GLEE CLUB REORGANIZED FOR COMING SEASON

Splendid Outlook For a Successful Season—Several Trips Already Booked

The Glee Club, that so called musical organization which Allegheny endures, and even encourages, has at last gotten down to work, and completed plans for the school year, which if carried out, will justify the existence of the club and place Allegheny well to the front among those colleges and universities which foster similar organizations.

Coming back to life with that pep and vigor which characterize all things which have survived the war, the Glee Club began its work by a complete reorganization. The new constitution which resulted is a marvel in parliamentary procedure, and places the club on a basis which assures success.

Two changes which stand out from all the rest concern the provision for new members, and the providing for an assistant manager. Bearing in mind that the primary requisite for success in a glee club consists in sincere and capable members, constitutional provision has been made for a membership committee consisting of the director of the club, the leader, a member of the faculty serving as club advisor, and two club members chosen by the three officials mentioned above. This committee conducts tryouts at the beginning of each year, and selects the new contingent strictly on a basis of merit. The wisdom of such a method is quite obvious, in that it eliminates all possibility of politics, and assures the selection of the best material available.

Has Artist of Merit.

In planning the work of the year, no pains have been spared, nor details overlooked.

The instrument section is a new feature which will contribute greatly to the success of the club. It consists of about fifteen members, comprising violin, banjo, madolin, guitar, ukelele, Hawaiian stringed and various other instruments which add to the variety and quality of the serenade type of music. There are still vacancies in this department and Mr. Miller will be glad to hold tryouts for men desiring to become members.

The obtaining of the services of Mr. Fredrick Smith, '22, as violinist, and conductor of the instrument section is in itself sufficient cause to assume the success of the club. Mr. Smith is an artist who, barring pro-

UNION MEETING IN CHAPEL TONIGHT

Union services of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. in the Chapel tonight at 6:45 o'clock will interrupt the usual series of meetings which these organizations have been holding in the women's and men's dormitories.

The topic for the eveninng is a subject well worth while, and will be handled by competent speakers. It is to the advantage of each individual to be present.

Union services, to be held once a month, will become a regular part of the school program, and the school is relying on your cooperation to make a success of them.

EX-CONGRESSMAN BATES ON "ROOSEVELT"

Talks on "My Personal Recollections and Impressions of Theodore Roosevelt."

Tuesday, October 28, Chapel service was given over to the Roosevelt Memorial Association. The speaker of the morning was Hon. Arthur L. Bates, a congressman from this district during Roosevelt's presidency and a man who was very intimately acquainted with Roosevelt.

Mr. Bates' talk touched many phases of Roosevelt's life—especially the diplomatic side. He discussed at length the President's position during the Venezuela controversy and the diplomatic manner in which he avoided war. He spoke at length of his reforms in the nation, his attitude toward trusts, and many other interesting facts. He stated how the kings and emperors of Europe sought after him as he was travelling through Europe on his return from Africa. As an example of his attitude it is said that the Kaiser asked an interview with him, Roosevelt replied, "I can give just ten minutes to his Majesty at three o'clock; I am going to call on Mrs. Humphrey Ward." The speaker recited quotations from many of the great men of Europe which showed their respect and veneration for Roosevelt.

Mr. Bates told of the intimacy which he had had with the president and read some of their correspondence which showed Roosevelt's attitude toward certain bills.

"Roosevelt is not dead," said Mr. Bates, but a living vital dynamic force, and the object of this force is to keep alive the devotion to duty for better social and political conditions. The world without Roosevelt would seem lonesome but his spirit lives and we are going to help keep it alive."

ARMISTICE DAY TO BE FITTINGLY OBSERVED

Armitice Day, now only six days distant, will be observed by most people and institutions with a solemnity which can exist only where the most profound emotions of mankind have been stirred.

On this day, the Tingley Biology Club will plant a tree on the Campus in remembrance of Ralph Edmondson Graham.

