

Playshop In Season Bow Next Week

'Washington Slept Here' Is Shown Three Evenings

With the Playshop's newest production, "George Washington Slept Here," scheduled for appearance on the 22nd, 23rd and 25th of this month, Allegheny audiences will be treated to one of the most numerous Broadway shows to be played on the campus for some time.

Written by Kaufman and Hart, authors of "The Man Who Came To Dinner," and "You Can't Take It With You," the comedy proved extremely popular with New York audiences during its run on Broadway last fall and winter.

An excellent and experienced cast has been selected by Mr. John Hurlburt, director, for the comedy that will undoubtedly strike deep into Allegheny's humorous vein. Stanley Johnson, '43, is the patriotically inspired, meek little man, while his wife, who hates the country that is so close to her husband's mild little soul, will be played by Mary Lois Campbell, '43.

A strong supporting cast has also been selected, including James Aiken, '42; Melvin Gerseny, '45; Arlene Fegley, '44; Esther Ebinhoe, '42; Walter Morris, '42; Eleanor Kay Hutchison, '45; Verla McDuffy, '43; Robert Miller, '42; George Hill, '43; Alfred Cohen, '45; Kathryn Hill, '42; Elizabeth Hart, '44; Robert Thomas, '43; Mary Stewart, '43; and Stephen Miller.

Two student performances will be given, one on the 22nd and the other on the 23rd of October. Tickets may be obtained at the Playshop ticket office in exchange for activity tickets on Monday and Tuesday before the performances, from 10:00 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

During its run in New York the play caught the wide acclaim of critics and audiences alike. This past summer it was given before thousands more in other sections of the country, as the show produced most often throughout the country in summer theatres.

17 Sign Up For College Band; Tryouts Tonight

Fourteen freshmen and three upperclassmen signed up for work with Allegheny's new band last Thursday at the first meeting under the direction of Mr. Maurice M. Lord. Further tryouts and practice will be held tonight at seven o'clock in the gymnasium.

Those who signed up for the clarinet section are: Gail Korpennig, James Valone, Jeannette Howell, Naomi Lutz, George Shore; for trumpet, R. J. Longley, C. Hardenburg, H. B. Laudenslager, Lambert Graham and Clark Knierman; for trombone, Henry D. Metcalf; for baritone, Kenneth Ewing; for saxophone, John Sherrod and Steve Birmingham; for drum, Becky Hewkey and Charles Gibbs; for piccolo, Morgan Dailan. There were several others at the meeting who did not give their names.

Mr. Lord urged that all talent in the school try out for the band tonight. If enough support is shown, concerts may be given after the football season. More basses, baritones and side horns are especially needed.

Related Arts Films Saturday Mornings

The related arts series, correlating the drama, music and art through the medium of motion pictures, will begin this Saturday at 9:00 a. m., with a group of films dealing with churches and cathedrals in France, cities of Southern France, and the music of Handel.

The films will be shown in the Playshop and are the first of a sequence that will continue at the same time weekly for the remainder of the semester. Tickets for the evening film series will be honored and tickets to the morning programs will be valid at the Monday showings.

All-College Photo To Follow Chapel Program Tuesday

The first such experiment in recent years, an all-college picture will be taken Tuesday following a brief chapel program at noon.

Ross Young, the photographer, whose attempt to take a similar picture here last year was a failure when students stayed away in droves, will talk briefly in chapel and will explain the procedure to the student body at the regular time Tuesday.

Following the short talk all faculty members and students will walk to the lawn in front of Bentley hall where the picture will be taken. Mr. Young will have set up his stands and the taking of the picture will follow without loss of time when the students have taken their places.

That the picture last year was not a success resulted from failure to notify students in time for them to all be at the appointed place. This year ample opportunity is being given for all to make arrangements to leave work for the half hour from noon to 12:30 p. m.

The project, a favorite of President William Pearson Tolley, has received the support of the undergraduate council and the faculty and all efforts will be bent toward having a complete representation for the picture.

Dean John Richie Schultz has urged the students to all be present, asserting that "the picture cannot be a success without everyone."

'Writing Not Easy, But Is Fun'—Tunis

"Writing's not easy but it's fun" is the attitude free lance writer John R. Tunis expressed toward his profession at last Monday's chapel.

A consolation for all who have failed freshman English was provided by Mr. Tunis when he told the student body about his exceptional case; he failed freshman English while a student at Harvard; 10 years later he took the same subject in an extension course and had the same results.

Mr. Tunis, who has made contributions to "all types of magazines from the Atlantic Monthly to College Humor," is best known for his articles combatting professional athletics. His literary career started when he came out of the World War. "Every man, at some time or other, has the idea that he can write," and Mr. Tunis, it seems, made the most of this time in his life.

