THE CAMPUS

APPLEGRAN NEW COACH

A NEW ATHLETIC COACH AND ASSISTANT IN PHYSICAL TRAINING

For some time past Prof. Hammett has been in correspondence with head football coaches in a goodly number of the big universities, seeking a player of national reputation to add to the coaching staff of Allegheny College for the scholastic year 1920-1921. A number of men have been under consideration. Nearly a month ago a committee consisting of Prof. Hammett, Dr. Lee, Chairman of the Faculty Committee on Athletics, and President Crawford went over all the recommendations with considerable care. It finally seemed clear to all members of this committee that there was one man who stood out well above the rest in fitness for the position. This was Mr. C. O. Applegran of the University of Illinois.

At the suggestion of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees Mr. Applegran was invited to visit Meadville, which he did on Saturday, May 15th. Prof. Hammett showed him about the college plant, and explained to him what facilities would be available for athletics and physical training. While here Mr. Applegran saw nearly all the professors of the college, and had interviews with all the members of the Executive Committee. Before leaving he expressed himself as well pleased with conditions. On the following Monday, May 17th, at a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees Mr. Applegran was elected Athletic Coach and Assistant in Physical Training, with the understanding that he should have charge of the field work during the football season, coach the basketball team, and assist Prof. Hammett thruout the year in physical training. All the work in both physical training and athletics will continue to be under the general supervision and direction of Prof. Hammett.

On behalf of the trustees it ought to be said that the securing of a man of this type has been made possible thru the largely increased appropriations for athletics and physical training made by the Board at their semi-annual meeting last January. The securing of so conspicuous an athletic leader as Mr. Applegran is only part of the large new program for athletics which will be put on in connection with the building of the new gymnasium and the increased appropriations.

Mr. Applegran, as above stated, is from the University of Illinois whose teams were champions of the Western Conference in 1914, 1915 and 1919.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

HOME RACQUET WIELDERS COP ALL MATCHES PLAYED

Last Thursday the tennis team defeated the Geneva College tennis team five matches to nothing. The afternoon was marred by frequent showers which sent the spectators scurrying for cover. The netmen, however, kept up their play in spite of the rain. As it was the last match of the day between Gordon, Allegheny, and Stevenson, Geneva, could not be played.

Cochran started the day nicely by defeating Reader, Geneva's No. 1 man by scores of 2-6, 6-4, and 6-0. Reader started like a flash and won the first set rather easily, but Cochran, after losing the first two games of the second set, staged a wonderful come-back and won the next twelve games, giving him the match. The last of this set was played in a drizzle making the ground very slippery. A fine brand of tennis was displayed in spite of the adverse conditions.

Flint defeated Martin in the second match of the day. Flint won the first set easily but Martin won the second. The third set was back on the right side of the page after a thrilling battle. Flint's low back and drive was particularly effective. The scores were 6-0, 4-6, 6-2.

In the next match Megehan and Gordon emerged victors over Stetson and Galbreath in three sets. Megehan and Gordon showed that they could still play as well as they used to and although the games were close, were never in much danger.

Flint and Cochran kept up their record of other years and won from Reader and Martin in straight sets, 6-4, 6-4. Their teamwork was especially pretty.

Bittner beat Galbreath in the last match of the day. The scores were 3-6, 6-4, 7-5.

The team appeared to be very well balanced and showed some clever playing. They have an especially busy week ahead of them. They go to Carnegie Tech Thursday, Geneva Friday, and Grove City on Saturday. Tech has the best team in years and already this year has victories over Pitt, West Virginia, and Penn State. A victory over them would mean the championship of the Tri-State district. Geneva can be depended upon to put up a hard fight on Friday, while Grove City is still in the running for sectional honors. The next home match is with Carnegie Tech some time during Commencement Week.

MARITANA

The Grand Opera "Maritana" by William Vincent Wallace, presented at the Community Playhouse in Erie on the evenings of May 17, 18, and 19 attracted large and appreciative audiences. The opera was given under the direction of Mr. Charles Le Sueur and four of the leading parts were taken by Allegheny people.

