McIntyre and Faulk on the offense. The entire 'Gator forward wall played well in the latter part of the game, but their inexperience seemed to awe them during the opening quarters. Dennis had an exceptionally busy day at the goal during the first half.

Soccerites To Make Home Appearance This Friday Noon

The soccer team meets an unknown quantity in Grove City in a game to be played here Friday afternoon on Montgomery Field, starting at 2:15 p. m.

This is the first varsity soccer game which has ever been played here at Allegheny, and it presents an opportunity to the entire student body to be present at the opening home game of a sport new to intercollegiate competition here.

If the calibre of the soccer team is equal to that of Grove City's football machine, the Allegheny soccer men will be up against stiff competition. Last year Grove City split two games with Slippery Rock, which would indicate that their team is on a par with that of Slippery Rock. Our soccer team has gained enough experience in the past two games to give Grove City an even battle, and in all probability will enter the game against Slippery Rock on October 31, with a fifty-fifty chance, or better, of winning.

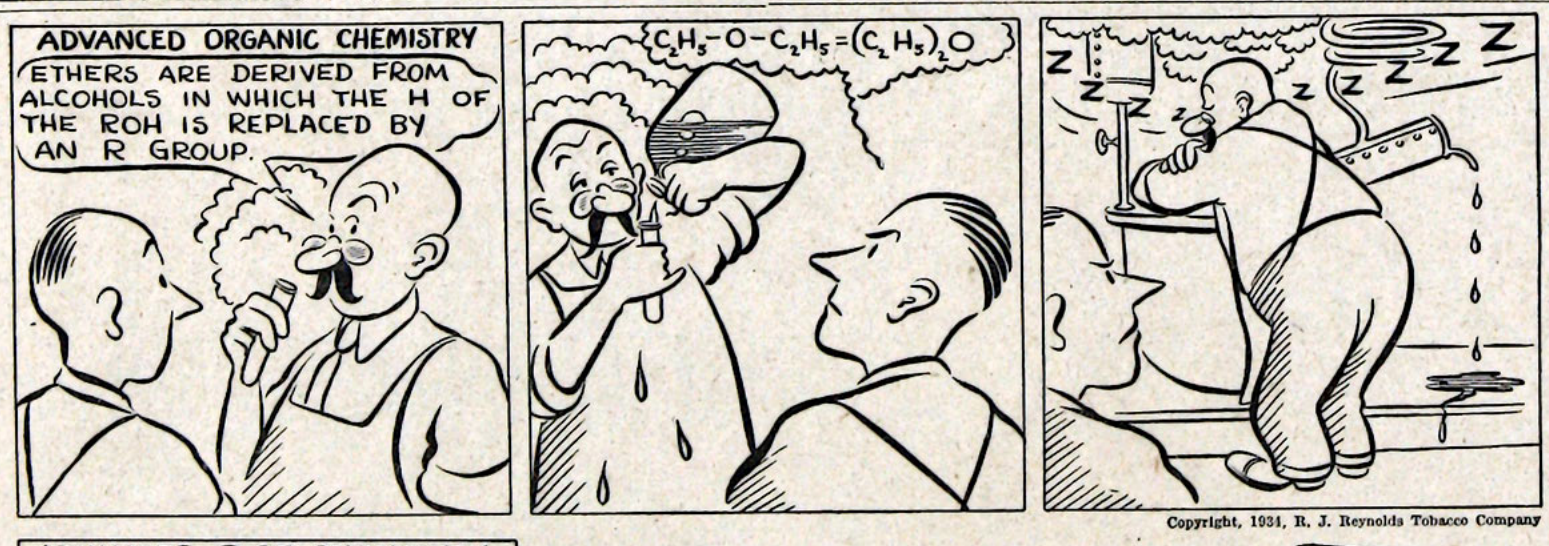

Freshmen! Get busy on that bonfire!

The delegates to the student government conference were entertained at tea in the living room of Cochran Hall on Wednesday afternoon from four until six. Miss Anvilla Prescott, proctor of Cochran, poured and was assisted by the following students: Martha Nicklas, Mary Virginia Jones, Lynn Rupert, Mary Louise Quay, Dorothy McDowell, Sally Young, Elinor Moore, and Betsy Robinson. Jane Stover was in charge of the affair.

About 50 couples dances to the music of Barney Knapp's Melody Weavers on Friday evening at the student government dance. Members of the Activities Board, residents of Cochran Hall, and the delegates to the conference were invited. Dr. and Mrs. William Tolley, Dean and Mrs. John R. Schultz, Miss Anvilla Prescott, Dean Evelyn Miller, and Miss C. Nickleson were the chaperones.

The Theta Upsilon pledge dance was held in the parlor and loggia of Hulings Hall from nine until twelve o'clock Saturday evening, October twentieth. Approximately thirty-five couples danced to the music of Barney Knapp's Melody Weavers.

Prof. and Mrs. Lee D. McLean and Prof. and Mrs. John R. Schultz were the chaperones. Guests included Jane Dasher, Betty McAlevy, Betty Douglass, and Jean Gardner of New Castle.

