Alton Packard to Be Here Tuesday Evening

Humorous Lecture Will Be Given to Students by Master Cartoonist

A Letter Received From Alton Packard

Highly recommended by capable critics of all parts of the country, Alton Packard comes to the Chapel on next Tuesday evening to offer his audience an entertainment which will be remembered by them for years to come. Newspapers of many states have heralded him with enthusiasm. The following has appeared in one of our greatest newspapers:

Alton Packard, master cartoonist, illustrates his humorous lectures by drawing enormous cartoons in the presence of the audience. He carries with him an immense easel with a large quantity of paper and a variety of crayons.

Mr. Packard's splendid evening of entertainment includes not only the cartoons, but also original songs, the accompaniment of which Mr. Packard furnishes on the piano. One of his greatest song successes is "When You Get What You Want You Don't Want It."

During his career as a cartoonist, Mr. Packard has covered practically the entire United States. He has been recalled a number of times to such cities as Boston, Cleveland, New York, Philadelphia, Washington, Oklahoma City, Long Beach, Cal., Kansas City and Chicago. He has been on Lyceum and Chautauqua programs for more than twelve years.

Mr. Packard is often referred to as the successor of the late Frank Beard, the famous cartoonist of the Ram's Horn.

The following from the Omaha World-Herald is one of the typical press notices concerning Mr. Packard's work:

"Packard was all that he was advertised to be—entertaining, funny, instructive and in every way satisfactory. While his delineations of American life in cartoons, impersonations, song and story are full of wit and humor, there is a sober thought through it all that says, 'Have a worthy aim in life.'"

Alton Packard's entertainment offers the third of the series given by the Y. M. C. A. of the college. On Feb. 10, and March 18, Selma Lenhart, the well-known reader, and the National Male Quartet, respectively, will appear. Both these numbers have been leaders in lyceum courses wherever such courses have been offered. Course tickets, including admission to the program of next Tuesday, are being offered for $1.50. Single admission for Packard's number is 75 cents. The townspeople may secure their tickets at Ballinger & Siggins' Drug Store or the Red Cross Pharmacy. Students may obtain them from any member of the Y. M. C. A. Cabinet—Messrs. Neely, Larson, Boynton, Havice or Braun.

Judging from certain communications the Lyceum Course managers have received from Alton Packard, this famous cartoonist is going to provide no small amount of humor and laughter for his audience on next Tuesday evening.

The following excerpts have been taken from a letter recently received: "I am soon to land in your midst with a view of conducting one of my painless executions. As the midst is one of the tenderest spots to land in, I warn you in advance and wish to state that I will bring my "Entire Company," consisting of a big bundle of equipment (150 lbs.), two large cases, and an umbrella—all stars.  A good piano should be on the platform as I always play a few pounds of music. Extra good light is essential to illuminate my sketches, and it often requires much light to see through my jokes. An audience seems to be an absolute necessity.

P. S. I will later advise you of the time of my arrival so that you can obtain the dog and fire twenty-one guns—but no eggs—I keep hens myself.

Throughout his entertainment Packard exhibits a keen sense of humor, and some of his cartoons create much laughter. For instance, he has drawn a cartoon of a professor abounding in oddities, and has labeled it "Teacher was not a normal graduate—and he looked it!"

PROF. A. J. ANDREWS DELIVERS LECTURE

BALKAN SITUATION CLEARLY DISCUSSED IN ILLUSTRATED LECTURE.

Prof. A. I. Andrews, of Tufts College, sent by the Internal Relations Club of New York, lectured Thursday evening in Alden Hall, under the auspices of the History and Political Science Club. As a student of Near East, Prof. Andrews has a clear understanding of his subject, which was, "General Situation of the Balkans." The lecture, based upon his travels in the Balkan states, and illustrated by lantern slides which he himself photographed, was very interesting.