The speaker stressed the fact that writing is for everyone, regardless of his profession—"Everyone must learn to express himself on paper as briefly and directly as possible."

For the writer, according to Mr. Tunis, there is the thrill of having an idea of yours taken up and accepted and the feeling, no matter how many editors reject your article, that you have done a really good piece of work.

Town Meetings Are Resumed Tonight

The Allegheny College Town Meeting will resume its series of informal student faculty discussions tonight at 8:30 in room 15, Arter hall.

The topic for discussion will be "Should Congress Repeal or Modify the Neutrality Act?" and the program will be in two parts: From 8:30-9:15 there will be an open discussion in which both students and faculty members will participate, and from 9:15 until 10:15 the entire group will listen to a broadcast of The Town Meeting of the Air from New York City. The prominent speakers of this program will be Lynn Stanbaugh, national commander of the American Legion, and Senator "Champ" Clark of Idaho.

Special books on the subject will be set aside in the library for the use of the participants.

New Lodge For Campers Gets Name

'Allegheny Lodge' Newest Boy's Unit At Oldest Camp

On the shores of Lake Champlain, the songs of Allegheny College mingle with those of Yale and Dartmouth and Columbia, and many a young camper comes to know of this small western Pennsylvania college which sends them fine leaders—and campers, too.

Late this past summer, Allegheny Lodge, the most recent of the lodges built for the 350 campers at Camp Dudley, oldest camp for boys on the shores of Lake Champlain at Westport, N. Y., was dedicated.

It is the first to catch the eye of the visitor as he crosses the campus toward the wooded lakeside slope sheltering the 35 cabins named by their donors for the outstanding colleges in the east.

The Allegheny friends of Camp Dudley are a small but loyal group who could not, of course, contribute the entire cost of the lodge, as others have done. But Camp Director H. C. Beckman, recognizing the contribution which Allegheny is making to the work there, offered to accept a "token payment" toward the new lodge.

The name of Allegheny is not a new one at Dudley, for it heads the list of 34 colleges and universities supplying counsellors to this fine camp, with its 300 boys from 22 states and seven foreign countries.

Robert Appleyard, '39, has been a counsellor there for five years and has charge of the whole religious program. William Faloon, '41, now at Harvard Medical school, has been there the past two years as supervisor of basketball and tennis.

Sons of two members of the faculty were campers there for the

Cwens Show Latest Fashions Wednesday

The dining room in Brooks hall will be Allegheny's fashion center, Wednesday, October 22, 7:30 p. m. when Cwens present a parade of the newest in womens' campus clothes from Pittsburgh's Joseph Horne department store.

Louise J. Stuart, Horne's stylist, is scheduled to appear as commentator for the six Allegheny co-eds who will model informally. Classics for casual campus wear, radio parties and formals will be shown by Sophomores Ellen Boyd, Esther Campbell, Nancy Konstanzer, Priscilla Long, Mary Pierce and DeLana Taft.

Notices will be posted this week concerning admission fees. Proceeds will contribute to the Cwen scholarship awarded to a sophomore woman with the most scholastic improvement for this year.

Convocation Plans For Tolley Fixed

Program Starts With Entire College Participating In Academic Procession; Hamilton College President Will Speak

Plans for the convocation honoring President William Pearson Tolley on the completion of ten years' service, were settled this week as the gala October 24-25 Homecoming drew near.

Completes Ten Years

President William Pearson Tolley who will be honored at the convocation next Friday afternoon.

The weekend will see the colorful convocation ceremonies take place Friday afternoon, October 24, with the dedication of the new women's dormitory units, Brooks and Walker Halls, following the next morning.

Students, with faculty, trustees and friends of the college, will take important parts in the Friday festivities, scheduled to begin at 2:15 p. m. with an academic procession. The various groups will meet as follows at 2:15:

Freshmen—On walk from Bentley to Wilcox; sophomores—on walk from Bentley to Rustic Bridge; juniors—on walk from Rustic Bridge to Observatory; seniors—on walk from drinking fountain to Ruter; faculty—in front of the chapel; trustees and guests—in Oratory and back of chapel; speakers—on middle steps of Bentley.

When the groups have formed they will march, in the above order, into the chapel under the direction of Philip M. Benjamin, marshal. Seniors will wear caps and gowns.

The program for the convocation will feature an address by William H. Cowley, president of Hamilton college, President Tolley's response, and an organ processional written especially for the occasion by Morten J. Luvaas.

