January 24, 1940

Dear Mrs. Smith:

Thank you for your very kind letter about "All in the Day's Work." I am glad it pleased you and that you were moved to tell me so.

Depend upon it I will be on the National Library steps waiting for the opening of the Lincoln papers if I hold out until that time.

Thanking you again for your letter, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mrs. Mary G. Smith
