Kasonic Home,
Wichita, Kansas, 1-14/29.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thank you for the clipping, and for the very Kind and appreciative letter. I shall send the clipping to McClure's Syndicate, the only one I know of. By the way, will you please give me the street number of the Syndicate? I suppose that my letter would be delivered without the street address, but it is better to be sure. In the mean time, I shall have the clipping typed, so that each of us may have a copy if anything goes wrong.

No, I don't need the Lincoln lectures. I have copies of both. I doubt whether I shall ever deliver either of them again. Byt hold! Why should not I deliver the Common Virtues lecture in say Dr. Fosdick's church when I come down to NewYork to visit Ruth' Snd why should not Dr. Fosdick introduce me as probably the only man living who has shakenhands with AbrahamLincoln? Answer me those if you can: I have just called up the City Library to suggest the purchase of your autobiography, and am delighted to find that they already hve a copy. so I shall have the pleasure of reading it. There are three of us in this Home who are greatly indebted to a Mrs. Bergstresser, a real Friend to numanity, who comes over once a week to read to us. The others are ladies, sho are, I fear, in worse plight than I as to vision. You may be sure that we have a brty plrsdsny bidiy. Gery sincerely yours,

Walter Graves.