The program:
Processional—Edward Johe, organ. Invocation.

The Allegheny Singers.
Address: President William H. Cowley, Hamilton college.

Response: President William Pearson Tolley.
Benediction.
Recessional.

The ceremonies will be followed in the evening by a Convocation dinner in Brooks hall at which President Tolley will be honored by the trustees, the presidents of Pennsylvania and other neighbor colleges, the faculty, the A. U. C., officers of the alumni association and friends of the college.

Speakers at the dinner will be Arlo A. Brown, president of Drew university; E. V. Stanford, president of Villanova university who will represent the Association of Pennsylvania College Presidents; Guy E. Snavely, executive secretary of the Association of American Colleges and Universities; Sumner Nichols, president of the alumni association; Dean John Richie Schultz of the faculty; Robert Miller, for the men students; and a representative of the women students yet to be selected.

Faculty members having active parts in planning the convocation are Dean Schultz, Louis J. Long, Julian Ross, Mr. Benjamin, Lee Dudley McClean and Registrar Hurst R. Anderson.

The Saturday dedication will be held in the gymnasium beginning at 10:15 a. m. Principal speaker will be Constance Warren, president of Sarah Lawrence college, Bronxville, N. Y.

Donahey Announces Freshman Contest

Announcement of the annual Literary Magazine contest for first-year students was made yesterday by John Donahey, '42, editor of the publication.

As in the past, entries will be accepted in three fields—poetry, narrative, and essay—with the contest deadline set for Saturday, November 1. Entries should be handed to members of the English department.

All entries should be typewritten, double-space, on one side of the paper. Prizes will be awarded in each of the three fields.

Commented Editor Donahey, "It's so easy I wish I had a chance at those prizes myself."

Outers Plan Active Year For Group

Under the leadership of Bruce Campbell, '41, the Allegheny Outing Club has resumed its year's activities with a minimum of inertia. Two successful week-end outings have already been held and these trips will continue throughout the year.

Committees have been set up to supervise various aspects of the A. O. C. program. Committee chairmen are:

Heeler's—Bob MacPherson, '43, and Helen McClester, '43.

Food—Carol Schaal, '42.

Social—Andy Williams, '44.

Winter Carnival—Jack Bell, '43.

Cabin and Trails—Harold August, '43.

Transportation—John Foster, '43.

Publicity—Dorothy Jane Konstanzer, '42.

Equipment—Phil Coulter, '44.

Special Trips—Charles McClelland, '42.

The finishing touches on the ski run, which was constructed last summer, are being completed rapidly and the trail should be ready by the first snow fall.

Outing Club dues of $1.00 per semester are payable now to either George Richardson, '42, or Ruth Godley, '42. Heeler's dues of $.50 per semester may be paid to Bob MacPherson or Helen McClester.

Plans are being made for the annual fall trip, which will be made on November 1 or 2. The destination of the trip has not definitely been decided.

Visitors Will Study Women's Government

Model student government in action will be studied by Western Maryland college, Saturday, when representatives from that college come to Allegheny's campus.

Miss Bertha S. Adkins, dean of women, accompanied by several undergraduate students will observe the successful workings of Allegheny's women student government, the social program and the orientation program.

Hostesses for this group will be Dean Laila Skinner, Sally Emerson, and the members of the Senate and Senior Court.

This Convocation

BY this time every student should have heard something about the convocation honoring President Tolley that is to take place Friday, October 24. For those who haven't been informed or haven't understood, let us hasten to make the whole thing clear.

A convocation is simply the calling of an assembly of a number of important people, usually clergy. In this case, it is gathering together of state educators, trustees, faculty, students and friends of the college for the purpose of honoring Dr. Tolley on having served ten years here as president.

Now, usually at an affair of this kind the chief participants are the important people—trustees, representatives of other colleges, wealthy benefactors. They will be here too, but in one respect this will be an unusual convocation—the students will have an important part in the proceedings. The academic procession will be headed by the four classes and students will speak at the dinner the same evening. A. U. C. members have also been invited to attend the dinner.

On the surface this does not seem like a very important part for the students to play. It must be realized that elsewhere they would have been entirely forgotten. This is a student's college and, being such, the students deserve and should appreciate the privilege that has been conferred upon them.

From the start President Tolley has been all for the student. "Athletics for all" was one of the first things. Then came the personalized inventories and the carefully worked-out system of faculty advising under which students were treated as individuals and not as from a common mold. The grill, a powerful student government with no powers limited by faculty supervision, the new athletic field, the Playshop — all exist for the student. It's a student's college and so it will continue.

