Columbia University
in the City of New York
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

New York Nov. 16, 1928
Philosophy Hall

My dear miss Tarbell,

Miss Kodesch, my poor austrian friend writes to me that she has received the hundred dollars and has entered a sanatorium. She has written to me a letter which is a tremendous document of human misery. But now thanks to the „blessed american friends" she begins to hope again. The whole cure which requires too radiology and the expenses for the long recovering period require about 400 dollars, including the 100 doll. yet sent. I put in what I can again, but I beg of you, miss Tarbell, to help me by finding this sum. I know your good headedness and feel certainty you will do it. I am sure we will safe this poor friend. Thank you, miss Tarbell.

Yours
V. Macchioro

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944. Allegheny College Pelletier Library