My dearest Miss Tarbell

It is a boon to my old loving heart, to know that you are within a stone's throw of my sick bed. How many winter hours I have passed with my beloved husband in Hemingway Park just opposite the Windsor Hotel.
Walk through and about it. I cannot vouch for its beauties this season for I have not been able to see what damage has been done by the unusual weather. But it has simply blossomed and blossomed heretofore.
You must go out to San Jose. It is one of moments but alas! the venture might prove too much for my strength.

It rejoices my soul to know that one so able so honest and just should have been sent to study and write on the situation in Florida.

My son-in-law - Millrey's husband is out of town, otherwise his services would be at your command. Millrey may be able to call on you - I hope so.

God bless you dear Miss Tarbell always and especially in all the noble work you are doing.

Ever your sincere friend

Rebecca Wetherston.