We should be conscious of the advantages at our disposal, many of them the work of President Tolley during his first ten years here. An important share of the credit should go to him. The convocation will be one of the places where we can show our appreciation. If you are aware of your good fortune in attending a student's college you can join the others in the academic procession that Friday afternoon. If you think this is the bunk, you'll be in the minority and should stay away from the campus during the convocation. Every thinking student will be there.

"I Mean" Continues

WE haven't noticed any slackening in the use of the irritating "I Mean" since last week's editorial was printed, which leads us to several conclusions, none of which has bothered us very much. Anyway, we have decided:

1. Not many students read the editorial columns of the Campus.
 2. Those that do don't pay much attention to what they read.
 3. Some think the "I Mean" habit is indispensable.
 4. Some can't help themselves.
- Take your choice. Which one are you?

Induction Of Collegians Is Explained

Reprinted Article Helps To Answer Some Questions

Again emphasizing the necessity of deferring students who are in satisfactory training and preparation for occupations essential to the national welfare, National Selective Service headquarters also recently advised State directors concerning postponement of induction of other college students to prevent undue hardship in individual cases.

Pointing out that deferments are in the interest of the general public while postponement of induction is for the benefit of the individual student registrant, national headquarters said of the former:

"If a local board determines that a particular student registrant is in training and preparation to perform a function which the national interest requires should be performed, and at the time such student will begin to perform that function there will be a shortage of persons qualified to perform such function, it should defer such student."

With regard to postponements, it was pointed out that local boards have ample authority to delay the inductions of various registrants when circumstances warrant. For example, a lawyer might be granted a short extension of time in order to try a pending case or in order to arrange for an associate to carry on for him. Likewise an architect might be granted time to complete plans on which he is working, or to arrange for an associate to complete such plans; or a farmer might be granted such an extension in order to complete a harvest or to arrange for another to harvest the crops; or a student might be granted an extension in order to prepare for and take an examination, or to complete a college term which he started in good faith after ascertaining from his local board that his induction would not normally occur until a reasonable portion of such term had expired.

With respect to the question of granting temporary postponements of induction to students who are not deferred by their local boards as being in training and preparation to become "necessary men," National Headquarters said:

"It is only reasonable that information should be given to both students and their colleges as to whether or not a particular student, because of his normal probable time of induction, will be granted a temporary extension of time in order to complete the college term in which he is enrolled when he is ordered to report for induction."

Pointing out that the postponement should be granted only in certain instances, headquarters said:

"If a particular student registrant is ordered to report for induction after the expiration of one college term and before the start of the next college term, there appears to be no question but that the student should be inducted as ordered. Likewise, it appears that if a particular student registrant's induction is to occur shortly after the start of a college term, his induction should not be postponed, and, therefore, such student should not enroll for such college term or should advance his time of induction by volunteering."

"If it appears, however, that a student registrant will not be ordered to report for induction until well into the college term, his induction might reasonably be postponed until the end of such term."

On the question of what a student's status should be to warrant postponement, National Headquarters stated:

"If a student registrant's local board determines that he would probably not be ordered to report for induction until after the middle of the next quarter (if his college is using the quarter system), or until the middle of the next semester (if his college is using the semester system), such local board might give assurance to such student that if he is ordered to report for induction during such quarter or semester, his induction will be postponed until the end of such quarter or semester."

"This procedure will prevent unusual hardship and will permit both students and colleges to make their plans in advance on a definite basis, while not interfering unduly with the smooth, efficient and impartial operation of the Selective Service System."

THE SOCIAL WHIRL

By Mary Stewart

A picnic planned especially for the pledges is to be given Friday evening, October 17, by Kappa Alpha Theta. Jean Street, ex '42 was married to Carl M. Adams on August 23 at St. Christophers' by the River. The couple are now residing in Shaker Heights.

Friday, October 17, is the night of the Kappa Kappa Gamma pledge dance. The dance is being held in the Phi Gamma Delta house, and the music will be by the "Music Makers." Dorothy Jane Konstanzer was one of the 13 nationally selected Kappa's to receive a scholarship of $250.

The Treymore Club from Butler will play at the Phi Kappa Psi house for the Alpha Chi Omega pledge dance. The dance is on this Friday evening. Alice David, '41, is an expected guest. Last Monday evening there was a social for all pledges in the rooms.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon offers its house to Alpha Gamma Delta for its pledge dance on Friday night. Benny Jones' orchestra will play. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cares are to be chaperones.

Jean Flanagan was pledged Alpha Xi Delta on Monday, October 13.

Ann Albright and Mr. and Mrs. Perry N. Weir dined at the Phi Delta Theta house last Sunday afternoon.

