Dear Miss Tarbell:-

In accordance with my promise to you when you called upon me a short time ago, I have asked the Illinois Steel Company to send me an account of the present status of the twelve stockholders shown in the photograph which you used in your book on the life of Judge Gary.

I am sending you herewith a copy of the photograph, marked, together with up-to-date information regarding these men.

With kind regards, I am

Very sincerely yours,

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