He says that there is an entirely new situation in the Balkan states, due to the growth of these states as a result of the readjustment of territory. While there is a great variety of languages spoken, the people are turning to the French and especially to the English as the language they wish to adopt. The Balkans believe in the United States as a country of right and justice. They would like to trade with us, because they know the United States has no political interests in their country. The fact that another war may come from the Balkan states, affecting the interests of the United States even more vitally, can easily be believed.

The slides showed various phases of the scenery, architecture, industry and religion of the Balkan states. The poverty of Jugoslavia, resulting from the devastation of the war was shown by the lack of paved streets. In Belgrade there was only one well paved street. The concluding picture was of Robert College in Turkey, founded by Americans. This college for men, and the women's college in Constantinople, have great influence in bettering the conditions in the Balkans.

PROF. HAMMETT TALKS AT MEETING OF THOBURN CLUB

Coach Hammett gave the members of the Thoburn Club a very practical and helpful talk last Thursday evening, when the club held its regular meeting in the Oratory of the Chapel.

In the business meeting the members discussed plans for a party to be held in the near future.

C. C. Grant, '11, a civil engineer of the United States Construction Division, War Department, who worked under the Secretary of War as an assistant engineer for four years, has been visiting his family in Meadville.

Even the students who graduated last year are widely scattered:

Mary Hilderbrand, '21, is assistant the Youngstown Public Library.

DEBATING TEAMS HAVE BEEN CHOSEN

FIRST INTERCOLLEGIATE DEBATE TO BE A TRIANGLE CONTEST WITH WOOSTER AND WASHINGTON AND JEFFERSON.

With the final varsity tryouts on last Friday, Allegheny's debating season was fairly well under way. From twelve competitors the following men were chosen to represent this institution: Affirmative team—Mortimer Graham, John Bosic, Charles Bollinger, and Leo Sutton; Negative team—Julian Ross, J. E. Larson, George Braun, and Ralph Demmler. Three out of each of these groups will constitute the regular team, and the fourth will be an alternate, but as yet it is undecided who will act in the latter capacity in either team.

The first intercollegiate debate will be a triangle contest with Wooster and Washington and Jefferson. The matches will be arranged as follows: Our affirmative representatives will be pitted against the W. and J. negative at the Ohio school, and our negative contest with the Presidents' affirmative at Washington. The date of the matches is not yet decided upon, but it will probably be set some time in the latter part of March.

The teams are under the supervision of Drs. Swartley, Littell, McLean and Darling.

Plans are being rapidly completed for the coming Washington Birthday Banquet. The classes are expected to organize and decide upon the matter of decorations and costumes. It is hoped that the entire student body will co-operate to make the banquet a huge success.

COLLEGE PREACHER WILL BE BISHOP F. M. BRISTOL

Bishop Frank M. Bristol, of Chattanooga, Tennessee, will be the preacher at the monthly Vesper Service which is to be held in Ford Memorial Chapel at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

As the famous lecturer on "Brains," a lecture which he has delivered more than a thousand times to American audiences, Bishop Bristol needs little introduction to assure Alleghenians and the townspeople of an inspiring message.

It is interesting to note that he was the pastor of the Metropolitan M. E. Church at Washington for ten years, during which time President McKinley, an Allegheny alumnus attended his church. He was also pastor of the Trinity M. E. Church of Chicago for fifteen years, thus having served two of the largest churches in Methodism.

Aside from his clergy endeavors, Bishop Bristol is an author of many books on art, literary and patriotic subjects. Among his best works are: Providential Epochs, Shakespeare and America, and The Ministry of Art. He was a colleague of the late Dr. Frank W. Gunsaulus and a co-laborer with Eugene Field, the poet.

As an orator his speech is characterized by fine rhetorical finish and great oratorical power and for many years he has been a favorite college and universiey preacher.

He was graduated from Northwestern University in 1877 and was elected to the office of Bishop in 1908.

