My dear Miss Tarbell:

Enclosed you will find a typewritten copy of the script Jane Ashman has just completed "Ladies of the Press" to be broadcast January 30th at two p. m. over the Blue Network of the National Broadcasting Company under the joint auspices of the United States Office of Education and the Women's Activities Division of NBC, about which I spoke to you over the telephone the other day.

This has not been edited but as you are leaving town the end of the week, I am sending it to you post-haste for your information.

I hope it meets with your approval and that you will gladly sign the enclosed releases and return them to me at your earliest convenience.

Very sincerely yours,

Eva vB. Hansl.
