Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 East Nineteenth Street,
New York City, New York.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

Confidentially I am interested in some matters that may be printed before long in which reference may be made to Chapters 2 and 3 of your "Life of Abraham Lincoln", references being to the edition, New York, Lincoln Memorial Association, without any date of publication but the last copyright printed notice is 1900, and there is no date to your preface. In addition reference will probably be made to your Chapter 25, "Lincoln and Emancipation", Volume 2, similar to title page to Volume 1.

I want to inquire whether this edition of your two volume "Life of Lincoln" is up-to-date and contains your full work. I assume it does but out of caution I am writing you to inquire. I have a good deal to report to you one of these days when I have a better opportunity.

Sincerely yours,

John E. Iglehart