COL. J. H. REISINGER DIES SUDDENLY

COLLEGE LOSES NOTED ALUMNUS AND JOURNALIST.

The death of Col. J. W. H. Reisinger, which occurred early Friday morning at his residence on lower Park avenue, deprived Allegheny of one of its oldest alumni.

James William Henry Reisinger was born in Beaver county, Pa., on Jan. 19, 1833. At the age of 19 he entered Allegheny College and was graduated in the class of 1856. After leaving college he was, for a time, a teacher, but when the Civil War began, he was among the first of Pennsylvania's sons to offer his services. After the war he selected journalism for his life work. For thirteen years he owned and published the Meadville Daily and Weekly Republican.

The announcement of Col. Reisinger's death came as a surprise, as few were aware that he was ill. His only daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Compton, of New York, were in Meadville at the time of his death.

All students not intending to return to college next semester, and who desire The Campus, Literary Monthly, and Kaldron, kindly see W. W. Bingaman at once.

NOTED ESSAYIST SPEAKS AT CHAPEL

IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATED MEN AND WOMEN IN REGARD TO AMERICA'S FUTURE IS TOPIC OF ADDRESS

Dr. Samuel McChord Crothers, a prominent pastor of Cambridge, Mass., gave an interesting talk in Chapel last Dr. CrothersWednesday morning.

"The college has a place that it has never had before," said Dr. Crothers. "Heretofore people have been fitted for simple tasks, but it is now a difficult thing to take one's right position in a world that is constantly changing. The modern world will require much more intelligence than the world of the previous generation. In order to deal with great problems, America must educate men and women in the modern conveniences for thinking, since destiny depends upon the unknown citizen having the power to direct. Men who have possessed the power to do things and to use their minds have had character as well as cleverness. Is the work of these men who have borne so much to pass for nothing? It is for the college man and woman to prepare to fulfill their work to make this world really a new world.

MUSIC SOCIETY COMPRISES MANY NOTED ARTISTS

THIRD NUMBER OF CONCERT SERIES TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY EVENING.

Next Friday night at Ford Memorial Chapel the New York Chamber Music Art Society will present the third number of the Allegheny College Concert Course.

This society was formed to meet an actual demand for an organization of artists of the highest standard to interpret the works of the great masters and the modern composers which are seldom, if ever, heard. The string body consists of a quartet and a contrabass. The winds consist of flute, obeo, clarinet, bassoon and French horn. The strings were organized with the notable co-operation of Dr. Frank Kneisel, founder of the famous Kneisels. Cyril Towbin, the with the Russian Symphony Orchestra and last summer he was soloist at the stadium concerts in New York. Karl Kraenter, also violinist, is a high honor graduate of the institute of Musical Art, winning artist diploma, composition diploma and first prize in composition. Nicolai Moldavan, viola, is a graduate of Petrograd Conservatory and was decorated by the late czar. Percy Such, the 'cellist, has had the special distinction of being asked to participate in the Chamber Music concerts of the Beethoven Festival at Bonn and London.

The wood-wind instruments are headed by George Grisey, who for ten years was the solo clarinetist of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. Arthur Lora, flute, is said to be the most sensational performer on his instrument

Musical Clubs Render Unusual Concert

Program Replete With Chorus and Solo Numbers

A complete "hit" was scored by the College Glee and Musical Clubs in their Home Concert last Friday evening in the Chapel.

The program was replete with ensemble and solo numbers. The first part contained five sections and the second had six. Part one was opened by the entire club rendering "Sing Her Praises," with a two-part interpretation, which was well appreciated.

John Himebaugh's saxophone solo as the second number of part one was played with the ease and finesse of an artist. His technique and tonal qualities were excellent and reflected professional ability.

The Musical Club, composed of the members of Gage's Collegians, was at its best. The numbers played by this organization, both in part one and part two, were well received, and demanded encores.

