Lincoln Note
for Miss Tarbell

The Lincoln Martial Records of Augusta Co. Va. shows that in the years 1776. 1777. and 1778. Abraham Lincoln, Grand-Father of the Present, was Judge Advocate of the Court. This Court was composed of the Lieutenant Colonel, Major and the Captains of Regiment of Augusta County Militia Va. They appointed the first Element of Citizenship in the County. Among the Captains at that period was David Laird, afterwards a Captain in the Continental Line; Capts George Moffett and Capt. William Anderson, all of whom are known to have been men certainly of good character Schools & Education, and the fact that Captain Abraham Lincoln was chosen from a large group of Captains as the Judge Advocate Certainly indicates a certain Eminence for Spirit and Mind & the Confidence that he won the Most Speakers among them.

Captain Lincoln continued in such on the Augusta A. Va. Militia until Oct. 1778

Digital Image, 2012. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library

Rockingham County, Va., was formed from Augusta Co. Va.

=

There is a Court record in Augusta Co. Va. in which Abraham Strickler was the defendant, and the autograph signature to a bond given on the Court shows that he was a man of good education for that period.

=

The Court order books of Rockingham Co. Va. show that in 1782 Abraham Strickler, grandfather of the present Sheriff lived in Rockingham County, Va., and this records the year of the Strickler marriage to Rebecca. The marriage bond of Thomas Strickler & Nancy Hawkins is on file at Harrisonburg, Va. Shows the fact that they were married by Rev. John Head. A Baptist who then also was married of Augusta and then of Rockingham Co. Va., and the name is Nancy. Shows that the marriage took place about the time of the Strickler marriage in 1782 or 1783

=

Digital Image, 2012. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library

The Forbes Came to Va in 1767 and Acquired Valuable lands on Roanoke Creek, one of the most fertile sections in Pittsylvania Co.
The records of Augusta Co. Va indicate that from the first the clustering of the family in the Old County of Augusta was great.
They married Chambers, Crockett, Thompson, Lewis, Lesueur
Lowman, Saunders, Henderson, Lewis, Rosemyre Sands, Mappin, Robertson, and many others of the Scotch-Irish families whose descendants have remained in the state of the South Ever since. No ill fortune pursued them in Va. They are thrifty and prosperous Family in Virginia, and the descendants who have remained in Virginia fare from the family means everything.
Following the Civil War the Va Forbes are devoted Southerners and furnished many other Confederate Soldiers to oppose the Armies of their great Countryman in Washington

Charles E. Kemper

Salem, Va
Oct. 16. 1922

Digital Image, 2012.. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library