Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
120 E. 19th Street,
New York.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Thanks for yours of July 30th, which is very interesting. I shall be glad to have you use any portion of my address, which suits you, and I am impressed with your comprehensive view of this field to which we are so close that we probably do not see it as well as you do.

I hesitated to insert the incident in regard to the eight verses mentioned in my address and in your letter, but the view you take of it gives me confidence, upon which I will carefully revise my real judgment, which I withheld in the somewhat timid presentation which I made of the matter.

I am going to the Springs over Sunday, and hope by the middle of the week to have in proper form this, with several other changes, and will during the coming week remail to you my corrected address, an extra carbon of which I have, and you may keep it, and make any reference to any part of it which suits you.

Sincerely yours,

John E. Iglehart