Mr. Bozic's exceptional ability as a platform reader was well brought out in his selection, "An Abandoned Elopement." His splendid delivery and clear expression held the audience through the reading.

The first part was ended by the Glee Club with "De Coppah Moon." The encore, "Sweet and Low," best exemplified the wonderful expression control. Each selection was replete with rich tones and soothing qualities.

Part two was opened by the Musical Club with "Have You Forgotten?" and "June Moon," which were played with the usual excellent technique of this organization. Enthusiastic applause was accorded the players on the recall.

"Buck" Wolz with his "little ditties" was very clever and entirely pleasing. "Buck's" method of expression and clear tones made it possible for him to keep the interest of his audience. On answering very hearty applause after the completion of his number, Mr. Wolz returned and, accompanying himself on the piano, sang, "I Don't Bother Work and Work Don't Bother Me."

The most pleasing selection of the entire club was "On the Road to Mandalay." This song was sung with exquisite harmony. The encore, "Mary Had a Little Lamb," was very clever and surprising, due to its unique interpretation.

Mr. Bollinger's picture representing a family of four, using "only one line," was very original. His drawing of the "chick—or a young lady," from an egg was very attractive and even beautiful. Charles Bollinger is a chalk talker of real ability and marvelous originality, deserving of the highest praise.

The solo of Walker Kinkaid proved his mastery of the piano, as did also his part as accompanist of the entire club.

The concert was brought to a close by the ensemble number of "Oh, Didn't It Rain," followed by "Alma Mater Beatissima," and long and hearty applause from the audience.

Much credit for the wonderful success of the evening is due Prof. John A. M. Stewart, director, and Chase R. Gage, leader, as well as every member of the Glee and Musical Clubs.

VARIETY OF SUBJECTS FEATURE AT FORUM

MANY VIEWS WERE EXPRESSED IN EXTEMPORANIOUS SPEAKING CONTEST

Extemporaneous speaking took the place of the regular program in the Forum last week. The subjects spoken on ranged from "The Value of a Rural Community House" to "France as an International Menace." The variety of topics indicate the wide scope of the speakers' thoughts.

Speaker Ross stated that 96 per cent. of our graduates in the past forty years, who had attained grades of "B", or above, were successful in their chosen fields. But on the other hand, only 12 per cent. of those under "B" had gained distinction. His topic was "Comparative Values of Working and Not Caring for Grades."

"Resolved, That the Policy of Open Shop Should be Adopted" was announced as the subject for the next debate by Dr. Swartly.

JOINT MEETING OF Y. M.-Y. W. WILL BE HELD

REV. POTTER, OF ERIE, AN ALUMNUS OF ALLEGHENY WILL BE SPEAKER.

A joint meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. will be held in the Chapel Wednesday evening, Jan. 18, at 7 o'clock. The speaker will be Rev. Mr. Potter, of Erie. He is an alumnus of Allegheny and will be remembered by many of the student body as the preacher at one of the last year's Sunday services.

There will be musical numbers by both the Girls' Glee Club and the Men's Glee Club. Everyone is welcome to attend the service.

LIBRARY REPAIRS NEAR COMPLETION

REPAIRS HAVE BEEN MADE TO ROOF AND INTERIOR OF BUILDING REFINISHED.

The Library is undergoing a complete renovation and change of color scheme throughout. Following the roof repairs made during the fall, work was started before the holidays on refinishing the second floor. The walls, which were greatly damaged by water caused by defects in the roof, have now been repaired. The following rooms have been completed: The Quill Club room, the French Seminar, which will soon be furnished by the French Club, the Faculty room, and the Classical Club room. The work on the halls and side walls of the main rooms on the first floor is progressing rapidly. The old familiar green has given way to a soft, pleasing yellow tint, which adds very much to the light as well as the appearance of the library. The Faculty room is to be made into an English Seminar. The Classical room has been decorated with a frieze of Greek Key designs in Roman Purple on a wall of olive green.