Mr. Graham, familiarly known as "Pest," graduated with his class in 1917. Immediately on his release from his studies, he entered the aerial service, and was commissioned first lieutenant in that service after completing the costomary training period.

He became proficient as a flier, and was made an instructor at Caruthers Field, Texas.

On October 14, 1918, while executing the intricacies of the tail spin, with a novice piloting the plane, the inexperienced man lost control of the machine resulting in a fall, and the death of Lieutenant Graham.

Lieutenant Graham was an active member of the Biology Club, and a laboratory assistant in that department. His qualities as College Cheer Leader have never been surpassed.

THE NIGHT BEFORE PAY-DAY.

'Twas the night before pay-day
And all through my jeans
I hunted and hunted
For the price of some beans,
Not a quarter was stirring,
Not even a jit,
The coin was off duty,
Milled edges had quit.
Move forward, move forward,
O, Time, in your flight
And give me tomorrow
Just for tonight.

EASY WORK.

"Yes; even when we graduate we do it by degrees."

Honorary Fraternity Pledges Five Men

ALPHA CHI SIGMA EXTENDS INVITATIONS TO FIVE FUTURE CHEMISTS.

Since last Friday five men have been pledged to Alpha Chi Sigma, the honorary chemical fraternity. The pledges are as follows: Earl C. Clark, '21; Willard Grant, '21; E. Lester Fix, '21; David C. Dunn, '20; Merril B. Iams, '21.

As will be noticed all of these men are members of the two upperclasses, this being one of the restrictions which Alpha Chi Sigma observes. At the beginning of each year, men from the upperclasses are pledged, while during the last semester sophomores who are taking advanced work in chemistry are eligible to membership.

Alpha Chi Sigma is an honorary chemical fraternity, and only persons who expect to choose some phase of chemistry as a profession are eligible to membership. Certain other things are taken into consideration also. Scholarship is perhaps considered most strongly.

An open house, the full details of which will appear in a later issue, is being arranged.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment Highly Appreciated

WELSH GLEE CLUB QUARTETTE ENTERTAINS LARGE AUDIENCE IN CHAPEL.

The second number of the Y. M. C. A. entertainment series which is being given this winter was given in the Ford Memorial Chapel on Friday evening, "The Welsh Glee Quartette" furnishing the entertainment.

Number one on the program, "The Gypsie Trail," was well received. It was followed by "Drink to me only with thine eyes," and then a humor sketch entitled "A Little Farm Well Tilled."

"Character songs of the London Fruit Monger," including a number of cockney songs not altogether without merit, was perhaps the most popular number of the evening, with "Dear Old Pal of Mine" strongly contesting for second honors. The National Anthem concluded the program.

The next number of the series will be Miss Gay Zenola MacLarren, of whom we are expecting great things in the line of dramatic readings. She is scheduled to appear on December 13.

SATURDAY ENDED SIX WEEKS OF STRENUOUS RUSHING

Forty-two Girls Pledged to Greek Letter Societies

PROBABLE CHANGE IN RUSHING RULES FOR 1920

Saturday, November 1, marked the close of a successful but most strenuous rushing season of the women's fraternities.

Six weeks ago, when school opened, rushing began with a zest and vigor which have not been equaled during several seasons.

Regulations governing rushing, as prescribed by the Women's Senate, were much the same as in previous years. Closed season rules were rigorously followed.

Most of the girls, however, have this year more than ever, felt that a shorter and less strenuous season would be better for all concerned. Many of the girls influential and active in school affairs have strongly advocated a short open season for next year, and there is little reason to doubt that provision will be made for such a change before the opening of school in the fall of 120.

Mu Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta announces the pledging of Almira Barrett, Denver, Colorado; Maria P. Avery, Clymer, N. Y.; Mary Henderson, Vanderbilt; Catherine Johnson, Erie; Helen McCandless, Rochester; Katherine Morrow, Union City; and Ruth Young, Meadville, all of the class of 1923.

