Miller
The Men Who Deserve the Credit for Season.

The team that represented Allegheny this year was considered by football critics the best that ever wore gold and blue uniforms. The large number of varsity aspirants and second team men afforded abundant material to select an eleven from. Fourteen men won their letters, four for the first time.

Coach Stewart.

It would have been impossible for any other man to have contributed the share Coach Stewart did to develop a winning eleven. Beginning with the gymnasium classes last year when he worked out plays and also rounded the men into perfect physical trim, he has worked with the squad from start to finish. Coach Stewart has achieved more than local fame through the innovation which he introduced in the positions of the back field men, having two full-backs and two half-backs. A new style of pass from the center helped make this arrangement more effective. Many teams throughout the country, hearing of the plan and seeing its effectiveness, adopted it with success. Practice was begun a week before school started with more than enough men to form a team. Through Mr. Stewart's influence several star players reported with the old men for practice and made regular places later in the season.

Western Pennsylvania League Champions

Season's Record

A Brief Account of the Way It Was Done

The 1910 football season was unquestionably the most successful from every standpoint through which Allegheny has passed for many years. Six games were played, four being won, one lost and one resulting in a tie. From the financial viewpoint, the season has been somewhat above the years preceding. Heretofore, it has been the misfortune of the managers and members of the athletic board to find themselves struggling with a large deficit at the end of the season, but this year the games have yielded several hundred dollars more than before. Faculty and students alike declare that the year has been one of the best that the athletic interests of Allegheny have experienced in recent years.

At a meeting of the representatives of the seven colleges and universities in the Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic League held in Pittsburgh on last Tuesday morning, the championship of the league was voted to Allegheny. The title had been claimed by Westminster, the point of variance being the game between Westminster and Allegheny which was won by Westminster, 6-3, but which was protested by Allegheny because the New Wilmington team had played preparatory students. This is a decided violation of

Band Helps

Long Defunct College Organization Revived and Plays Important Part.

No one feature of the 1910 football season attracted more attention than did the appearance of the college band. An attempt to organize a band last year resulted in failure, but this fall found those interested more enthusiastic than ever. Nichols and Firestone headed the movement and called a meeting of all those who could play a musical instrument and would help in the formation of a band. The response was greater than had been expected. It was found that the incoming class contained an unusually large number of capable musicians.

Harry Firestone, '11, was elected manager and W. H. Fegeley, '14, leader. Mr. Lou Lord was engaged as director and practice was begun at once in order that the band might be in shape to play at the first game with Hiram. A subscription was put before the student body in order that the organization might be placed on a firm financial footing.

On Saturday afternoon of the first game, seventeen men in blue uniforms lined up in front of the gymnasium and then marched over to Bentley, where they played their first selection in public. From here they led the procession down through the main streets of the town to the field.

Here they played before the game and between each of the quarters. The music added much to the life and enthusiasm and besides was a good advertisement before the game, serving to attract many to the field.

At both of the other home games, the band was in its place, and did its best to inspire the team to pile up the score for Allegheny. When the special train left for Sharon, carrying its load of rooters, the band was on board. Selections were played on the way out, during the game, and on the way back, when it served very materially to dispel the general gloom felt by the Allegheny supporters. Westminster had a band, too, but it was a "hired" band, and did not fill the place of a student band by any means. Grove City brought a band with them, but it was not composed entirely of students.

Saturday afternoon has been chosen as the regular time for rehearsals. The boys are now getting in shape for the opening basketball game, as it is the intention to play at every athletic contest held here this year. An attempt is being made to have a score of the Allegheny Medley written out so that it may be played.

The names of those who compose the band are: cornet: Fegeley, Askey, Graham; clarinet: Firestone, Mechlin, White, R. Ramsay; trombone: Carlson, Case; baritone: Nichols; bass: Ramirez, Hayes; alto: Maxwell, Hall; drums: Harris, F. Ramsay.

Coach's Opinion

Mr. Stewart Tells of Effect of New Rules. Exhortation for Next Year.

