

RADIO AUTHORS, INC.

120 WEST 42ND STREET

NEW YORK

October 1st, 1930

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

This letter shall serve as an agreement between us, that:

You are to be listed by us as a contributing member of Radio Authors, Inc. Your signature hereto indicates your willingness to present to Radio Authors, Inc. upon request and within a reasonable time, a specimen continuity for presentation to an interested advertiser.

Your continuities are to be offered to national advertisers, for a minimum of thirteen weeks, at a price per week to be satisfactory to you.

Radio Authors, Inc., agrees to pay you 50% of the nominated price for the specimen continuity; then, if contract is entered into with the advertiser you are to be paid the remaining 50% for the specimen and the full price for each succeeding continuity called for in the advertiser contract. If no contract ensues with the advertiser, the 50% payment for specimen continuity shall be considered full payment.

Yours very truly,

RADIO AUTHORS, Inc.

Periton Maxwell
PERRITON MAXWELL

Editor

PM:HC