Gamma Rho Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma, announces the repledging of Ruth Peters, '23, of Ashville, Ohio; Eleanor Chase, Greenville; Ruby Rishell, Jonnstown; Virginia Grenelle, Rochester, N. Y.; Alice Roach, Pittsford, N. Y.; Alicia Tobin, McKeesport, Pa.; Harriet Ruth Kirk, Monessen, Pa.; and Linnie E. Louden, Tarentum, Pa., all of the class of 1923.

Kappa Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta announces the pledging of Marcia May Horton, Wellsville, Ohio; Margaret Dickroeger, Irwin, Pa.; Ruth Lane, Turtle Creek, Pa.; Edna Mumford, Warren, Pa.; Nellie McQuiston, Meadville, Pa.; Marie Gutzler, Warren, Pa.; Helen Shaffer, Scalp Level, Pa.; and Helen Swartout, Garrett, Indiana, all of the class of 1923.

STONE CHURCH RECEPTION.

Allegheny Students Guests of Dr. Foulke.

On the evening of Thursday, October 30, three hundred young folks of the college and town were the guests of the Rev. Dr. Foulke and Mrs. Foulke at a semi-formal reception and reading at the Stone Church.

"Polly of the Circus," very pleasingly read by Miss Bessie Barton Winger, afforded the principle entertainment of the evening. Be it said in just praise that Miss Winger appeared to good advantage last Thursday, and that her reading was enjoyed by all.

Music of good quality was furnished during intermissions and the serving of refreshments by the orchestra from the Odd Fellows' Home.

Annually, the students of Allegheny and the young folk of the town anticipate the coming of this reception. Dr. and Mrs. Foulke lived up to their reputation as hosts, making each of their numerous guests glad that he had been present, and appreciative of the new friends whom he had found in the pastor and his wife.

DUZER DU DOESIT.

Duzer Du comes into line with the other College organizations by organizing for the year, and putting the club on an effective basis.

Jimmy Piper, their president, announces that tryouts for this year's cast will begin within the week, or as soon as the club will have decided just what the season's hit will be. These tryouts are on a competitive basis, and are open to all men who feel that they missed their calling by coming to college.

January will be the eventful month for the club, and for the College as well, for along with the snow and blizzards will come a delightful comedy, which, if we are to take the last performance as a standard, will be anything but boresome.

Election of members will take place shortly after the presentation of the play.

By those who were here last year it will be remembered that Duzer Du presented "Believe Me Xantippe," with unparalleled success, in the Academy of Music. Duzer Du is worthy of unstinted cooperation and loyal support.

CARNEGIE TECH VICTORS IN AQUATIC MEET, 9-0

Tartans Outswim Gold and Blue in Gridiron Farce—Field Almost a Lake

SLIPPERY BALL AND HEAVIER TEAM SPOIL ALLEGHENY'S PASSES AND TRICK PLAYS

In an aquatic meet between Carnegie Tech and Allegheny College on Tech Field in Pittsburgh, last Saturday, the wearers of the Plaid proved to be the better ducks, and won, 9 to 0. The affair was advertised as a football game, but the resemblance was dim and shadowy. Mud and water formed effective post-Hallowe'en camuflage. All credit is due to the splendid cheering of Allegheny partisans who braved the unbearable storm to cheer their Alma Mater to victory.

It was impossible for individuals to display any real football abilty, and the most of the gains made by either team were caused by pushing or sliding in the saturated yellow clay. Tech scored on a fake forward pass and later forced a safety on Allegheny.

The game by plays:

First Quarter.