Coach Stewart differs from the general opinion of coaches relative to the merits of the new football rules and when requested to remark upon their application to the Allegheny situation said:

"Allegheny's team benefitted by the new rules probably more than any other team in this section.

"While this should not be, it is a fact that other teams in our own league attempted to evade the spirit of the rules in many instances to their own disadvantage, while it was the policy at Allegheny to get the full measure of merit out of each change.

"These changes were made in the interest of more open team work, less

Team Honored

'Varsity Men Receive Insignia. Dr. Crawford and Coach Stewart Spoke.

Block 'A's were presented to fourteen varsity players whose pictures appear in this issue, at chapel, yesterday. Mr. J. W. Barkley, president of the athletic association, called the men forward, after which President Crawford gave out the "A's". He said in part:

"Circumstances under which you present yourselves here this morning leave little for me to say. I understand from those who are familiar with the facts that you have the right to claim the championship of the Western Pennsylvania and West Virginia Football League this year. Being familiar with the facts and as president of that league I have the honor and pleasure this morning to declare you champions. (Applause.) And now, as your president, it remains for me simply to congratulate you on the honor you have won and on the sportsmanlike character which you have shown."

In addressing the student body President Crawford said: "Men of the college who aspire to athletics, there has been the one trouble in other years that men have dropped out of their various teams because of poor work in their studies. Here is a team that has not had a single man out of the team a single hour because of poor work. It is a team in which not a single man's record shows deficiency in his studies."

Again addressing the players, he continued: "I have great pleasure in presenting this badge of recognition. I want you to wear it as a reward of what you have done. I am very proud of the record this college has maintained in the league of which it is a member. Since the foundation of the league not a single formal criticism has been made at any of its meetings concerning any member of our team and not an informal criticism has been made concerning any act of the college or any member of our team. This is a record I am very proud of and of which the team is proud."

In response to continued calls by the student body, Coach Stewart spoke a few words as follows:

"I do feel like adding a few words to what President Crawford has said concerning the statement that was made in the league meeting. While there were criticisms of two or three teams in the league over the style of playing, it was very emphatically said that Allegheny played the cleanest football of the league and I feel quite proud of our team for that reason. I might mention that I believe that next year we will be able to equal this year's record and perhaps beat it."

Captain-Elect Hawk.

Coach Stewart's reputation as an athletic coach of the highest class is well known. He fulfilled the prediction, made in last year's Campus of a successful eleven this year and he is in position now to turn out a record smashing team next year. The student body is glad to acknowledge its debt to the man who has created the new athletic Allegheny out of a chaos of disorder and confusion. A man among men, our coach has left the stamp of his personality on every one who has come into contact with him.

of the dirty and brutal work which was possible under the old mass play privilege, and for the sake of lessening the danger of serious accidents.

"The new rules permitted Allegheny to use many new formations. Many of the other colleges were attempting to retain the old formations and by slight variations of their play work out evasions of the rules by which they could profit. This was impossible and consequently the teams resorting to this policy lost in the end. "Personally, I am convinced that the new rules are a success and, unless the committee at its annual meeting makes a decided change for 1911, I believe Allegheny can work out a system to fit the peculiar needs of the material available at this school with gratifying results in 1911.

"However, I do not agree with those who have said that the rules put a premium upon the light fast man. The big man, if he is fast, still has a decided advantage over the small man, unless, as in one or two particular cases familiar to the student body of 1910, that small man possesses some the league ruling and protest was made by Coach Stewart before the game. At the meeting last Tuesday, the Allegheny protestation was granted, the game going to Coach Stewart's squad by the score of 1-0. This left Allegheny with a record of 1000 per cent in the league, three games having been won and one tied. With the elimination of Westminster from the reckoning, Grove City could in no way have claimed the title for they had been beaten by Westminster, 11-0.

