

KILTS TAKE DIAMOND TILT

CARNEGIE TECH WINS GAME IN PITTSBURG.

Score 6-1—Grant Astonishes Highlanders — Baker and Benedict "There."

Allegheny and Andrew's bonny engineers crossed bats in Pittsburg, under a clear sky and bright sunshine Wednesday afternoon, the Tech. kilts taking the game 6-1.

According to the statement of Capt. Braymer the balloon went up in the first inning of the game, when Carnegie scored four runs. It was one of their off days that every team has at certain periods and in this instance it hit Captain Braymer's swatters with a sad jolt, landing them high above the rain clouds.

Several Allegheny rooters were on the grounds and cheered for the team even though the tilt looked bad from the beginning. One of the particularly redeeming features of the game was a beautiful home run smashed out by Grant, which a Pittsburg paper reports was the longest hit ever made on the Tech. grounds. However, as is the usual luck on an off day, this run did not count, because Grant failed to rest awhile on first base; in fact he didn't even stop to shake hands with the first baseman.

Baker played his usual star game at third and Braymer held down the home sack like the veteran he is.

Score by innings:

Tech. 0 1 3 0 0 0 2 x-6
Allegheny 0 0 0 1 0 0 0-1

Two base hits—King, Baker. Struck out—By Bragg 3, by Benedict 6. Double play—Benedict and Nelson.

Theta Sigma Entertains Friends

The young ladies of Theta Sigma sorority entertained their friends on Thursday evening with one of the most successful dinner parties of the year, at the Saegertown Inn.

A special car bearing the merry-makers reached the picturesque resort shortly after 4 o'clock. After an afternoon of boating dinner was served in the popular red room of the Inn. The tables were very tastefully decorated in blue and red, the sorority colors, and red roses were given as favors. The enjoyable evening was concluded with a very clever entertainment scheme.

Chautauqua Club Banquet Winners

The Chautauqua club introduced a novel innovation last Friday evening, royally banqueting the club members and their friends in the parlors of the Stone church. The hosts for the evening were the preachers and embryonic shepherds in the organization; and their guests of honor were the members of the championship club basketball team.

After the dinner hour R. B. Callahan, as master of ceremonies, presided over the following clever and representative program:

Inter Collegiate Meet Details

The details of the big track meet scheduled for June 6 at Conneaut lake, between Westminster, Geneva, Grove City, Carnegie Tech, West Virginia, Allegheny and probably W. & J., are being rapidly completed and the preparations pushed to a finish by Manager Miller. Special trains will be coming and going at the lake and the entire student bodies of several of the entries will be on the course.

ANNUAL WOMAN FRATERNITY BANQUET

PAN HEAVENLY ORGANIZATIONS CELEBRATE AT SAEGERTOWN.

Affair Gratifying Success—Excellent Menu and Toast List.

On Saturday evening, May 23, the sororities celebrated the annual Pan Heavenly banquet in the handsome dining room of the Saegertown Inn. The fair daughters of Allegheny Greek-dom took possession of the pavilions and grounds early in the evening and recorded one of the most successful inter-sorority events in the history of the Pan-Heavenly organization.

After the ambrosia and nectar had been dispensed with by the young ladies, the following responses were received with merriment and rollicking spirit:

MAMMOTH TOURNEY COMMENCES MONDAY

W. P. I. T. A. CONTEST TO BE HELD ON HULINGS COURTS.

June 1, 2 and 3 the Dates—Lively Times Assured.

The annual Western Pennsylvania Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament will be held at Allegheny upon the courts back of Hulings hall, next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 1, 2 and 3. This is the first time that this important event will have been held in Meadville since the present organization was effected, and it will no doubt arouse much interest among both college and townspeople. A grandstand will be erected near the courts, and every possible advantage be given holders of tennis tickets for witnessing the championship matches.

The institutions which will send teams here are W. U. P., Geneva, Westminster, Grove City and Tech. There are stars of the first magnitude, it is said in each of these colleges. Our management is confident, however, that they will meet their Waterloo in Allegheny's famous exponent of the game. Our team will consist of the winners of the local tournament, which reaches its finals today

Justice Overtakes Erring Poet

In a court scene impressive for its dignity and solemnity the Quill club conducted a lengthy trial in the library reading room, on Wednesday evening a tensely fascinated audience crowding around the bar of justice. It is within conception that the happy trial was more properly a trial for these onlookers, than for the defendant, Mr. Well I Am Leroy Stidger, charged with plagiarism in the first degree on an epilogue written by Mr. Brownus Lemuellis Ramonus, of the Sabine Farm, Hayfield township.