Capt. Harbaugh lost the toss and Tech chose to defend the south goal and to kick to Allegheny. Williams kicked to Scannell, who ran it back to the 35-yard line. Kinnear hit right guard for no gain. Kerr failed to gain on an attempted run around left end. Kinnear tried right end but lost. Kerr punted to Fletcher on Tech's 20-yard line. Levy made two successful plunges through the line for a 4-yard gain. Loomis failed through guard, forcing Fletcher to punt over Allegheny's goal line. The ball was brought to our 20-yard line. Kinnear made 2 yards through center. Kerr made 12 yards through center, giving Allegheny her first down. Plumb failed at left tackle. Kinnear lost around left end. Plumb ran right end for no gain. Kerr kicked to Fletcher who failed to advance the ball from Tech's 30-yard line. Fletcher immediately punted to Kerr, who ran the ball back to Allegheny's 35-yard line. The next play, the only forward pass of the game, Kerr to Scannell, was intercepted by Levy, who made 8 yards. By an end run and a plunge off right tackle Loomis made a first down for Tech. In three attempts through the line Loomis and Levy made no gain, and Tech was penalized 15 yards for holding. Loomis then made 12 yards off right tackle and Fletcher was forced to punt to Kerr on the 15-yard line. As the whistle blew for the end of the quarter Plumb failed at right end.

Second Quarter.

"Cecilia" Musical Club an Innovation on Campus

NEWEST ADDITION TO COLLEGE CLUBS EFFECTED ORGANIZATION LAST WEEK.

"Cecilia" is on the Hill now, and she's here to stay!

"Cecilia Club," a brand new brand of college organization has recently been organized in Allegheny and is now officially recognized as a permanent institution. "Cecilia" is a girls' musical club.

Organization was effected last Tuesday evening at the home of the patroness, Mrs. Henke. Officers and members were elected, followed by an informal discussion of club projects and plans for the year's work.

Refreshments were served to the club, and the meeting was adjourned until a not far distant date.

"Cecilia" is not only an excellent name, girls, but an excellent club. You have the support of the College back of you.

Club elections resulted as follows: President, Elizabeth Carew, '20; Vice-President, Edith Potter, '20; Secretary, Ella Allgood, '20; and Treasurer, Florence Pappenhagen, '20. The new members which were elected are: Miss DeTurk, ex-officio; Florence Gibbons, '20; Dorothea Kerr, '21; Wilhelmina Traum, '21; and Ruth Sjoberg, '21.

PLANS FOR EXTEMPORANEOUS SPEAKING CONTEST

On Friday evening, November 14, the Oratorical Association will hold in the Chapel a declamation contest for the men of the Sophomore and Freshman classes, and an extemporaneous speaking contest for the men of the Senior and Junior classes.

The Sophomore and Freshman classes will each choose three representatives for the contest. The declamation or recitation may be either a prose or verse selection; each speaker will choose his own declamation. Each speaker will be allotted not more than six minutes. Five dollars will be awarded the speaker given first place by the judges.

The extemporaneous contest is open to any man of Junior or Senior standing. The contest will be conducted as follows: The general subject, "The Relation between Capital and Labor with Specific Reference to Settling Disputes," has been assigned. One hour before the time set for the beginning of the contest a limited phase of this subject will be announced to the speakers, and lots will be drawn to determine which side each speaker is to support. Speakers will then be assigned quiet rooms where they can prepare their material for public presentation. Contestants will not be allowed to consult authorities during this hour nor will they be allowed notes that they have made during their reading. Speakers will not be permitted to use notes while they are delivering their speeches. No contestant will be allowed more than seven minutes for his speech. A five dollar prize will be awarded to the winner.

In case more than six men indicate their intention to compete, preliminaries will be held in the Forum on Friday, November 7. If such preliminaries are held the general subject will be, "The High Cost of Living." The same method will be followed in the preliminaries as is outlined above for the finals. In order that all contestants may know whether or not preliminaries will be held, it is important that all prospective contestants hand their names to Professor Swartley without delay.

SPECIAL TRAIN FOR TECH GAME CANCELLED

Raising of Rates Necessitated Action.

