My dear Miss Tarbell:

I cannot sufficiently thank you for "The Life of Abraham Lincoln". I am reading it with the deepest interest and admiration,- particularly as the elements of Lincoln's character, as pointed to in your recital, recall

Mrs. Vincent, also, is reading your valuable production; and frequently couples the name of Washington and Lincoln, the leaders of gigantic struggles, — exalting (1) in the creation, and (2) the preservation of the Republic of the United State.

Very sincerely Yours.

Thomas M. Vincent.