Over 300 guests were present at the Phi Gamma Delta open-house last Sunday evening. A lengthy list of chaperones and faculty guests were present.

Phi Gamma Delta will hold its pledge dance this Saturday night, from 9:00 till 12:00. Bill Williams' orchestra will provide the music. Mr. P. M. Benjamin and Miss Mildred Ludwig and Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Seely will serve as chaperones. Initiation of James Jenkins and Merrill Gray, both of '44 and pledging of John Houserman, '45, are announced.

Over the weekend alumnus Warren Shirk visited the Beta Kappa house. Mr. Shirk has been traveling in Siam.

An informal Blackout dance is to be given by the pledges of Delta Tau Delta this Saturday evening from 9:00 till 11:00.

The Minerva club gave a bridge party at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house last Monday evening. The pledge dance is to be this Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Anderson will be chaperones.

Plans to honor pledges at a dance Saturday, October 18, are being made by Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Andy Williams, '44, and George Shore, '44. Johnny Sargeant and his Brigadiers will play for the occasion. Chaperones include Mr. and Mrs. Hurst R. Anderson.

Freshmen Sentenced For Violating Rules

As a result of a recent meeting of the Men's Undergraduate council, wearing apparel not exactly in keeping with their would-be composure graces several members of the freshman class these days.

Howard Vates, found guilty of walking on the grass, a serious offense for even an upperclassman, has been sentenced to wear a shoe of opposite color on each foot.

William Present has been tried and found guilty of the old offense of wearing no dink. Present will sport a chic girls dink, to be tied under the chin at all times, for a period of four days. John Houserman, the first freshman to be caught without a dink, is back to normalcy after wearing a girls' dink for a week.

Dale Byers, M. U. C. president, stated that the freshmen violations had been few and far between. "Perhaps they still remember the fight in which forty sophomores licked their entire class," Byers remarked.

Bus Chartered For Grove City Game

Special arrangements have been made for Allegheny students to attend the Grove City-Allegheny game Saturday, October 18.

A round trip fare on the bus will be $1.00. Lists are posted in the grill for those who plan to go. The list should be complete by 9 p. m. tonight. It will be taken down at that time.

Students making the trip will be back on the campus in time for pledge dances.

Listening Hours Will Continue Mondays

Listening hours will continue to be scheduled each Monday evening at 7 p. m., in the oratory, Mr. Edward Johe announced today. The program for October 20 includes:

The NINE LEAVELL BROTHERS MOST FAMOUS FAMILY IN GREEK-LETTER HISTORY! ALL WERE MEMBERS OF SIGMA CHI AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MISSISSIPPI FROM 1899 TO 1912

The intramural touch football season opened Monday with games on Eberhart and Arter fields.

Enthusiasm ran high as the Phi Delta Theta squad eked out a 30-18 win over the Phi Gams in the feature game of the day. In other games the powerful Phi Psi machine ran roughshod over the A.X.P.'s, 60-6, while the S.A.E. team defeated the B.K.'s, 18-12.

A shovel pass from Peterson to Roemer scored the first Phi Delt touchdown, early in the first half. The Fiji's held for the remainder of the half as their line strengthened.

Early in the second half the Phi Delt pushed over another score only to have the Phi Gams return their kickoff for a touchdown, thanks to heads-up running by Ellis McKay.

Both teams tallied again, making the score 24-12, with the Phi Delt enjoying a comfortable margin. Then with one minute to play, Bud Scott intercepted a Phi Gam pass to make the score 30-12. There were 15 seconds to play as the Fiji's scored on the next kickoff, a pass from McKay to Hammond providing the final six points.

Bud Scott, Ray Peterson and Carl Roemer were outstanding on the Phi Delt squad, while Ellis McKay, John Petrie and Chuck O'Brien helped the Fiji cause no little.

Bill Cramer was lonely last year when he was the only football man who had mastered the art of tobacco chewing. Now that he has plenty of company in Bob Garbark, Rafe and Don Weller, Bill complains that he has to furnish Mail Pouch for the entire squad.

Watch Ken Muir, the 200-pound fullback in the freshman backfield. He cracks the line like a steam roller and runs like a jack-rabbit in the broken field.

Convocation Plans Discussed By A.U.C.

Student plans for the coming convocation were discussed at the regular meeting of A. U. C. last Sunday evening.

Approval of the year's budget was withheld pending a report by the Kaldron editor concerning increased printing and paper costs.

Grove City Stops Local Soccer Team

Booters Play At Rochester In Their Second Game

An inspired Grove City team, fighting to even a one-point defeat at the hands of Allegheny last year, defeated the Gator booters last Friday at Grove City, 2-1.

