

121 East Thirty-fifth Street
New York

My dear Miss Tarbell,

I was more pleased than I can say to have a
note from you with such kind and welcome words about my Lincoln picture book. That you should commend it is the best I could wish.

About the place of
New Harmony - I found the print in the collection of the
New York Historical Society and got for Little Brown a photostatic negative. They could, I'm sure,

easily have a positive
made for you which should be better than a proof. I'm writing them with that suggestion.

Again, thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Agnes Rogers Allen
