My dear Miss Tarbell-

I will call Mr. Moffat's attention to your royalty statement as soon as he returns from Boston. There has been an unaccustomed hand working on the statements, which must account for the foolish and annoying mistakes. I am very sorry about it.

I shall be very glad to see you about the contracts in the near future. I am sending Mr. Bacon today a note I have had from Doubleday about the copyrights and old contracts -

Sincerely

Robert H. Yard