The nip and tuck contest, staged on the Grover's "matchbox" field was closely contested all the way; Coach Way's kickers fought furiously from behind throughout most of the game, but failed to take the lead at any point in their opening contest of the 1941 season.

Despite the Grove City loss, the soccer men went through drills this week in highest spirits, looking forward to their second game, to be played at Rochester University tomorrow. The fact that the New Yorkers lost their opening game last week to Hamilton college, 2-0, coupled with Coach Way's statement yesterday that the Gators "have undergone great improvement during the past week," would seem to enliven the prospect of a creditable Allegheny showing at Rochester tomorrow.

Easily the most remarkable thing about Coach Way's soccer men this year is their magnificent spirit. This team this season seems to have more enthusiasm than any in past years. Even in last week's defeat, the boys were cheerful, talking of the coming game most determinedly, and showing a spirit of the kind that wins ball games.

Last week's contest, first of the year, revealed many a glaring weakness in the general team play. In many instances, the Gator offense failed to follow up scoring opportunities and there was a lack of that certain precision and polish that would have made the difference between loss and victory.

Bolstering the play throughout were such veterans as Doncaster and Blank in the fullback slots, Welday at goal, and co-captain Caravacci at center halfback. Barring accidents, Friday should find the Gators at full strength for their encounter with the Yellow Jackets.

Frosh Set For Grovers

The freshman gridders this week conclude almost a month of intensive practice in preparation for their opening game Monday with the Grove City reserves.

During the first week of practice, squad practices were confined to several days of toughening and limbering up exercises. By last week, however, the squad had made such strides that practice session was held with the varsity in which the frosh, who played the defensive role throughout the scrimmage, made a very favorable showing. The freshman have also held several intra-team scrimmages in the past two weeks. The team has looked very good in these scrimmages and should cause trouble for its opponents this fall.

During the early scrimmages the first team consisted of Tippy and Kersten alternating in the center position; Aubrey Crawford, Stan Fultz and Hubert Guyot alternating the guard positions. At the tackles were Bill Pierce, Bob Pierson and George Wittbold and the ends were Bill Present and Emmett Corrigan. The backs who saw action were Ken Muir, Andy Kapusta, Bob Todd, Ray Falch, Del Crawford, and Murray Andersen, with Muir, Falch and Kapusta sharing the signal calling. Other members of the squad who show promise are back Jim Martin and Red Bare, who is lost for some time due to an appendectomy, and linemen Ken Sample and Leroy Paul.

The freshmen have a schedule which shows no pushovers. On Monday they play the Grove City reserves, who have been providing strong opposition in practice sessions this fall, for the Grover varsity. Last year the freshmen beat the Grovers 8-6 and are looking forward to repeat the triumph again this season.

The frosh also play Alliance college at home on October 30, and conclude their season on Nov. 6 at Slippery Rock in a contest with the Rocket reserves.

The complete roster includes:
Linemen: Steve Birmingham, Hubert Guyot, Lee Kirsten, Emmet Corrigan, Henry Metcalf, Ken Sample, Bill Present, Warren

Two-week Lay-off Serves To Iron Out Flaws That Appeared in Opener; Pierce And Shepherd May Return To Line-up

After a two weeks lay-off during which time the flaws and defects of the Haverford setback have been ironed out, Coach Al Werner's gridders once more are primed for battle and are enthusiastically awaiting their chance to renew the old and bitter rivalry with Grove City's Crimson Saturday afternoon at Grove City.

Phi Gams Capture Intramural Golf Cup

A Phi Gam foursome composed of Murphy, Fauver, Nichols and O'Brien emerged victorious in the annual intramural golf tournament at the Conneaut Lake Park course last Sunday with a card of 372.

For the third consecutive year Bud Klein turned in the best card of the tourney with an 89, one stroke under the totals recorded by Murphy and Wittbold.

Second place went to last year's winners, the Phi Delt, and the Sigs nosed out the Phi Psis by five strokes to capture third place. Fifth and sixth places went to the Alden Men and B.K.'s respectively.

The results:

Team	Score	Intra-mural Points
Phi Gamma Delta	372	18

Freshmen To Meet First Foe Tuesday

The Gator freshman soccer squad takes the field for the first time this year on Tuesday when they play host to the invading Alliance college booters. The game also marks the first intercollegiate contest played on Eberhart Field.