Maritana.....Miss Ella Allgood
Don Jose de Santarem.....
.....Mr. John A. M. Stewart
Lazarillo.....Miss Elizabeth Carew
King of Spain..Mr. William F. Miller

The scene of the story is in Madrid. Here Maritana, while singing to a crowd of people on the street attracts the attention of the King. Don Caeser, as a penalty for challenging a captain of the Guard, is sentenced to be shot after marrying a veiled lady, who happens to be Maritana. However, Don Caesar is not shot, thru a trick of Lazarillo's, but thru his bravery in killing the unscrupulous courtier Don Jose, the King pardons Don Caeser, restores him his bride whom Don Jose had carried off, and makes him Governor of Valentia.

ORGAN RECITAL

One of the most pleasing and enjoyable chapel services of the year was the one last Wednesday morning, when Dr. Church favored us with a few selections on the organ. He first rendered the "Finale from Act II of Madame Butterfly," by Priccini. This was the beautiful lullaby which Madame Butterfly sang to her child as she gazed out of the window on the vast ocean, waiting in vain for the return of her American husband. The second solo was "Scheszo from the 5th Sonata," by Alexander Guilmant.

PROF. CRANDALL

ROAD EXPERT LECTURES TO SURVEYING AND CHEMISTRY STUDENTS

Professor Crandall, Consulting Engineer for the General Tarvia Department of the Barrett Company of New York last Tuesday gave a series of exceedingly interesting lectures for any one interested in chemistry or engineering. Professor Crandall was brought here under the auspices of the chemistry and the surveying departments. We were unusually fortunate to obtain such an expert to lecture at Allegheny.

The first lecture was to have been given Monday evening, but owing to the fact that very few students were able to be there, the lecture was postponed until Tuesday afternoon at four-thirty when it was combined with another lecture. The first lecture was on the history of coal tar and its by-products. Professor Crandall pointed out how so much valuable material formerly was wasted as smoke, and then illustrated the way in which these coal tar products were utilized. He startled the audience by naming a few of the coal tar products which are being used everywhere. The coal tar products are now some of the most useful products we have, as we use them in practically every phase of life. Medicines, food preservers, flavoring extracts, disinfectants, the coal tar dyes, and saccharin, a substance twenty times more concentrated than sugar are a few of the coal tar products which have already been discovered.

In the second part of the lecture Professor Crandall conducted a coal tar distillation, and showed the various products which were distilled at the various temperatures. Along with these experiments he explained the organic chemistry involved in the distillation. This part of the lecture was exceedingly educational for any one, for Professor Crandall took great pains to not be too technical.

On Tuesday evening the lecture was devoted to the various tars used in road building. The Meadville Chapter of the American Association of Engineers attended in a body, while a goodly number of engineers from neighboring towns also attended.

Professor Crandall was a former instructor in engineering at Pennsylvania State College, and with this experience with students knew how to make the lectures the most valuable for them. He is at present on a tour visiting the various colleges where he devotes his lectures to the same subject. From Allegheny Professor Crandall went to W. and J.

EUROPEAN TOUR IN 1921

DR. H. W. CHURCH TO CONDUCT PARTY IN TOUR OF WESTERN EUROPE

Many Allegheny students will welcome with gladness the news that the 1921 European tour to be conducted by Dr. H. W. Church is not a false rumor. The trip which Dr. Church is planning will cover a period of 78 days and will include visits to points of interest in six European countries.

The party will sail from New York on June 18, 1921, and will go directly to Havre or Cherbourg, probably by the French line. The first stop will be at Paris. From Paris, the route goes south along the valley of the Rhone to Avignon, and then by the famous "route des Alpes" to Nice and Monte Carlo by motor.

From southern France, the trip to Genoa, Pisa, Rome, Naples, Amalfi, Capri and nearby points will be made.

The Swiss lake and mountain region, familiarly known as the "William Tell" region will be visited, and an opportunity will be given to see Mt. Blanc and the Jungfrau—two of the three great peaks of the Alps.

Famous battlefields where American, French, English, Belgian, Italian and other allied armies fought will be an important feature of the summer. Chateau Thierry, Belleau Wood, the Argonne forest, Rheims, Piav (Italy) and the fields of Flanders all have their place on the itinerary.

Arrangements have also been made to visit England. London, Oxford, Stratford, Chester and Liverpool will be the chief points visited in the United Kingdom.

