

GOLDIE & GUMM
1540 BROADWAY
NEW YORK

January 25, 1932.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East 19th St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I spoke to Mr. Nicholas DeVore of the National Broadcasting Company about the broadcasting of "HE KNEW LINCOLN" next month. Mr. DeVore told me that he felt quite sure that NBC would want to broadcast the work this year. He asked me if they would be able to do this upon the same terms as last year, namely, $50.00, and I told him that I thought this would be satisfactory. Mr. DeVore stated that he would send me a letter confirming the transaction in a few days.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,

HHG:RR

