An Acoustic Evening

The College community celebrated three world-renowned performances this Winter in Shaefer Auditorium. On January 24, the first weekend of the Spring semester, "An Acoustic Eveningwith Dave Matthews and Time Reynolds" sold out the 1, 740-seat faiclity. Later in January, the Shaefer stage was transformed into a shaking ring for a performance of the St. Petersburgh State Ice Ballet's version of Sleeping Beauty. In February, folk legend Richie Havens played for an enthusiastic crowd and for hours afterwards signed autographs and chatted with fans. Richie Havens was the first performer on stage to kick off Woodstock in Savgerties, NY, 1969.

A young man of integrity, solid character, and compassion. ~David Veschi

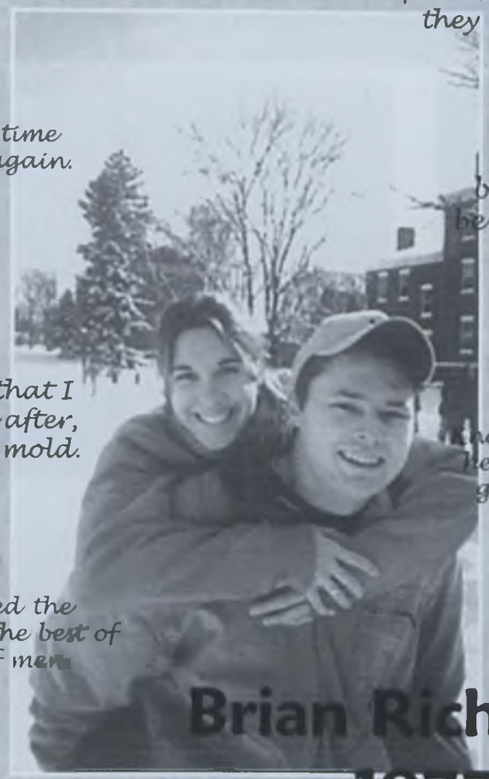

Grogan never hesitated to share his faith, lend a helping hand, listen to somone's concerns, or just love all those he encountered.
~Kathy Conley

Thank you, Grogan, for blessing me with your light.
~Mandy Thompson

Life is short. Yours was too short. But you lived life to the fullest; you loved, you smiled, you laughed, you cried- you did it right. I only hope I can follow in your footsteps.
~Chris Hilf

Allegheny will miss the person who brought the most sincere "hello's" to our campus.
~Betsy Murray

Very few stood up for the right, defended the common sense of life and presented reality to us in they way Brother Groagan did.
~Erick "shecky" Ochs

I look forward to the time when we shall meet again.
~Mia Gentile

He was everything that a brother and friend shoud be except no longer with us.
~John Cantwell

If there was a man that I could model my life after, Brian you would be mold.
~Michael R. Newell

Knowing Brian made me see that he was one of the most loyal and genuine people I have ever met.
~Sarah Lloyd

Brian, you exemplified the best of brotherhood, the best of Allegheny, the best of men.
~Matt Jacobson

Brian Richard Grogan
1977-2000

He was the type of individual who never thought twice of sacrificing his time or efforts to those who needed his help.
~Matthew Moneck

From his bright, friendly smile, to his warm, caring ways, Brian was an inspiration to all who had the pleasure of crossing, or sharing, his path.
~Kristy Whisker

If you met Grogs, you were impressed by his courage and attitude. If you bonded with him, you were inspired.
~Mike Wilson

Brian taught me a great deal about Theta Chi, leadership, and most importantly, friendship. He taught me that at times the best decisions do not follow a set of rules, but they come from your heart.
~Mark Luellen
