My dear Miss Tarbell

I have just received your letter of July 26th upon my return from abroad, and ^{just} from a copy of a letter sent you by Miss Nast, has been fully answered. I would be very glad to compile a list of such publications for you if you need them at once, but I expect that my volume which Miss Nast mentioned to you - "Abraham Lincoln: The Tribute of the Synagogue" - will be out by October 1st in which upwards of eighty Jewish items are to be found. There is one Hebrew article that I know of and which I can find for you if you are interested.

By the way, I have the page proof of my book and if it is urgent I can let you have the use of it until the volume appears.

Cordially yours

Emanuel Hertz