An interesting fact in connection with the meeting of the representatives of the league was the re-election of Dr. Crawford to the presidency of the organization. When the discussion of officers was brought up, Dr. Crawford stated that he was too busy and had too many other things on hand to accept the position for another term and while he expressed the wish to do all in his power for the betterment of the league, he asked not to be re-elected to the executive position. EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The Campus regrets that the best efforts put forth by it in recognition of the football team are hopelessly inadequate to do justice to the champions. The best and only satisfactory recompense for these men is the whole-hearted gratitude and sincere appreciation of the entire college body. If the Campus can in any way mirror the spirit that is felt toward the team, the publication of this issue will not be in vain.

Many things might be said in an editorial way about the season's record but we believe the most eloquent tribute is what has been done. The deeds of Captain Lavelly's squad speak for themselves. A winning team, a clean team, a game team, a representative team needs no eulogy. We have only to refer to the judgment of every rival, to the commendation of the Intercollegiate League itself.

The best thing about the 1910 eleven has been its spirit of unanimity. Petty jealousies and trivial bickerings never disrupted the harmony which always existed between the members of the squad. The men worked side by side in the perfect union necessary to football success. Team play was never sacrificed to the glory of one individual. With such a spirit they could not help winning. Hand in hand with this team spirit went the co-operation of the men and women of the college. Every one seemed more than anxious to do his share. The band, the publicity committee, the attendance of the young women at the games in a body, the Sharon trip, were all indications of the loyalty of the student body.

The prospects for next season are recounted in another column. If these are to become realities this commendable college patriotism must be continued. A practical way to turn good intentions to practical account is pointed out by Coach Stewart in his letter. We want to see his suggestions followed out by every student. Then we will have Allegheny athletics worth while.

president's speech, Dr. George, of Geneva, moved that he be re-elected. The motion was at once unanimously carried.

Outside the league, two games were played by the local squad, one being lost, the other won. Hiram was defeated at Meadville, on October 8 by the score of 17 to 5, while Buchtel defeated Captain Lavelly's men at Akron by the 12 to 6 route. A game was also to have been played with W. & J. on October 1 at Washington, but this was cancelled by the Washington team a few days before the set date, because of an alleged disagreement in the matter of officials. An attempt was later made to have the game played on Thanksgiving day but it could not be arranged.

The success of the season financially was more than had been anticipated by the members of the athletic board at the beginning of the year. At the close of the season it was found that the treasurer was at least three hundred and fifty dollars ahead of his position at the end of the 1909 season. This was due to the fact that the expenses of the team were entirely realized from the guarantee offered by the opposing teams, while the gate receipts at home exceeded all previous records. Without doubt the reason that more people came to see the games was because Coach Stewart had turned out a winning team.

Allegheny 17-Hiram 5.

The first game in which the students had an opportunity to see the working of the new rules was the contest with the strong Hiram aggregation played on the local athletic field on October 8. Allegheny easily won by the score of 17 to 5. However, Hiram was in the game from start to finish and at no time was the Allegheny goal safe. The practicability of the coach's new arrangement of the back field men was apparent in this initial contest. It was especially effective against the old formation used by Hiram. Allegheny's three touchdowns were made by C. Dotterer, W. Dotterer and Lavelly.

Allegheny 22-Geneva 0.

Geneva came to Meadville heralded as a formidable aggregation but went away with a shattered reputation. They had held Mt. Union to a tie and had won the respect of sport writers and critics. But all that respect and admiration was gone on the evening of October 15 when they were walloped by Captain Lavelly and his sturdy laddies who made the final tally look like 22 to 0. The scores were made in the first, third and last quarters, touchdowns having been made by Miller, Hawk and Lavelly, the last named having two to his credit. Many sensational runs were made during the game. Geneva was utterly unprepared for the overwhelming defeat and was swamped, figuratively and literally, by the Allegheny huskies.

Allegheny 6-Grove City 6.

Perhaps the hardest and most hotly contested game of the season was that with Grove City on October 22, which resulted in a tie, each side scoring a touchdown and goal. Al-

Fullback Dotterer.

legheny's only touchdown was made by Perley in the first quarter while Boone made the only score for Grove City in the same period. In this game Captain Lavelly's men did not play up to the standard set in the Geneva contest. However, they were out-weighted on a muddy field.