A cork floor will be laid in the main first floor rooms as soon as it is convenient to do so.

CHESS CLUB BEGINS TOURNAMENT SOON

MATCH WITH UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH PLANNED FOR EARLY SPRING.

That Allegheny will be on the map as a rendezvous of chess sharks is assured by the fact that the Chess Club is making plans for a match with the University of Pittsburgh some time early in the spring. According to the program as at present formulated Allegheny will be represented by the four best players in the school. These men will be chosen in a series of tournaments by a process of elimination. Every man in the school, whether a member of the club or not, will be eligible for the team, and so it behooves all claimants to proficiency in this sport to start practice for the elimination contests, which will commence shortly after examinations.

LE PETITE SALON AND ALLIANCE FRANCAISE ENTERTAINED MONDAY AFTERNOON.

Le Petit Salon and Alliance Francaise were entertained on Monday afternoon by Mrs. A. H. McCoy at her home on the Diamond. Prof. Russo discussed present day conditions in France. The following officers of Alliance Francaise were elected for the ensuing year: Dr. Church, president; Mrs. McCoy, vice president; Miss Chrevet, secretary; Prof. Doty, treasurer. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

EDITORIAL

The Board of Trustees has done its part toward the advancement of Allegheny athletics. It rests with the students to complete the task, to make the program a success. More efficient coaching and more efficient management will gain their end only with the support of the old-time Allegheny spirit, which manifested itself so materially in former days, and still crops out spasmodically. Without the backing of the student body, as individuals and as a unit, all of the plans of the trustees will be fruitless.

When you go home, between terms, talk up Allegheny for all that the old college is worth to you. Get in touch with prospective students and then remember Coach McCracken's words at the Football Banquet, "Don't keep the college under a bushel." Boost Allegheny!

—A—

HOW DO YOU STAND?

Do we here at Allegheny really like individual independence or do we imagine it? Let anyone accuse us of going with the mob and what happens? Always we are ready to rear back and fight the accuser. We revolt against the idea of being dependent, merely against the "idea." In theory we hate it. In practice we love it. There is no other training school offering better chances to practice individuality than that of college. And we can be assured that only to the degree that we are independent here can we hope to be independent elsewhere.

The other man's ideas are too often all valuable to us. We are particularly concerned with what he thinks ,when we will do this or that, always to our own great harm. How do we solve our minor daily problems? Are we always straining our ears and eyes for his point of view? Let him say, "O, I'm putting mine off 'til next week" and are we ready to do likewise? Are we making him our judge? Given subscription cards for any movement whatever and must we find out what he is giving before we can give? How will he handle this? or that? When will he handle it? How will he start his?

We sit in class listening to lectures. Our neighbor picks up his pen to record a note. We pick up ours. We make him our guide post, our eternal sense of direction.

If we could learn to be independent, the way would be so much easier. It puts us out more than we realize—this wondering about the other man. We keep one eye on duty and one on him. His feet and our feet are on the same line. We watch him. He moves and we move. The whole thing is so trying. If we could forget him and step out going, straight ahead, taking our own course!

People who do it say it is a wonderful thing—this walking on ones own feet!

During the past year the student body has met one financial drive after another for benevolent causes. The same was true through all of last year. Money has been raised for the Near East relief, for the starving people of China, for the Associated Charities, for the Union Colleges of the Orient. The Y. M. C. A. has appealed, the Y. W. C. A. has appealed. In the support of these causes the students should have and wish to have a part.

But is there not some plan whereby these calls may be met systemmatically at one time? During the war the citizens worked out such a plan for meeting the repeated calls for money—namely the War Chest. Why not have a Student Chest to care for the various benevolent calls that are constantly being placed before the collegiate body? This plan is being used successfully in other colleges and universities today. Ohio Wesleyan has a Student Chest which covers the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., general European relief, an emergency fund (for unexpected calls), and the Union Colleges of the Orient.