The court came to order after the call of the crier and Dr. Lockwood, in the refulgent dignity of the family bath robe, conducted the opening exercises. Mr. Dennis, the attorney for the "persecution" then presented the fatal indictment. Mr. Fixel and Mr.

College Council Dispatches Business

The College Council convened on Thursday afternoon to transact several important items of business. The first measure taken up was the reconsideration of the former Campus Judge appointments, and the election of Mr. W. T. Mossman, manager of the Pittsburg Orchestra, with Rev. Mr. Brown and Miss Louise Hempstead, of Meadville, as alternates.

The Council then took up the question of the yearly shortage in the athletic funds; and two committees were appointed, one to draw up a resolution offering a remedy for such shortage to be enacted upon by the Council at a later day; the other to circulate a petition among the students in regard to the same question, i.e., a remedy for the yearly shortage in the athletic funds. The meeting then adjourned to meet again as soon as the committee on resolutions is ready.

This meeting will be held in the next week or so, and it is requested by the secretary that any one having any matters which they desire the action of the Council upon will notify her of such matters before that date, as the Council desires to have a full session and finish up all the questions of the year which pertain to the welfare of the entire student body.

REPORT STARTLES COLLEGE COMMUNITY

DEATH OF CLIFFORD J. COGGAN, '07, CASTS SHADOW OVER COLLEGE HILL.

Report Unverified But Generally Accepted.

The shocking intelligence that Clifford J. Coggan, one of the best known men of the class of 1907, and a member of the local chapter of Phi Gamma Delta, had been accidentally killed on the Isthmus of Panama during the early part of the week, cast a shadow over the entire student body on Wednesday evening. The message was received at the Phi Gamma Delta house, and although no further details have been announced, the report is generally credited.

Mr. Coggan was an attache of an engineering corps on the Isthmus, and one of the most popular Americans in the zone. J. W. O'Connor, ex-'09, the only other Allegheny man in the new possession, who returned from Panama last Saturday, conversed with Mr. Coggan shortly before leaving Central America, and frequently met him out in the field. Mr. O'Connor believed that the accident happened along the network of railroads through the scene of excavation, or

The Track Meet.

During the next week the track team will be pitted against competitors from all the colleges in the Amateur League. The meet will be one of the big athletic events of the year, and every student should plan to be present. The details of transportation will be shortly announced.

The Interim.

In order to distribute the contract issues of the Campus evenly through the remaining weeks the management judged it proper to suspend the number of last week. The sheet will appear as usual next week, and a special feature edition for commencement week is planned for the concluding issue.

Oratorical Association.

There have been few prouder epochs in our oratorical history than the current year. In platform work and debate the art of public address has measured up to a splendid standard. The Oratorical Association now finds its resources in a sadly delapidated condition and the immediate support of the student body is imperatively requested.

The Kaldron.

On account of the failure of a down-town publishing house to fulfill its contract the manager of the Kaldron has been seriously embarrassed, and the issue of the year book deferred until June 10th or 12th. Only a limited number will be published and students desiring to secure copies should at once hand their subscriptions to Manager Deemer. This restriction of the issue is due to the advanced price of materials and the situation incurred by the printing dilemma.

In Memoriam.

With a note of inexpressible sadness the intelligence of the death of Clifford J. Coggan, class of 1907, comes to us in the activity of the closing semester, casting a shadow over the entire student body, and bringing a sense of deep personal loss to the many friends of the Allegheny brother, stricken in the vigor and promise of his young manhood. Our deepest and most heartfelt sympathy goes out to the bereaved parents, and the fraternity in our midst with which Mr. Coggan was associated in the close ties of friendship and brotherhood. A manly man, a worthy son of Old Allegheny, a good comrade, Mr. Coggan will ever be remembered by his fellow students and the wide circle of friends who were associated with him in the binding fellowship of college years.

CURRENT EVENTS.

Over 40,000 deaths have occurred from the famine in East Africa. The British Government is now feeding 50,000 natives.

The President of the French Republic is soon to visit King Edward, in London, and almost immediately afterward the King will leave for a visit to the Czar of Russia.

The Senate has again refused to submit a constitutional amendment requiring the election of Senators by the people, this time by referring it to a committee which is expected to kill it.

Congress has made a liberal appropriation for the international exposition to be held in Tokio, Japan, and the trade mark of convention between the two nations has been signed. The Japanese newspapers are loud in their praise of the friendship indicated by these two acts.

by the Federal Government. This power, given it by the Constitution, has not been exercised to any great extent until recently; and the Federal power is undoubtedly superior where the two come in conflict.

THE GIFT.

