B & B Inquiries

January 21, 1927.

My dear Mr. Newell:

When I had the pleasure of seeing you here in New York you told me that when you returned to Washington you would see if you had an extra copy of Powell's Report of 1890 which you could let me take. I would, of course, be glad to return it to you as soon as I had read it and made my notes. This is just a reminder. Do it at your convenience - there is no immediate hurry.

It was a real pleasure to have a visit with you and I am hoping that I can see you again some day when you are again in New York.

Sincerely yours,

Mr. F. H. Newell,