Much to the disappointment of all the students, the special train engaged for the Tech-Allegheny game had to be canceled. After the tickets had been placed on sale the railroad company raised the rates thus overthrowing all plans. In all, there would have been at least two hundred representatives at the game. Not only Allegheny men, but many of the citizens of Meadville expected to attend the game. Unfortunately also the girls of the College could not back this movement because of last Saturday being pledging day for the girls' fraternities. In all probability, the plans would have been carried through, regardless of the raise in rates, if the co-eds could have supported this cause.

At any rate, the instigators of this idea, Neeley, '22, and Kunselman, '22, should be commended for their spirit. It is an example of the true college spirit, the kind which our teams appreciate. Although this movement was not successful, it set forth an example worthy of being duplicated the next time the team plays away from home.

CLEMENT G. CLARK COMING.

Dr. Clement G. Clark, Y. M. C. A. specialist on sex-hygiene will address the meeting in Cochran Hall on November 12. Dr. Clark served with the Army as a Y. M. C. A. secretary during the recent war, and through his wide and varied experience, has become recognized as an expert in his field.

Editorial

We are going to talk about a man behind his back.

One editor is temporarily out of town, and we're going to tell you something about him—not because we want to talk about the man, but because we want to give a boost to the principles for which he stands, and the ideals for which he is working.

He is not working to bring about Utopia. He is not working for a million dollar endowment fund. He is not working for more School Spirit.

He IS working for a proper and worth-while manifestation of that super-abundance of School Spirit which Allegheny already has.

The gymnasium had long been a mere hint at our needs; for five years, Hulings has been much too small for its purpose; Cochran Hall is not large enough by half. This unanticipated, almost unbelievable growth is an indication that Allegheny has at least one form of School Spirit.

This School Spirit of which we are speaking in not an abstract quality—it is a reality, and if you are a true Allegheny, it is real to you.

You feel it when you support college activities, whether spiritual, social, or athletic.

You feel it when you resolve to make the bigger and the better things a part of your college life.

For College Honors are competitive. Your pet organization can not make you of consequence in college if you will not compete. If you have never competed then you are withholding from the school and yourself the best that is in you.

Get into the activities which especially appeal to you, and do your part. We feel justified in asking you to enter the field of Literary competition, and contribute to the "Campus," because at the present moment, we are more interested in that particular thing more than any other one activity. All of its departments are open to competition, and we invite you to take an active part.

There! We haven't told you so much about the Editor after all, but we have briefly outlined one branch of college activities in which you can take an active part, and which you should most heartily support. And, if we have been a little too didactic you will at least understand our motive, and work for the "DOUBLE S"—SCHOOL SPIRIT.

"To him that has shall be given" is a policy the college world is prone to use a great deal too much. Let a man get into one office his Freshman year and nine chances out of ten by his Senior year he will hold half the offices in school to which he is eligible. Take the backward man or woman the one with little self confidence. He never gets into anything, you don't give him a chance. No one knows whether he can hold office or not. Among the Seniors, a few have offices galore, the rest have nothing. Search for nominees for a Senior office. No one is considered aside from that probable half dozen who between them already hold almost everything. Now and then choose the person who hasn't been in much yet. Don't say he can't. Give him the chance at least to prove himself a failure. Sometimes you will choose a misfit but his mistakes won't be fatal. Divide up a little. All the brains aren't contained in one head despite the size of some of them.

You men and women who have never been in college activities, get busy! Develop a backbone in place of that wishbone now in use. Write up an item of news for the Campus, a story for the Lit, a joke for the Kaldron. Show some interest in a class now and then, you may get into a club. Don't be too modest about athletics. Try out for a team. You probably can't play much but you may be able to learn. The college man or woman is looked upon by the world as the all-round man or woman. The real ones are. Make it universal. Put some "punch" into things.

Alco Suits at Veith's.

READ 'EM AND WEEP

If you think some of the jokes we print are rotten, you should see some of the jokes we don't print.