The general education board on Thursday announced the gift of almost one million dollars to small colleges and Harvard university. John D. Rockefeller indorses the board. President Eliot of Harvard and Andrew Carnegie were announced as members. Among the favored colleges were: Hamilton college, Clinton, N. Y., $50,000.

Knox college, Galesburg, Ill., $50,000.

Wabash college, Crawfordsville, Ind., $50,000.

Williamsburg institute, Williamsburg, Ky., $50,000.

University of Rochester, Rochester, N. Y., $30,000.

Smith college, Northampton, Mass., $12,500.

Western College for Women, Oxford, O., $50,000.

Davidson college, Davidson, N. C., $10,000.

Harvard university, Cambridge, Mass., (For Graduate School of Business), $62,500.

CLASSICAL CLUB.

The Classical Club met for the last regular session of the year Tuesday evening in the classical room of the library building. The principal paper was presented by Mr. R. B. Callahan, who discoursed upon "The Swastika," showing its ancient Grecian origin and use in a most entertaining manner. Other valuable contributions to the enjoyment of the meeting were reviews of magazine articles by Miss Verna Smith and Mr. L. W. Sherwin.

CLIFFORD JASON COGGAN

Class of 1907, Killed on the Isthmus of Panama, May, 1908.

Russia is seeking French capital for more railroads, and is soon to make an effort to get money in the United States. With her enormous debt, difficulty in paying interests, and uncertain government, it is safer for Americans to refuse to furnish her more money lest they lose both principal and interest.

We are now to proceed to the fortification of Pearl Harbor in the Hawaiian Islands. The dock is to be the largest of its kind in the world, because of the great distances from other lands. It will provide for the repair of war and merchant ships. In the case of small ships two or more may be docked at once. Pearl Harbor will thus become a mid-sea base of supplies.

The Interstate Commerce Commission in Ohio cases has refused to recognize State rules for railroads, so far as they interfere with interstate business, and has advised the railroads that they may safely ignore them. This may result in a conflict between State and Federal authority. It would be possible for the States by burdensome regulations to prevent the regulation of interstate commerce.

The election of delegates of both national political convention is now completed. In the Republican Convention the friends of Secretary Taft claim 553 votes out of 980, or considerably more than the majority required for nomination. In the Democratic Convention the friends of Mr. Bryan claim 677 delegates. The membership of the Democratic Convention is fixed at 1,002, and a two-thirds majority is here required. Mr. Bryan appears to have a little more than the two-thirds.

In the business session a vote of thanks was tendered Prof. Ross for his lecture, delivered last week. As a closing feature of a most successful year's work, Professor Ross invited the club to a meeting at his residence on South Main street next Tuesday evening.

Allegheny Duplicates Westminster Defeat

The gold and blue, on Friday, a perfect baseball day, once more avenged herself on the red and white and for the second time "Warhorse" Benedict came into his own. "Bennie" winked gleefully as he watched the visitors vainly break their backs under the scorching sun while they tried unavailingly to connect with his benders. Captain Braymer sprang a surprise on the visitors with a changed batting order that aided the wearers of the "A" to gain the final victory by a 2-0 score.

In Allegheny's half of the first inning Nelson drew a pass and Sturgeon's carelessness sent Benedict limping to first. Baker forced Nelson at third with a grounder although "Bake" reached the initial sack on Fulton's choice. A hit by Braymer sent Benedict to third and a minute later he scored on an error by Hankey. Grant popped into a double play, thus ending the inning.

The second period saw Firestone add another count to the credit of the home team. Gahan went out at first and then "Fire" following him smashed a hot grounder to left field. Hamilton muffed the ball and when he recovered it made a wild heave while Harry merrily made the circuit of the bases. Harris was caught by Hankey's wing when he tried to pilfer second. Since "Tacks" had already perished the session was terminated.

The tallying ceased after this inning for the afternoon although Allegheny had a chance to score during their last appearance at the bat. King negotiated a hit in this inning and both he and Nelson were safe on an error at first. A sacrifice, neatly made by Benedict, had advanced both when Baker lifted a high one toward left garden. King was sent home by the coach instead of being ordered to wait until the fly was caught and consequently was doubled up after Hamilton had made a pretty running catch.

Too much credit cannot be awarded the sons of Timothy for their high-class exhibition of ball playing as well as to both teams for their manly sportsmanship. The game was almost flawless in both fielding and pitching. Benedict struck out six men and allowed but three hits. Six men were fanned by Sturgeon; the Alleghenians, however, found him for six timely bingles. Only two Westminster men survived the trip to second and none saw the third bag. The injury of Harris was the one unfortunate incident that occurred to mar the glory of the triumph. The accident occurred in the sixth when he was gallantly trying to gather in a short fly to right center. King, who relieved him, played a satisfactory game.