Allegheny 27-Carnegie Tech 0.

The most overwhelming score accomplished during the season was that which resulted from the Carnegie Tech game on November 5. It was well known that Tech did not have the team of the year before at which time they won an exciting game here, 10-0. But it was feared that a vast improvement had been made in the Pittsburgh team since the opening of the schedule and it was with decidedly unsettled minds that the team faced the Pittsburgh Scots. The presence of a large number of Alleghenians on the side-lines helped overcome any fears felt by the local eleven before the whistle blew. The game was clearly in the possession of the Meadville team from the very beginning. Touchdowns were made by Lavelly, Johnson, Perley and W. Dotterer, the plucky captain getting over the line twice. This game did much to better the reputation of the Allegheny squad in the neighborhood of Pittsburgh.

Allegheny 1-Westminster 0.

The annual contest with the New Wilmingtonites took place at Sharon on election day, November 8. This was played under protest, and was finally forfeited to Allegheny, although Westminster got away with a three point advantage at the time. The reason for the protest was the determination of Captain Mansell's team to play several "prep" students. At the beginning of the second quarter Hawk lifted a drop-kick over the posts scoring three points. In the fourth quarter, after Allegheny had completely outplayed and outcrossed her opponents, Ashton, Westminster's speedy guard, recovered an on-side kick and ran half the length of the field for a touchdown. The score was made on a fluke, and impartial spectators gave credit for the best played game to the Meadville team.

Allegheny 6-Buchtel 12.

The season was closed with the game at Akron, O. on November 12, at which time Buchtel won, 12 to 6. The game as described by eye witnesses was a remarkable example of scientific football, both sides uncovering clever plays. The Allegheny team was very badly crippled and Coach Stewart had entertained no hope of victory. The Buchtelite, the Buchtel College monthly, says of the game: "In spite of adverse conditions the crowd saw an excellent game of football. One of the best exhibitions of football on both sides was given. The Allegheny aggregation clearly demonstrated that they knew football 'as she is played,' and they played a good clean game. Both teams worked the forward pass for good gains and Allegheny played the criss-cross quite successfully. Allegheny's offense was excellent and at times somewhat bewildered the Buchtel crowd. They lined-up without a quarterback, a manoeuvre which is a somewhat different stunt than is usually seen, but it proved quite successful. * * * In the third quarter Coach Stewart's men uncorked a select series of trick plays, for a time quite puzzling, and outplayed the Akron team during the whole period. * * * The Allegheny bunch showed that they fully understood Coach Stewart's efforts, and certainly gave Buchtel the tussle of the season."

Halfback Perley.

characteristic making him especially remarkable and valuable.

"And with this in view I suggest that those looking forward to a champion Allegheny team in 1911 use their utmost endeavor to bring to Allegheny some of the type of football players which will permit us to play the big colleges and universities with prospects of winning. If Allegheny students and alumni will add four or five men of this type to our already fine squad I will assume all responsibility for the 1911 showing."

WINNERS OF THE "A."

games was especially noteworthy. The head work Lavelly displayed in calling the plays this year was one of Allegheny's most valuable assets. In addition to this he has the honor of being captain of the first championship team of recent years.

tain, ably cared for left end all season. He came to Allegheny from Meadville High where he was known as an all-round athlete. Baseball and basketball are also included in his repertoire. In every instance he out-punted the star men pitted against him. He was a consistent ground gainer and invariably ran back punts for long gains.

Ex-Captain Kennedy.

"Ep" Kennedy, '11, captain of last year's eleven, has played a brilliant game at left tackle for three years. Before that time he played on the "prep" team and in his Freshman year, on the 1911 aggregation. He was out of the game during the last part of this season because of a disabled leg. His ability to open holes in the line was surpassed only by his tackling. "Ken" played a star game all year and will be missed in next year's lineup.

