SELDEN BACON
60 WALL STREET

NEW YORK Dec. 31, 1909

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

I intended to send the enclosed to you yesterday, but it was overlooked - Mr. Mackenzie's idea seems to be that if you will allow them Everything they claim they will consider whether they will give you what they admit belongs to you -

I do not think you will make any headway without suit. They are quite likely to collapse if suit is brought, though one cannot tell about it. I believe you return Monday - We ought to act promptly. Delay after this begins to be dangerous. I will try to see you Monday.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
Titusville, Pa.

Sincerely,
Selden Bacon -