The advantages of such a plan are many. Students are not constantly under the inconvenience of receiving calls for small donations to various benevolent works; worthy enterprises may be aided in a substantial manner; and each contributing student is made to feel that his own efforts have aided worthy causes which he otherwise might not have been able to benefit. Justice is done to the chief benevolent enterprises which should receive the aid of the student body in all Christian colleges.

Why not have a Student Chest at Allegheny?

Dear Editor of "The Campus:

I'm only a Frosh, but I want to know something about the chimes in the Chapel.

I've heard that the Ford Memorial Chapel contains a set of chimes which is very beautiful and harmonious. If these chimes are what I understand them to be, I want to hear them. Is there any way by which I can induce those in charge to have them rung? I think Allegheny would be even dearer to our hearts if we could walk to chapel every day while chimes were pealing forth.

Respectfully yours,
A. FROSH.

"The museum is open to the public every Saturday from 10:30 until noon, while the college is in session," says the catalogue. The person who has had charge of the museum must have been of Jewish descent and therefore taken Saturday off for the last two years, according to reports. However, the place of previous things is now open and anyone desiring to take a look at his ancestors is as welcome as a rain storm in the place where the snowball has no chance. The museum contains many interesting objects from hillwampsus to the extinct whatsist names. Additions to our museum are being sought. The only "A" given to Prof. Goodfellow's English I Class is now being framed as a rare thing. "Tarzan" Fuller has kindly consented to donate his Phi Beta Kappa key to our collection. A piece of chicken from Cochran Hall will be placed on exhibition very soon.

Anyhow, the prophecies in the catalogue are coming true.

Hey—

Have you heard about the straw that broke the camel's back?

I should say so, what about it?

Well, I've found it up in my bed.

ALLEGHENIANS VOLUNTEER

Would you like to take a trip to Alaska? If so, just get in touch with your Congressman and tell him that you are desirous of living in the Frozen North. Two Alleghenians have expressed their intentions to join the great Alaskan Railroad project which is being planned by Uncle Sam. Details of their itinerary have not been completed, but it is known that they will probably sail from Seattle shortly after Feb. 5.

It has been learned that young men are wanted to aid in construction of the railroad, which will be built of hollow rails and ties adapted to the injection of steam, a feature which would cause the snow to melt as it falls, thus clearing the tracks the year around and making practicable the opening up of thousands of square miles of frozen territory.

Owing to the fact that the two men are not in condition to make the trip immediately, they have gone into cold storage apartments, and are dieting on all frozen edibles, one of which is Eskimo Pie.

ATHLETIC PROGRAM WILL BE DEVELOPED

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, IN REGULAR MEETING, DECIDE ON IMPORTANT MATTERS.

A further development of Allegheny's athletic program appears probable from the action taken a week ago yesterday by the Board of Trustees in the semi-annual meeting held in Pittsburgh. Other matters, also vital to the best interests of the college, were discussed at this assembly.

Reports by the president and treasurer showed the institution to be in a very progressive condition in all ways. A report by Mr. Thompson, president of the Board of Trustees, on the Second Century Endowment Campaign, was enthusiastically received and Mr. Thompson was complimented for the efficient way in which he had handled the difficult drive.

The selection was made at this time of those persons who are to receive honorary degrees at Commencement, but their names are being withheld for the present.

Relative to athletics, the sentiment among the trustees appeared to be to place the new program on a firmer basis, without introducing at the same time any of the professionalism which exists at some institutions. Although an effort will be made to give the college better teams in the future than it has had in the past, the tradition of the school for clean, wholesome sports will be maintained at all events.

The first step toward this end will be the reorganization of the athletic association under graduate control. The board of directors will include a graduate manager who will devote his entire time to the athletic interests of the school. He will function in much the same ways as do similar officers of other colleges and universities.