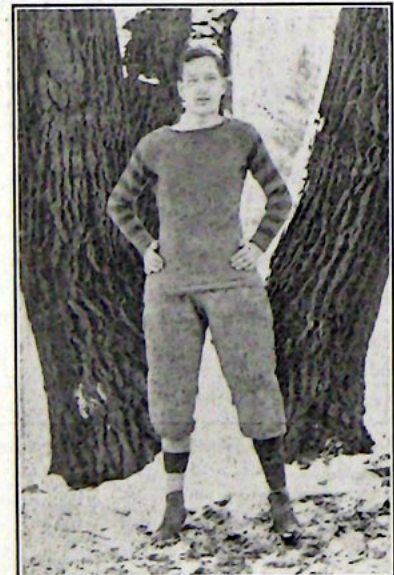

Abbott.

"Wes" Abbott, '12, has figured as one of the stellar attractions for three years. During his Freshman and Sophomore years he played end and fullback. This season Coach Stewart shifted him to center and gave him that position as a regular berth. On account of the new style pass developed by Coach Stewart it was necessary to have a man in this position who could not only pass the ball but also aid in its advancement. "Abb" satisfied these requirements to perfection and the game played by him this year speaks for itself.

Brigham.

Jack Brigham, '12, made his appearance at right tackle again this year. He distinguished himself in his Freshman year until the W. and J. game in which he was injured. Last year he was unable to secure his parent's consent and his absence was felt keenly. The hard tackles and holes made by him were noticeable in every game. Jack is over six feet tall and tips the beam at 160.

W. Dotterer.

"Bill" Dotterer, '13, fullback on this year's eleven, hails from Clarion Normal. Throughout the entire season he played a conspicuous game. He is a powerful line plunger and can always be relied on to make his distance. His gains through the line in the Westminster and Buchtel games will not soon be forgotten. Although an efficient offensive player, "Bill" excelled on the line of defense. His size and brains were factors which added greatly to his effectiveness.

Townsend.

Stewart Townsend, '13, better known as "Townie," was one of the most brilliant players this year. This heady little athlete, weighing only 130 earned his position at right end by outplaying men fifty pounds heavier. He took part in a majority of the games in spite of several painful injuries. This is his second year on the 'varsity as he played during the season of 1908. He tackled accurately, received forward passes with skill and was fast in getting down under punts. Few plays were pulled off in which he did not form part of the interference.

Center Abbott.

Perley.

"Seth" Perley, '13, claims Erie High as his earliest alma mater. While there he was considered a star on the gridiron. He played right half and was a very consistent ground gainer. "Todd," although small of stature, is stockily built and possesses an abundance of speed which made him a hard man to handle. A particular hobby of his was finding holes through which he might break for sensational runs.

Miller.

"Bugs" Miller, '14, was one of the Freshman recruits this year. He hails from Meadville High where he was the whole show. When he and "Bill" Dotterer took their positions they made a pair that no line could hold. His strong defensive work was always timely for the gold and blue eleven.

C. Dotterer.

"Chuck" Dotterer, '14, also known as "Bill's" little nimble brother, enjoyed the distinction of being the biggest man on the team. "Chuck" made the scales feel like the night after Christmas when he planted his two hundred odd pounds on them and he is said to have stretched a six foot tape two inches when he was measured last. His first experience in football was received at Clarion Normal where he developed into an excellent player. "Chuck's" work at left guard was consistent and was a notable feature of the Allegheny defense. The coach has already made his plans in regard to the style of defensive play to be used next year in which the big guard figures prominently.

Ball.

Ben Ball, '13, played a steady, effective game throughout the season. He was laid up with a bad knee part of the time but recovered in time to take part in some of the most important contests. It was exceedingly difficult for his opponents to get through him anywhere in the vicinity of right guard. During the season Ben developed rapidly into a dangerous and aggressive lineman.

Sheffer.

"Bill" Sheffer, '12, substitute lineman, is a sturdy Junior who earned his first "A" this year. Hard work on the scrubs and a determination to make good were the qualities that distinguished his football achievements. He has both grit and gray matter enough to make a crackerjack 'varsity man.

Johnson.

