

June 23, 1933

Dear Mr. Reynolds:

Here are some notes that I made the other day after a talk with Marie Manning about Mrs. Roosevelt. They are rough but they give you an idea of what I have in mind. Of course I should go down and sit with the ladies of the press and have a talk with Mrs. Roosevelt too. Do you think there is anything in it? Please return the notes.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Paul Reynolds
599 Fifth Avenue
New York City