You have, without doubt, read several jokes in "Judge," "Louisville Courier," and even in the "Meadville Tribune" which we have not yet printed. That may be due to our lazy reading habits, or it may be due to an entirely different reason.

Only in the rarest of extremities would we honor the time-tried jokes of the "Ladies Home Journal" by reprint. We have elevated ourselves above their one-dollar plane, and have made our humor priceless.

We would like to have your contribution, so that we may have the pleasure of rejecting a few jokes, and also the pleasure of printing a few. Tell your happy thought to the editor, or drop it in the contribution box in Bentley. And don't be timid—drop it in the box whether anyone is looking or not.

LIBRARY.

The following new books have been received at the library. According to the usual custom all new books not needed at once for classes will be put on the table for "New Books" in the reading room where it is hoped that students will examine them. Many other new books are on the way from the publishers.

Manly, Pre-Shakesperean Drama, two copies; Miller editor, Smull's Legislative Handbook; Reader's Guide to Periodic Literature, Vol. 4; American Historical Association, Annual Reports, 4 vols; Landor, Selections from Imaginary Conversations, three copies; Faguet, Propos Litteraires, five vols; Faguet, Propos de Theatre, five vols; Science and Learning in France, gift of Dr. Snavely; Chateaubriand, Atala; Cajori, History of Mathematics; Dewick, Primitive Christian Eschatology; Stanton, Gospels as Historic Documents, two vols.

All new students are invited to come to the library if not already acquainted with it.

The schedule is slightly changed from the special one of last year as is as follows: Monday open at 10:30. All other mornings opens at 8:00, closes at 12:30. Opens at 1:30, closes at 5:30. Evenings except Saturday 7:00 to 9:00. Closed on Sunday.

BULLETS

Editor's Note—Mr. Bullet has been an anonymous contributor to the CAMPUS since last year. Since his articles seem to be read with interest and since he contributes news that comes from no other source the editor's staff has decided to give him a regular column. We encourage him to continue his contributions.

News of the kind published in this column would be very interesting if they could be had about Hulings Hall. We would suggest that some Miss Bullet add her contributions to this column. Then, too, if any article misses the Miss—Well it will be a mis-bullet.

Editor of Campus:

I have been inspired to place these few suggestions in your box at Bentley by watching our men at practice this last week, diving, sliding, etc. in the wet slimy mud of Montgomery Field.

I fear that many of we students who are not included among these real heroes do not realize what these men go through. Now that the gym is being dismantled many of them must dress at home—while some of them are enjoying the rare priviledge of dressing in the basement of Bentley Hall where they must go about with bowed head—lest they dash their brains out on the rafters and pipes which artistically adorn those ceilings.

If our team should lose every game and lose them by great difference in scores, we students of Allegheny should still praise them for we must remember that their life is not all sunshine and roses. If you do not believe it—go out some night and get shoved and slammed in the mud and mire and see for yourself.

Let each one of us encourage the team, give them credit for all that they do, and above all things, let's "kill" the knockers, bury them, then let them grow up boosters.

Mr. Bullet was taking a walk last Tuesday night, on October 29 to be exact; as he walked out past the end of Baldwin street he heard an interesting scrap of conversation, "Hey, back there! You're making too much noise. Don't talk so—Loud."

Say! Do you suppose the fact that there is a question mark on the pin of a certain organization around school indicates that its members are questionable characters?

Just who the club reader will be has not yet been decided. Dr. Shultz will conduct tryouts for that position during the present week, and invites all men who feel the germ of histrionic fame within them trying to burst forth into being and expression, to make arrangements with him.

During the first few days of December, the club hopes to be prepared to open their schedule by a home concert. The regular spring concert will take place about Commencement time. The home program also includes the revival of the old custom of an annual minstrel. It is well known that the club contains some excellent minstrel material, and those who are low-browed enough to enjoy a good time have a real treat to look forward to.