Score by innings:
Westminster . . . 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—0

Preps Swamp Franklin High

The immature invincibles of the Prep school indulged in a little batting practice Friday, at the expense of Franklin High. The youthful sluggers started with a rush in the second inning and counted ten times. In the third they put five more credits to their account, finding the new pitcher just as easy as the previous one. In the second two men scored twice and Abbott cornered two hits, one a three-bagger, which he stretched into a tally on C. Miller's muff. Croasman showed his form by fanning thirteen men and allowing but six bingles. None of the scores Franklin secured were earned, but all were due to Prep. carelessness.

JUSTICE OVERTAKES ERRING POET.

Lewis were counsel for the defendant, Stidger, the president of Bingville university, as opposed to the district attorney and Mr. Aiken.

Expert evidence was introduced by the prosecution to show the immoral character of the defendant, also to prove this current guilt. Mr. Raymond Rameses II, Russell, O. N. V. S. D. I. for the P. F. C., (Owner Nuly Ving, State Dental Inspector for the Pure Food Commission), testified that when calling at Bingville to test the defendant's dental capacity he found that devout worthy in the county jail. Mr. Francis Loo-is-La Bounty, L. C. D. (Lush Critical Dope) testified that he was critic on the Ephemeral Magazine of Coons Corners, and told the incriminating story, all of which was corroborated by Miss Alice-In-Wonderland Hunting Spaldington, E. L. F. (Extremely Literary Feminine, conferred by the Plasterer's Union of Coons Corners,) etc., editor of the Ephemeral Magazine. A Christmas number of the journal, a work of art and a joy forever, was presented. The judge was deeply impressed by the titles of the persecution and after an extended wrangle and frequent objections, summed up the evidence of both cases, touching on the defendant testimony, Mr. Sardini, and the wife of the poet of the Sabine Farm, Hayfield. Mr. Sardini was a graduate of the Chicago Commercial College. The jury "sworn at," charged and generally maltreated at last returned a verdict of "guilty," still asserting that the defendant was innocent.

After the prisoner was sentenced the judge, jury, court and convict entered refreshment proceedings.

Be a Star Salesman!

Get in with an alert, successful sales organization—the most powerful in the world.
Develop within yourself every attribute that will enable you to meet and master everyday selling problems.
Learn the infinite power of initiative—learn how to apply it to your own creative ability and more than double your earning power.

This is your opportunity! Put yourself to the test.

The great sales organization of the Oliver Typewriter wants more salesmen.

This company offers to any accepted, energetic, ambitious man—absolutely free—all expenses paid—a scholarship in the Oliver School of practical salesmanship and a chance to act as local agent.

The position offers a world of opportunities—the field is unlimited. The Oliver Typewriter is a mechanical marvel—a vital power in the commercial world.

Business houses, great and small, are discarding antiquated machines and installing Oliver's.

Keen conservative men—"captains of industry" have awakened to the Oliver's indisputable efficiency and recognize the Oliver Typewriter as essential equipment of every good office system.

The superiority of the Oliver Typewriter emphasizes it as the standard by which all other typewriters are judged. Its supremacy is absolute.

The new Oliver No. 5 has taken the country by storm.

It meets the demand for durability. Its visible writing saves strain on the eyes. Disappearing Indicator shows exact printing point. The Double Release doubles convenience. Non-Vibrating Base insures stability.

Our untiring efforts to seek and produce "typewriter perfection" have been fulfilled beyond our boldest expectations in the New Oliver No. 5.

Requests for demonstration are pouring in from everywhere. Our large force of thousands is unable to meet such a tremendous demand and we must have more men at once to assist in the great task.

The positions we offer to the men who can qualify are permanent—the compensation is liberal—and the chances of advancement are excellent.

This announcement should kindle the spark of ambition in everyone who chances to read it. It will appeal to every man who has it in him to "do things"—but has heretofore been handicapped. It means emancipation from drudgery and halted progress.

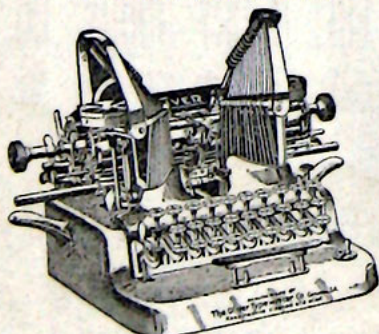

Send at once for a copy of the Oliver's remarkable book, "The Rise of the Local Agent." It tells true stories of real life—how ambitious men started at the bottom of the Oliver's ladder of opportunity and now have reached the topmost rungs.

Write for a copy of the book—today—now—before you lay aside this paper.
