My dear Mrs. Winkler,

Your letter of February 25th was forwarded to me from New York. Of course it is quite out of the question for me to tell without knowing its nature whether the information which you wish to turn over to me is something which I could handle. I would not advise you on the chance, a very long chance since my time is taken up almost entirely for several months, to make the effort to go to New York, and I am not to be in the West this summer or fall so far as I now know. If you or your attorney care to write me more fully about the matter, I shall be glad to consider it. And of course any information you might give me would be held in strictest confidence.

I expect to be in New York by the end of this month, so that a letter there at that time would reach me as soon as one here, since I am leaving for the East in a few days.

Very sincerely,

Ida M. Tarbell.