"Johnie" was one of the most unlucky members of this year's team. Early in the season he received an injury to his shoulder muscles which kept him on the sidelines for several weeks. In the games in which he played his long gains around the ends kept the spectators on their feet all the time.

Wieler.

After the injury to Kennedy's leg Wieler, '13, was transferred from the Reserves to the first team. He gained his early knowledge of football at Wheeling High, where he was something of a leading lady. Through the holes opened by him, the long plunges of both the two final games were made. Few players ever develop as rapidly as Wieler did after he took his place in the 'varsity lineup.

The weights of the men on the squad are: Hawk 162, Kennedy 158, C. Dotterer 205, Abbott 160, Ball 160, Brigham 158, Townsend 126, Wieler 151, Lavelly 152, Perley 150, Johnson 155, W. Dotterer 178, Miller 168. The average weight of the team is 160 pounds.

Publicity Committee Organized. College Papers' Compliment

A marked feature of the past football season was the increased recognition which the team has received in the press reports, especially in the Pittsburg, Cleveland, Erie and Meadville papers. This has been largely due to the organization of the Allegheny College Publicity Committee, which has attended to the systematic and reliable dissemination of athletic news.

The committee was organized by Coach Stewart and a number of press correspondents at the beginning of the year. The members of the organization are Coach Stewart, J. S. Robinson, P. M. Hillman, H. M. Weeter, C.
S. Miller and B. Breckenridge. Mr.
Robinson is president of the organization and the coach is the advisory member. Meetings are held once a week, or more often if necessary, at which time the coach enlightens the correspondents in regard to the latest happenings in athletic Allegheny.
Robinson represents the Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Cleveland Leader; Weeter corresponds for the Tri-State Press Bureau; Hillman is a special correspondent for the Pittsburg Gazette-Times; Miller and Breckenridge write college items for the Messenger and Tribune, respectively.

Owing to the authentic accounts of games and the proper statements of conditions given out by the correspondents and members of this organization, no misleading, over-drawn or unauthorized articles have been published this year. This, coupled with the success of the team, has led to a greater and more significant recognition of the Allegheny team by the sport writers and critics in Pittsburg and Cleveland, as well as others in this vicinity. The Allegheny College Publicity Committee is a permanent organization and will doubtless help other branches of athletics as it has helped football.

Not only has Allegheny received proper recognition from the city dailies but in another field, that of college journalism, the press comments on the Allegheny team have been most favorable. The comments made by the papers of rival schools have without an exception, been of a favorable nature. It is an unusual thing for any college team to go through a season without stirring up charges or dirty work, illegal decisions, and ineligible players, but in no case has this undesirable form of advertising been extended Allegheny. The Tech Tartan referred editorially to the splendid spirit shown by the undergraduates and alumni at Pittsburg. An extract from the Buchtelite appears in another column. The Westminster Hol-cad, and the Geneva Cabinet do not hesitate to praise the magnificent work done by the local eleven.

Second Team

One Game Played By Faithful Scrubs
Who Did Their Share.

Although several games were planned for the second team but one was actually played, because of several unexpected obstacles which were encountered. This game was played at Slippery Rock on October 15 and resulted in a Reserve defeat, 5-0. The touchdown was scored on a lucky fluke after Slippery Rock had been outplayed throughout the game.

"Dick" Hendricks, '13, captain of the second team, played a consistent game at fullback. He was one of the players that gave the 'varsity plenty of practice in breaking up plays and kept them guessing by his strong defense.

"Whitey" Pierson, '14, who came from Meadville High, did his share on the team this year. He also played on the Freshman eleven, in which he distinguished himself by making all the touchdowns.

Zelwis, '14, was a Freshman who made a strong bid for the 'varsity.
His regular place was guard but tackle and end were each played by him.
"Dud" Ballinger, '11, was out the first of the season until injured, during which time he was considered
'varsity material.

Hall, '13, at left half, did effective work throughout. He made most of the forward passes accurately and effectively.

Cole, '11, was back at his old position at center. Cole was one of last year's 'varsity men and acted as sub this year. As a Freshman, he played on the 1911 team.