From Liverpool, the tourists will sail for home on the 26th of August, and will arrive about the 3rd or 4th of September.

The trip as planned by Dr. Church is unique in many ways, in that it covers an exceptionally large territorry, and will be conducted by a man who is acquainted with the territories, languages and customs of the countries which will be visited. The number of people in the party will of necessity be limited for it will be impossible to cover the ground with a large group of people in the time alloted.

EXCHANGES

A tradition of the University of Pennsylvania is the Annual Straw Hat Day. This is held every spring and on this day, all students are expected to appear on the campus with straw hats.

Spring athletics at Baldwin-Wallace are taking the form of a series of twilight baseball games between the teams of the various men's societies.

H. LESTER SMITH APPOINTED BISHOP

At the recent General Conference of the Methodist Church in Des Moines, Rev. Dr. H. Lester Smith, '04, was elected bishop. Dr. Smith is the second Allegheny man to be elected at this conference. The other was Dr. Charles E. Locke, '80, of Los Angeles. Dr. Smith at the age of 44 years is one of the youngest men ever elected to the episcopate.

Dr. Smith followed his graduation here 16 years ago by a course at Drew Theological Seminary and then went to his first pastorate in Bellevue, Pa. From there he went to Delaware Avenue, Buffalo, and then to Central Methodist Church, Detroit, where he is now in the midst of a brilliant pastorate.

His career as a minister is preceded by a no less shining career in college. Among other activities he was on the varsity football team and basketball manager. He belonged to Classical Club and Quill Club. During his Senior year he was president of the class and also of the Oratorical Association. All thru college Dr. Smith distinguished himself in oratory, winning several prizes and representing the college in various victorious debates. In the Greek world he was Delta Tau Delta and Phi Beta Kappa. Allegheny is proud of his record both in college and in the world outside.

Walter Camp, the noted football expert, has made the statement that the backing which a school gives a team is responsible for fifty per cent. of the success of the football eleven.

DRAMATIC SUCCESS

KLEE-O-KLEET SUCCESSFULLY PRESENTS MONSIEUR BEAUCAIRE

On Friday evening, May 21, a full house witnessed a most successful presentation of Booth Tarkington's Monsieur Beaucaire by Klee-O-Kleet, the girls' dramatic club. The enthusiastic applause at each scene spoke for itself. The audience now rocked with mirth at blundering Mr. Banteson and abrupt Captain Badger, now smiled in sheer enjoyment of the dainty minuet and now held its breath as six masked men jumped upon Beaucaire. As Dr. Crawford said the next morning in chapel, when requesting the Freshmen to help clean up, "surely after last night no one could refuse any request of Klee-O-Kleets'."

The play was one peculiarly suited to feminine charm. The scene was in Bath, England, during the reign of Louis XV, King of France. Costumes of flowered silks, brocaded satins, and velvets embroidered in gold, the curled wigs, the graceful fans and all the pretty fads of the sixteenth century were really fascinating.

In resume the action begins with Beaucaire discovering Winterset cheating at cards. Beaucaire, with a threat to reveal his dishonesty as a persuasion, forces Winterset to introduce him at Lady Malbourne's ball, where he hopes to meet Lady Carlysle with whom he is greatly enamored. At the ball Monsieur Beaucaire, as le Duc de Chateaurien makes a hit with Lady Mary. But Captain Badger and Winterset suspect him of being a pretender and finally succeed in turning Lady Mary against him. On the arrival of Henri de Beaujolais, Beaucaire's brother, it is revealed that Beaucaire a favorite cousin of Louis XV ran away to England disguised as the embassador's barber, to escape marriage with a girl he did not love.

Of the all star cast special note must be given to Miss Mildred Ellis who as Beaucaire himself made a perfect French gentleman and lover. The role of Lady Mary Carlysle, as played by Miss Gladys Raymond could not be improved upon. Miss Helen Shafer as Duke of Winterset

DR. SNAVELY AND MR. WARD COLLABORATE

The Spanish text, "Jose" by Valdes, published by Allyn and Bacon, is a book prepared for class use by Robert Calvin Ward, A. M., Assistant Professor of Romance Languages in collaboration with Dr. Guy E. Snavely for several years professor of Romance Languages at Allegheny College, now Dean and Professor of Spanish at Converse College.

