

October 12, 1927.

Mr. Paul Reynolds,
599 Fifth Avenue,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

I shall mail you the first part of the Mary Todd Lincoln stuff to-morrow from Louisville. It is longer than I had intended. I understood that they wanted about 7,000 words, this must be fully nine. I am going to send it on, let them set it up and then cut if they wish. This will save their time as I take it they want it immediately for illustration.

I suppose the second part will be wanted about the middle of November, is that right?

I shall be at 1444 St. James Court, Louisville, Kentucky, until Sunday. Then for three or four days Hotel Leland, Springfield, Illinois. Kindly let me know at once when the manuscript reaches you. Any changes or suggestions from Mr. Currier I will put thru as fast as possible.

Sincerely yours,