The squad which Coach Hartman is readying for the tilt is largely an unknown quantity at the present time. Few of the men out for the team have had any previous experience but all of them have improved a great deal in the past week and have shown up well in the early scrimmages. Most of the practice sessions so far have stressed the fundamentals of the game, such as passing, trapping, and shooting, and considerable time has been spent on positioning on defense. By game time the frosh will have had

Backs: Dave Bloomquist, Andy Kapusta, Harry Falch, Murray Anderson, Bob Todd, Ken Muir, Del Crawford, Wilber Hansen, Lorin Dickenson, Jim Martin, Red Bare, Hiram Najarian, and Bill Seidel.

Allegheny has been battling Grove City on the gridiron since before the turn of the century and the series is one of the longest in the state of Pennsylvania. From the year 1899 till the present there have been only two years, 1932 and 1933, when the ancient rivals failed to meet. Over that long span of year 46 contests have been played in which Allegheny has been victorious 20 times. Grove City also has won 20 times, with 6 of the encounters ending in ties. Thus, a deadlock exists which will be broken this weekend unless the two elevens battle to another stalemate. Every Allegheny-Grove City contest is a bitter struggle from the opening whistle till the final gun. Upsets have been more the rule than the exception, with many contests occurring in which the favorite has been outfought and outscored by the underdog. Closely contested games have predominated as witnessed by the fact that there have been only four or five routs in the entire series, one of which went to Grove City by the score of 54-0 in 1909 and another which was taken by Allegheny 40-0 in 1914.

Coach Al Werner scouted the Grove City-Geneva game last Thursday night in which Grove City lost a hard struggle to the Covenanters 14-7. He returned home to say, "Grove City looked like a very strong, aggressive and hard charging team. We're in for a busy afternoon."

In their only other start the Red and White Grovers trimmed Hiram 19-0 and seem to have quite a powerful outfit again this year.

Last week the Gators worked out with several reserves in the varsity lineup. Cal Miller and George Smith both worked out at tackle and Ted Conlin saw considerable action at the pivot position.

Harry Shepard, rangy and powerful tackle, who has been nursing an ankle injury for two weeks, returned to practice this week and there is a good possibility that he'll also see action on Saturday.

Bill Pierce, who didn't scrimmage last week because of a leg injury, has rounded into shape again. His return to form gives the Gators a badly needed hard hitting back.

Coach Werner has put his charges through a stiff schedule of offensive and defensive scrimmages this week and the squad is rapidly approaching a fighting peak with the starting lineup almost set, although starters in one or two positions are still undecided.

In the battle with the Grove City's Crimson Saturday afternoon the Allegheny Gators will be not only fighting for the edge in the series on our side, but they will also be out to avenge last year's Homecoming Day defeat of 14-0. In the past as much as one half the Allegheny student body has been at Grove City to cheer their favorites on to victory. This year should find more Gator rooters than ever in the stands cheering the gridmen on.

Freshmen Girls To Be Quizzed On Rules

Freshman women will be examined on the rules in the handbook Monday, October 27. Students are asked to report to the main lecture room in Alden hall promptly at 7 p. m.

This orientation exam insures an acquaintance with student government rules. All freshman women are required to take it.

five scrimmages under game conditions and should be ready on Tuesday to face the veteran Alliance outfit.

The roster of the squad includes:
Linemen: Bader, Bartles, Brooks, Brunner, Burchard, Frey, Hanson, Hastie, Knierman, Lammert, May, Matteson, Mason, McConnell, Laufe, Patterson, Rose.

Backs: Anderson, Baldwin, Cannon, Ewing, Gibbs, Snedeker, Leech, Wells, Mercier.
Goals: Greenbaum, Mull, Yocum.

"Wagon" Tongue, Crawford, Yarrow, Eisenbud of the faculty and lovely, soft-eyed Helen Ochsenhirt popped down to Cleveland last Saturday. As becomes such a gathering a highly intellectual and fiery argument filled in the tedium of the trip. Eisenbud was at his best and held the rest at bay with his adroitly put theories and tenets. Then Helen asked a question. Fire in his eyes, Eisenbud turned on Helen with a mouthful of overpowering logic, looked into her face, stalled dead at this beautiful vision, and finally gathering his dignity, said, "Miss Ochsenhirt, this is neither the time nor the place to discuss the quantum theory."

Adding more impetus to the gathering force of popular opinion, this column here goes on record as enthusiastically throwing its hat in the ring on the side of the "Stinky Chamberlain for May Queen" movement.

The Alpha Xis showed heroic courage in borrowing the Delt house for their pledge dance but they got off easy. The only untoward happening of the evening was during an intermission when the band was locked in the cellar. The Tau Delt did show a tactical social sense in one case, that night. The names of the pledges were part of the decoration scheme and fearing Minore and Essie Lee might miss it entirely, the sign displaying Essie's name was put in secret, discreetest corner available. They found it.