The out-of-town schedule will consist of two, and possibly three concert tours, and will include McKeesport, New Castle, Youngstown, Greenville, Sharon, Avalon, Butler, Erie, Jamestown, Oil City, Franklin, and numerous neighboring cities.

Professor J. A. M. Stewart, the director, is supported by a most excellent personel, headed by L. A. Miller, '20, as leader, and J. F. Preston, '20, as manager. The membership, including the men chosen at the recent tryouts, is as follows: First Tenor—L. A. Miller, '20; T. McCafferty, '20; C. Richmond, '20; S. Carlson, '22; J. Kramer, '22; Cook, '23; and H. Ware, '22, as alternative.

Second Tenor: J. Piper, '20; H. Dickey, '20; G. Dunbar, '21; W. Carney, '21; W. Melcher, '21; H. Jubelir, '21; and W. Jordan as alternative.

First Bass: D. Dunn, '20; D. Painter, '21; J. McMahon, '21; K. Hines, '23; W. Miller, '23; J. Wolf, '23; and S. Davis, '22, as alternative.

Second Bass: C. C. Laffer, '20; D. Stephens, '20; J. F. Preston, '20; M. W. Hartman, '21; F. Miller, '23; C. Boynton, '23; and S. Bates as alternative.

R. Ellsworth, '21, was successful in the tryouts for accompanist.

J. A. M. Stewart deserves personal mention for his successful work in directing the club last year, and L. A. Miller, the leader for two successive and successful years, is also worthy of sincere compliment.

ALUMNI NEWS

SOME PLEB!

Mrs. G. H.—"Does your daughter seem to have profeited much during her two years at college?"

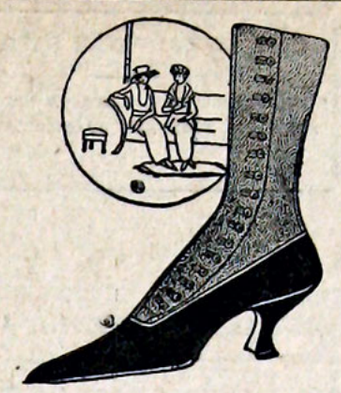

The Proud Mother—"Oh yes! Mary is now a carnivorous reader, and she frequently impoverishes music, but she ain't a bit stuck up—she's unanimous to everybody, and she never keeps a caller waiting for her to dress; she just runs in non de plume, and you know that makes one feel so comfortable!"

The "Constitution" of To-day—Electrically Propelled

THE U. S. S. "New Mexico," the first battleship of any nation to be electrically propelled, is one of the most important achievements of the scientific age. She not only develops the maximum power and, with electrical control, has greater flexibility of maneuver, which is a distinct naval advantage, but also gives greater economy. At 10 knots, her normal cruising speed, she will steam on less fuel than the best turbine-driven ship that preceded her.

The electric generating plant, totaling 28,000 horsepower, and the propulsion equipment of the great super-dreadnaught were built by the General Electric Company. Their operation has demonstrated the superiority of electric propulsion over old-time methods and a wider application of this principle in the merchant marine is fast making progress.

Figures that tell the Story of Achievement
Length—624 feet
Width—97 feet
Displacement—32,000 tons
Fuel capacity—a million gallons (fuel oil)
Power—28,000 electrical horsepower
Speed—21 knots

Six auxiliary General Electric Turbine-Generators of 400 horsepower each, supply power for nearly 500 motors, driving pumps, fans, shop machinery, and kitchen and laundry appliances, etc.

Utilizing electricity to propel ships at sea marks the advancement of another phase of the electrical industry in which the General Electric Company is the pioneer. Of equal importance has been its part in perfecting electric transportation on land, transforming the potential energy of waterfalls for use in electric motors, developing the possibilities of electric lighting and many other similar achievements.

As a result, so general are the applications of electricity to the needs of mankind that scarcely a home or individual today need be without the benefits of General Electric products and service.