Alpha Gamma Delta held its pledge dance in Cochran Hall on Saturday evening, October 20, from eight until twelve o'clock. Gayle Brown and his Sophisticates from Erie furnished the music. Dr. and Mrs. O. P. Akers and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Buckingham acted as chaperones.

Parents of Allegheny women were entertained at tea from three until five o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 21, in the parlors of Hulings Hall. Dr. and Mrs. William Tolley, Dr. Evelyn Miller, Miss Anvilla Prescott, Miss Mildred Ludwig, Miss Agnes Painter, Miss Thelma Karlin, Miss Nancy Peffer, Mrs. Grace Ross, and Miss Elizabeth Swarts were in the receiving line. Ada Sherwin and Dorothy Demmler poured. Deborah Mountford was in charge of the affair.

The Phi Delts scored on passes from Williamson to Hulburt, Bortz to Chester, Williamson-Cunningham to Bortz, and Cappe to Chester, while the Delt touchdowns were scored on a pass from Shetterly to Hopkins, a run by Shetterly, and a pass from Jacobus to Shetterly.

The Independents scored a slashing victory over the B. K.'s on Monday afternoon, 26-0. Smith and Zurlo combined to give the non-frats a victory with their well placed passes. Erickson, Archer, and Ivett scored the goals. A safety was also chalked up. This win gives the Independents undisputed possession of first place in League B.

League A—Thursday, October 25, 5:05 p. m., Delta Tau Delta vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon; officials, Tamplin and Africa.

League B—Wednesday, October 24, 5:05 p. m., Phi Gamma Delta vs. Beta Kappa; Richardson and Jacobson. Monday, October 29, 5:05 p. m., Alpha Chi Rho vs. Independents; Wallace and Hopkins.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

girls be represented on the policy forming group of student government; and make definite girls in the dormitory responsible for notifying specific town girls of campus activities.

The use of the point system, wherein activities are rated by points and students allowed to carry only a limited number of points was explained at a session led by Miss Elizabeth Bellamy, Hood College.

Disagreeing with Dean Leebrick's address on the honor system, the report of the discussion group, led by Miss Charlotte Jazombek, Alfred University, on this topic, declared that compulsory reporting of other people is inadvisable because of the adverse attitude created by it towards the honor system.

The fifth discussion group, on "Relation Between Social and Academic Standing," led by Miss Mary Iams, Ohio Wesleyan University, suggested that student government might effect a better balanced social life for more students and the present overloading with social activity during the first year by having the university investigate grades in setting necessary standing before girls can enter activities.

Seven days starting Sat., Oct. 27—A brand-new, popular, starring combination comes to the screen in Paramount's "She Loves Me Not," the film version of the smash Broadway success, with Bing Crosby and Miriam Hopkins in the principal roles.

Acting the role of a love-sick chivalrous Princeton student, Crosby sings and woos his way to the great romance with the daughter of the university dean.

Ted Rosenberg To Play For Homecoming Dance

The Home-Coming Dance to be held in the gym next Saturday, will feature Ted Rosenberg's Band from Sharon, Pa.

This group has played for college and fraternity dances at Pitt, Penn State, Thiel, and Grove City, as well as several Ohio colleges and a local fraternity pledge party. Everyone from Frosh to alumni is urged to take part in this annual affair sponsored by the Men's Senate. The proceeds will be used to furnish the men's lounge in Cochran Hall. Admission will be $1.00 a couple with the festivities beginning at nine o'clock.

CROCODILE TEARS

Betting on the football games seems to be a serious factor in the existence of the gentlemen who work at Cochran. Among the more noted members of this gambling set is Ben Raskin. Raskin, it seems, refuses to bet money, but rather, he bets swats across various regions of the body. That's where the catch comes in—for the purpose of dealing blows, he has a nice oak paddle!! As yet Ben hasn't lost a bet, but heaven help him when he does.

Advice to the Lovelorn: Scalpers are now selling seats in Montgomery field at a reduction on moon-lit nights!

"Jumpin' Joe" Winitzky, pride of '38, witnessed a most nerve wracking experience the other evening. About ten o'clock, as he was disrobing for bed, who should walk into his room but a ghost. Fearing the apparition was the spirit of Jacob Caflisch, Winitz dove under his bed. Mr. Howes, aroused by the noise dashed into the room and in as few words as possible bade the evil spirit to put the shower curtains back and go to bed.

Add to the book of faux pas the one that was "pulled" by the honorable Duane Good at the vesper service on Sunday last. Mr. Good, while announcing the program, made the following remark at the close of the meeting: "Before the offering is lifted—"!!! Boy, what a remark, but on second thought, the group of Frosh that sat in the last row did look rather cut-throatish!!!

Did you hear one of the W.S.G.A. delegates compare our male population with her native gentlemen, because some of our "social offenders" were not garbed in shirts? Tsk, tsk.

Cast Shakespearian Comedy

The first new major production of the Allegheny Playshop this year will be Shakespeare's immortal comedy, "Twelfth Night". The Playshop expects to finish the selection of the cast this week, and rehearsals will begin at once. This will be the first Shakespearean play given by the Playshop since "Much Ado About Nothing" was presented the first year the Playshop Theatre was opened.
