

March 12, 1932

Dear V. R.:

I am sending down to you my last Chapter. Does it seem to you to add anything to what I have already done - to shade the man a bit? I can't go down with it myself as I had hoped for I have things here and must have this as soon as possible.

I am going to struggle to get down later.

Love to you

Miss Violeta Roseboro
Browns Mills, N. J.