An illustrated Booklet describing the "New Mexico," entitled, "The Electric Ship," will be sent upon request. Address General Electric Company, Desk 44, Schenectady, New York

Geneva Opposes Allegheny in Last Home Contest

Gold and Blue Out to Win From the Beaver Falls Aggregation

Recent Reverses on Gridiron Have Not Broken Down Spirit of Hammett's Warriors

With a spirit unabated by the two successive defeats of recent dates, the Allegheny football team is out to win from Geneva College on Montgomery Field next Saturday, Nov. 8, and from Westminster College at New Wilmington on Saturday, Nov. 16. And win it will, if such a feeling of perseverance remains with the coaches and the football squad as is evident at the present time. The reverses at Grove City and Tech were indeed hard to swallow, but considering the odds of horrible weather and superior weight, the setbacks in themselves were not what they might have been. Of course such optimistic post-mortems are entirely extraneous, but we will always affirm that Old Alleghe's spirit is invincible and that her hopes are always high.

The Geneva game here in Meadville next Saturday will be the only other home attraction this season on the Montgomery Field gridiron. The Beaver Falls team comes well recommended. In its games with Pitt, Bethany, and Westminster, Geneva displayed some real college football. As far as can be ascertained, the safety that Geneva forced on the University of Pittsburgh in Geneva's first game of this season is the first time that a smaller college team has scored on Pitt since Allegheny thers in the fall of 1916. Of course nothing of the comparative qualities of the Geneva and Westminster teams can be divulged from the 0-0 score of their game last Saturday, for the weather conditions under which the contest was staged necessitate the foregoing of conclusions of any such nature.

Geneva beat the Allegheny S. A. T. C. team last year at Beaver Falls by one point, and if nothing else will impel the Gold and Blue to victory, the obligation to retrieve that reverse will do so. It is our fondest hope that Jupiter Pluvius will "lay off for a spell" this week, and give the spectators a chance next Saturday to see if Geneva's reputation can surpass Allegheny's prowess in open play. A muddy field, similar to Tech Field in Pittsburgh Saturday, certainly enhances the team of lighter weight, for open field play and aerial offensives are the specialties of such football teams. If circumstances are at all favorable, count on the Freshmen ringing Bentley's bell about sundown next Saturday.

Fletcher made 20 yards at right end; Levy failed at center; Loomis made six yards through the line; Marshall made first down off right end. On a criss-cross, Marshall to Levy, Tech gained 4 yards. Allegheny held them for downs on the 4-yard line. Kerr attempted to punt, but because of the mud he was forced to run and was tackled behind his own goal line, scoring a safety for Tech. Score—Tech, 9; Allegheny, 0. The ball was brought out to the 20-yard line and Kerr punted to Fletcher on Tech's 30-yard line. Fletcher was thrown for a 3-yard loss and Marshall hit right tackle for 8 yards. Levy failed at center, and Loomis made first down through the line. Loomis netted 2 yards on two plunges and Marshall made first down off left end. Levy lost 2 yards; Fletcher made 4 yards through center, but was seriously hurt and taken off the field. Plumb and Cunningham hit tackle for 4 yards and Kerr kicked to Loomis. Marshall failed; Brumwasser made 2 yards at guard. Marshall failed again, forcing Moon to kick to Kerr. Wittmer was sent in for Curtis. Plumb hit right end for 5 yards, Kerr ran left end for 12 yards, making first down at the end of the third quarter.

Fourth Quarter.

Cunningham made 8 yards on two successful plunges; Kerr made first down again. Cunningham fumbled and Tech recovered the ball. Loomis failed at center; Marshall made 3 yards at right guard. Loomis ran left end, but Tech was penalized for off-side. Marshall ran right end for 20 yards. Brumwasser fumbled, Baldwin recovering for Allegheny. Trace and Cunningham failed to gain through the line and Kerr failed at left end. Kerr kicked to Marshall, who ran it back to Allegheny's 40-yard line.
