April 4, 1936

Dear V. R.:

I have been such a nuisance to you and Mr. McClure and Mr. Phillips about this luncheon that I want to be sure that there is no misunderstanding now. Wednesday, April 8, Union League Club at one o'clock is the time fixed I have been afraid Mr. McClure might think I was trying to escape, but that is not the truth. I have always been out of town on the earlier dates fixed but this last mixup is due entirely to my own stupidity.

I will be fine to see you Wednesday.

Affectionately

Miss Viola Roseboro
