

Washington, D.C.

3. November, 1900.

My dear Mr. Tarbell.

Referring to your note dated October 31; my relation to the War Department (at time Secretary Stanton called upon me for methods of distanding army) was, a, Assistant Adjutant General, U.S. Army, in charge of "The Organization and Miscellaneous

"Miscellaneous Business of the Volunteer Armies of the United States." Organization involved the mustering in of troops.

The printed synopsis (*) herewith enclosed, will serve to explain.

Very sincerely Yours,
Thomas M. Vincent

Wm. Tarbell. of Portsmouth,
40. West Ninth Street,
New York.