Dear Mrs. Rauh:

It was fine of you to write me so generously about "All in the Day's Work." I am glad you found it worth your while.

Indeed, I do remember that visit to Pittsburgh so long ago. Your organization gave me an excellent audience and you, yourself, were so kind in showing me about. My old friend ~~Will Wyle~~ introduced me, did he not?

and My lecture experiences did not always make a deep enough impression for me to recall those who took care of me, recall my audience, incidents of the visit. Lecturing as I gave it was such a hurried and wearing performance that one group wiped out another. But it was different with that Pittsburgh visit. I remember details of it quite vividly - remember you - but I had lost your name. I am so glad to have it again.

You asked for an autographed photograph. My secretary is sending one. If you do not like it and would prefer the frontispiece of "All in the Day's Work" I can send you that. This, however, is something different.

With many thanks for your letter and the very best wishes for you and all those about you, believe me

Very sincerely yours
