Hts. Auer.

February 8, 1927.

Miss Anne J. Watson,
210 Church Street,
Catasaugua, Penn.

My dear Miss Watson:

I have your letters hinting at the difficulties which led to your losing your position several years ago in the John Wanamaker Store in Philadelphia. This is a matter in which I can be of no assistance whatever. It is regrettable that positions should ever be lost. It is painful when one feels that one has been unjustly treated but it is a kind of thing which happens to us more or less in the competitive business world. There is nothing that you can do, I should think, but to get work of some kind and follow it steadily. Past troubles must be put behind one if one is going on in the world.

I am sorry for you and regret, as I said, that I can be of no assistance.

Sincerely yours,

IMT BWK.

Digital Images, 2010. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library.