Membership in the association will be extended to alumni and friends of the college, upon payment of a certain annual fee, which will entitle them admission to all athletic games. It is thought that such an offer will be welcomed by many of the staunchest supporters of the college, both in Meadville and elsewhere.

As outlined by President Hixson, the program met with the hearty approval of all of the trustees, who seemed to be of the opinion that Allegheny's sports have been below par, and that the proposed program will remedy the defects in the present system.

SPORTLETS.

Wisconsin leads the Big Ten Conference in the first week of the basketball race. The Badger's standing is perfect, having won two games and lost none.

Carnegie Tech meets Grove City at the latter place next Friday night.

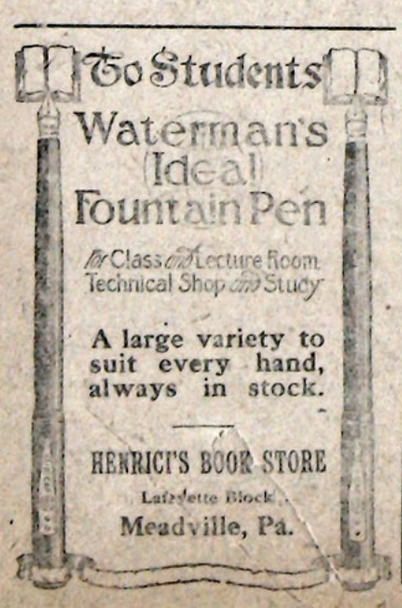

In preparation for one of the largest intercollegiate ski meets in its history, the Dartmouth Outing Club is erecting a $7,000 steel ski jump which will be the largest of its kind in the world. Construction on the steel trestle is being rushed so that Dartmouth may practice jumping before the meet.

Lafayette College fell an easy victim to the versatile attack of the Carnegie Tech five in Pittsburgh last Saturday night, 55-37.

West Virginia University broke Grove City's long winning streak when they defeated the Crimson, 38-29, last Saturday night at Morgantown.

ALFRED OUTCLASSED BY BLUE AND GOLD TOSSERS

Graham and Wise Score Many Field Goals In Fast Offensive

Allegheny overwhelmingly defeated Alfred University here last Saturday night by a score of 57-21. The Empire State passers afforded no opposition for the locals and the final outcome was never in doubt after the first few minutes.

Alfred appeared here for the last game of a disastrous road trip, which included successive defeats at Geneva, Westminster, Thiel, St. Bonaventure and Allegheny.

Scoring started immediately after the opening whistle. Wise tipped the ball to Miller, who passed to Parent under the basket for the first counter of the period. Newton for Alfred then made good on a throw from the foul line. From this time in Alfred never had a chance, as the Blue and Gold signals were working to perfection, and the defense of the visitors was very weak.

Campbell was the best man the visitors had. He dropped in three field goals out of a total of five credited to his team. Graham, Parent and Wise were too much for the New York staters and amassed a total of 50 points among them. Due to the illness of Captain Kofford, Mort Graham assumed charge of the team on the floor and acquitted himself admirably. Ten goals from the field were his contribution to the evening's entertainment. Wise was second in the matter of field goals with seven to his credit. Not only did Wise consistently outplay his man, but he also proved very adept at taking the ball off the bankboard and putting it through the net for a two pointer.

The first half ended 28-12, with the visitors on the short end of the score.

Numerous changes were made in both lineups at the opening of the second half. Allegheny profited by the changes and a total of 29 points were scored, while Alfred had to be contented with nine, seven of which were made from the foul line.

With five minutes to play, Coach Hammett inserted all his substitutes, who held the opposition in check for the remainder of the game.

Lineup and summary:

FRATERNITY BOWLING CREATES INTEREST

PHI DELTS AND DELTS ARE VISITORS IN THE FIRST MATCHES OF SCHEDULE.