Borland, '12, was a fast and sure end. His ability in recovering the forward passes added materially to the team.

"Len" Harris, '11, was at half part of the time. When the coach called for men for the second team, he was one of the faithful volunteers.

Palmer, '13, also played well at end and was a big support on the line.
He was a member of the 1913 eleven.
McNulty is another 1913 man who made good. His work at tackle was exceptional. "Mac" may be depended on to make a strong bid for the 'varsity.

"Dutch" Nevins, '13, played at right half until forced to retire on account of a dislocated shoulder. Without doubt he was one of the most dangerous men on the scrubs.

Shoup, '14, is a good player although a little inexperienced.

Oscar Bodenborn, '12, is a husky guard who made the 'varsity move.
He played two years on the Allegheny
Prep team before entering college.

Shields, '13, captain of the Sophomore team, was a husky back field rusher who could always be depended on to tear the 'varsity defense up.

McKay, '13, made good use of his weight on the line. In the Slippery Rock game he played left tackle.

Winn, '14, played consistently all season and was able to give a good account of himself.

Case, '14, played on the 1914 team as end. He also was seen on the scrub eleven in this position.

R. W. Riggs, '14, was another 1914 standby. His weight and speed combined to make him a strong line man.

Evans, Gordon and Hayes were also among the members of the second team. They came out when the 'varsity was in need of practice and aided materially by making stiff opposition.

Coming Again

Prospects Very Bright for a Championship in 1911

The present outlook for a winning football team next season is exceedingly bright. There is every reason to believe, if one is to judge from present indications, that the 1911 team will be the best and most successful aggregation ever to play under Allegheny's colors. Coach Stewart is anticipating a phenomenal season and is already working on the schedule.

Of the 1910 team, only one is lost by graduation. Ex-Captain Kennedy, who has been a tower of strength on the line for three years, will graduate in June. All the rest of the team expect to be in school next fall. With these, and probable additions from the next Freshman class, it is argued that the team ought to be at least twenty-five per cent better than the present champions.

Efforts will be made by the coach and others to influence, in a fair and legitimate way, high school athletes to come to Allegheny. It is expected that several prospective students will be entertained here for a few days at the time of the Washington's Birthday Banquet. A basketball game will be played on the evening of February 21 with St. Lawrence or the University of Pittsburg. This will help make the attraction an especially attractive one.

Games already scheduled by the coach are:

Sept. 30.—West Virginia University, at Morgantown.

Oct. 7.—Geneva, at Geneva.

Oct. 14.—Kenyon, here.

Other teams which will be played are Grove City, Carnegie Tech, Buch-tel, Mt. Union, Hiram and probably Westminster and W. & J. The game with Kenyon here on October 14 will be the first game on the new athletic field, which will be completed by that time.

Intercollegiate

Edward J. Hart of the Princeton football team was re-elected captain after the Yale game. He is one of the few Princeton players to be elected captain in his junior year, and has the further honor of having been elected to lead the 'varsity football team two years in succession.

Concerning the various college football captains, 15 are backs, 5 are ends, 4 are guards, 3 are centers and 2 are tackles.

In spite of the fact that the Oberlin team played but four conference games the Plain Dealer Cup for the Ohio Champions was awarded Coach Snider's pupils. The Reserve authorities and others maintain that the honor should have gone to Case.

Pitt scored 282 points and was not scored against in the nine games played.

"Bill" Mansell, '12, has been re-elected captain of the Westminster eleven.

The girls of Iowa State University have regular meetings for rooting parties. They have a cheer leader of their own.

To the question, "What does this University need most?" 95 per cent.
of the Seniors at Purdue answered,
"A football team."

There were about 75 Freshmen out for football at Ohio State.

Michigan has offered a prize of $100 for a new football song.

Fourteen men received their letters in football at Case this year.

The football squad at the University of California numbered two hundred and sixteen men.

Arthur Howe, of South Orange, N.
J., was elected captain of the Yale eleven next season.

Seven Northwestern students were jailed as a result of the celebration of a football victory. Perhaps they were not used to winning.
