

Dear Jim! - Can you forgive my long silence! You send me glorious presents - keep me posted on Tidewaterline write me a wonderful letter about the Waltham celebration - and I am sure Sara has written you. She does ever.
Living here 2 major surb-tions & 3 heart attacks in 2 1/2 yrs. all but pierced me but I am coming - still crippled but gaining.
You are wonderful to get up from that dreadful fall. If you are up - as I heard.
The war has changed life in our little valley of course - cut off service of all kinds cut down food but Sara manages wonderfully even when it falls to 30 below at this week. - The young of the barren are all in war work, Clara's daughter^{is} an officer in the Wals-Scott's oldest boy in Engineering work 2nd youngest in an Lieutenant in the air service of the Army. 9th son, Gray travels in Florida. Both other boys are at Harvard. One headed for Army. Also for Medicine and Law. Dan, son of the 10 L 36

 GERANIUM
 PELARGONIUM
 BROWNE

