

September 15, 1921

Mr. John Parker,
9th & Sansom St.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Parker:

Thank you for your fine letter of the 15th ult. I am glad you took my decision as you did. You have blown away the cloud of suspicion that was over my and my publishers' heads!

As soon as I finish the piece of work that I am now engaged in, I hope to plunge into the continuation of the Standard book, and some day be able to send you a copy as evidence that we are on the square.

Very sincerely yours,