The Inter-Fraternity bowling tournament has aroused some lively interest at Cochran Hall in the past week. The results of last week's contests are very encouraging. The fraternities, organized rooting sections, and the men who made "strikes" received applause for their skill—or luck. The large silver loving cup offered for the winner of the tournament, promises to keep the interest alive.

The results of the games bowled last week are as follows:

Saturday at 3 p. m., Tate, Houser, McGowan and Loomis, representing the Phi Delts, defeated Weaver, Kelley Dykes, Reynor and Baily, of Beta Upsilon, in three games. First game, 514-463; second game, 574-463; third game, 533-545.

At 4 p. m., the Delts, in playing the faculty, lost but one game in three—Adams, Risher, Kirkpatrick, McGeary, Schaefer and Doing represented the Delts. Drs. Darling, Schultz, Akers, Church and McClean bowled for the faculty. The results were: 410-418, 405-400, and 400-445.

The schedule for this week is:

Thursday, Jan. 10, 7 p. m.—Phi Gamma Delta vs. Alpha Chi Sigma.

8 p. m.—Phi Beta Phi vs. Alpha Chi Rho.

Friday, Jan. 20, 7 p. m.—Allegheny Club vs. Phi Delta Theta.

8 p. m.—Beta Upsilon vs. Delta Tau Delta.

Saturday, Jan 21, 3 p. m.—Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Faculty.

4 p. m.—Phi Kappa Psi vs. Phi Gamma Delta.

Note: Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Phi Kappa Psi will play off postponed game before Thursday.

BOXERS AND WRESTLERS BEGIN TRAINING

BOXING TOURNAMENT WILL BE STAGED IN MARCH—WRESTLING MATCHES WITH OTHER COLLEGES TO BE SECURED.

Boxing and wrestling are gaining prominence as minor sports in the college. There is some material on which the coaches are working, with the hopes of turning out teams of a high enough calibre to represent Allegheny both in the ring and on the mat.

Boxing.

Coach Krotzer is meeting the boxers every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 4 to 6 p. m. The candidates this year cannot be compared with last year's boxing material, but the men are working hard in an effort to bring out a team worthy of meeting other colleges. If a good team is secured there are possibilities of several bouts. It is rumored that boxing exhibitions may be staged between halves of the basketball games.

A boxing tournament is being planned for the latter part of March. Medals will be awarded to the winner in each class.

Wrestling.

Coach Dickson is certain of a good wrestling team. He has a wealth of material on hand which is developing in fine shape. From present indications the mat-men are sure of a match or two with some other college team. A tentative schedule for the wrestlers is already being planned.

CARNEGIE TECH WILL BE HARD OPPOSITION

TARTANS HOPE TO AVENGE LAST YEARS DEFEAT IN THEIR BATTLE WITH BLUE AND GOLD SATUTDAY

Carnegie Tech comes here Saturday, Jan. 21, with considerable playing experience. The Plaid five, during the Christmas vacation took a pre-season trip, in which six games were played. Although none of these games were won by the Techites, the experience gained in the way of working together and correcting the faults of the team was quite valuable.

The Tartan clan had six men from last year's squad back when the season began, and a worthy list of new men. Sawyer, a new man and an all-around athlete, is proving a whirlwind. He is practically certain of a regular berth.

The Pittsburgh quintet is captained this year by the snappy little guard of last year's team, Robert L. Gibson. Captain Gibson, although small in stature, is a very fast basketball player.

Carnegie Tech's basketball team will tackle Grove City in the Grove City gym on Friday night, and the following night will play the Blue and Gold in Meadville.

WHY NOT AT ALLEGHENY?

When the Freshmen girls at college in Illinois lost their colors to the Sophomores, they were compelled to accept for two months the dictum of the victors in the matter of dress. Consequently, they wore their hair in twenty-four pigtails, with a green ribbon on each one; they wore one black and one white stocking, and a green ribbon around the ankles. A parasol was carried in going from one building on the campus to another.