Corrigan of Calfisch is earning his obvious nickname. When the frosh scrimmaged the varsity Wednesday last, Bill Cramer of the varsity wore himself to a steaming frazzle trying to put a block on him. Seems that "Wrong way" consistently hightailed it back to his own goal line whenever Cramer bore down on him.

A tragic death in the stacks of Reis Library was discovered Sunday by Ruth Corliss of Tolley's office. A Saturday-nighting pheasant, apparently under the impression he was headed for the Reiss Hotel, flew through a closed window and killed himself awfully. After examining him carefully, Dr. Ben Glover pronounced him dead two hours.

One of the few joys of the eight o'clock class is noting the cheery goodmornings with which classmates greet each other after having spent the full foggy hour together. It's a wistful sort of passive resistance to this whole ugly business of eight-o'clocks.

These Sunday night fraternity teas must be deadly affairs. No cards, no dancing and as one girl coyly observed, not even mixed bridge games on the second floor. Super music was being played and the only relief the little things could find was in secretively lurching up and down with the music.

Lonely males should take advantage of the desperate weekend situation at Bousson. According to Wally Hanson the farm acres are jampacked with wenches. Last weekend a boyless chorus consisting in part of Kiser and such Cochranites identified only as Junior, Mike and B. J. went berserk and attacked all six feet five inches of Hanson with cudgels. This must stop. Rally, men of Allegheny! On to Bousson!

first time last summer—young Bill Tolley and Jay Luvaas.
And so in summers to come, the faraway Allegheny Lodge will recount to the notes of "Near the Vale" and "I Went to See My Susie," and young campers will listen to the legends of this historic college.

New Cheerleaders Chosen For Squad

From a group of 30 girls who competed for cheerleading, eight freshman women were admitted to the regular squad this week.
Phyllis Campbell, Kathryn Carothers, Gertrude Cohen, Yvette Kalfayan, Jane McClean, Alice Schulmeister, Elinor Slutz and Barbara Steele will augment the present squad headed by Virginia Kiser, '42. This season these girls will substitute for the varsity squad, cheer at all freshman games and at Homecoming.
Today at 4 p. m., in the unfurnished recreation room of Brooks hall, cheerleaders will report for practice.

Final Plans Laid For Debate Season

Final touches were made to Allegheny's debate program for this year as a result of Mr. H. R. Anderson's attendance at the Ohio Conference in Cleveland last Saturday as a representative of Allegheny's speech department. The Ohio debate question, which will be used in Allegheny's contests with Ohio schools, was decided upon at this meeting. The question: "resolved, that the civil liberties of free speech and press should be restricted," had to be set before this year's debate schedule could be completed.

In debates with Pennsylvania schools, the Pennsylvania question: "resolved, that the United States should send an expeditionary force outside the Western Hemisphere to combat Axis forces," will be used. This question was decided on at a convention in Harrisburg two weeks ago, which was attended by Mr. C. E. Irvin of the speech department and Arthur Diskin, a member of the varsity debate squad.

The national question to be used this year is: "resolved, that the United States should regulate all labor unions."

Allegheny and Swarthmore will match wits on the air in the first scheduled debate of the season on March 14, over station WILM in Wilmington, Delaware.

Varsity debate meetings will begin Monday at 4:00 p. m.

Paul Cares Receives Degree At Michigan

Paul B. Cares, popular member of the history department, received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in History at the University of Michigan last June. The subject for his thesis was the Dutch Conquest of the Malay Archipelago, Ceylon, Formosa, and the European Trade with Japan.

Debut Of Gay Gator Set For Homecoming

First appearance of the Gay Gator, unofficial student humor magazine, is scheduled for Homecoming day, October 25.

Operating under a new editorial policy which promises new jokes and satires, the magazine will be published by a staff of sophomores who prefer to remain anonymous.

Corrections Made In College Calendar

The following dates listed erroneously in the College Calendar last week should be changed to read as follows:

Alpha Chi Omega Fall Formal—December 13, Saturday; Alpha Gamma Delta Fall Formal—December 13, Saturday; Phi Gamma Delta Fall Formal—December 6, Saturday.

Film Comedies Next Monday In Playshop

This Monday evening at 8:30 the Allegheny College film series will resume its program with a comedy double-feature.

"Duck Soup," starring the Marx Brothers, will vie for top honors with "The Barber Shop," featuring W. C. Fields.

Recommended Records

Horace Heidt—"Delilah"—"Shepherd Serenade." A "must" for Heidt fans.