"Jose" is a tale of fisherman life in the little town of Rodillero in Northwestern Spain.

The book is suitable for second year Spanish, containing introduction, notes, Spanish questions, English exercises and vocabulary.

An interesting feature of the book is the letter sent by Senor Valdes from Spain giving the authors permission to publish the book. The translation of the letter is "You are authorized to publish my novel Jose as a text for American schools.

Sincerely yours,
A. Polacio Valdes."

WOMEN SENATORS INSTALLED

The members of the Student Government Association, both town and hall, were installed Friday morning during the regular chapel service in Alden Hall. Miss Spalding explained that heretofore this installation had been private, but she considered it of such importance to all that it is now being made public before the young women of the college. She told just what the Student Government Board had meant to her and those living in the hall. Her welcome was extended to the new members and her congratulations on their success to the outgoing officers.

The installation service then was taken charge of by Miss Susan Jenkins, '20, who told the purpose of each office and its importance. The Women's Student Senate means much to the young women of Allegheny and has been successfully handled.

CAMPAIGN BOOSTED

MONEY FOR GYMNASIUM NOW IN SIGHT

The gymnasium campaign was reopened last week when two members of the building committee—Wesley B. Best and Frank P. Miller—addressed the student body and stated the position of the committee.

Mr. Best stated that about a year ago the students of the college promised Arthur W. Thompson, president of the Board of Trustees, that they would be responsible for $10,000 if the board should decide to raise the remainder necessary for the erection of a new gymnasium. As a result of this action the trustees decided that the students really needed and desired a new gymnasium and went ahead with the plans. A building committee was appointed and the contract let.

During the summer a group of students assured the building committee that the funds would be on hand at the necessary time. Pledges were made by the student body in the fall to the effect that it would be responsible for a certain sum of money—in fact the $10,000 was taken care of in this manner.

But the students did not seem to take their pledges seriously. With the arrival of the first of March, the date upon which these subscriptions became due, it was found that not over a fifth of the total amount had been raised.

The building committee as a result of this failure finds itself in a difficult position. Hence its request that the students make good their pledge of a year ago.

Mr. Miller then took up a discussion of the right and the wrong of the proposition that the students help in building a gymnasium of which they would receive the benefit and be satisfied nearly everyone that it was right that they should do so. The student body was of one accord that the students should also aid—to the extent of ten dollars at least—in the erection of the gymnasium. New pledges were made for a payment on or before August 15, 1920.

President Crawford carried the campaign one step further when he asked that each fraternity raise $1000, that the Allegheny Club and unorganized non-fraternity men raise $2000 and that each women's fraternity raise $400. Some of these organizations have already met this request and the others are working towards that goal.

Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE AT EAGLESMERE

This summer, from June 18 to 28 the East Central Student Conference of the Y. W. C. A. is to be held at Eaglesmere, Pa. Eaglesmere is located in the Allegheny mountains near Williamsport, Pa. Here representatives of the Y. W. from many of the schools in the east central part of the United States, will meet. It is desired that Allegheny shall be well represented at this conference.

The conference offers the student ten days of recreation, combined with council and study. The recreation is secured in the various athletic sports such as swimming, rowing, hiking, tennis and basketball. The girls from the various colleges organize into teams and many exciting battles are waged between the different colleges.

The student is afforded council and study by means of the addresses by many prominent people. The Rev. James Gordon Gilkey, the executive of the conference will give a series of addresses. Among the other speakers will be, Rev. Paul D. Moody, of New York; Rev. J. Milton Vance, of Wooster College, and Dr. Conrad H. Moehlman, of the Rochester Theological Seminary. Also, the classes in Bible Study and World Fellowship will be a great help to the student.

Allegheny wants at least ten girls to go to Eaglesmere, for thru a large representation, the local Y. W. will be able to derive the most benefit from the conference. The expenses are moderate. The Y. W. maintains a conference fund from which the girls who desire, may borrow money to attend the conference.

EDITORIAL

Among a certain faction of students it seems to be quite the thing to lament conditions at Allegheny, and to declare a firm intention not to return to this college, regardless of what inducements it may offer.

To these few, the Campus has a word of advice to give.

If the courses you want can not be provided at Allegheny, your leaving may be justified. If the courses can be given at Allegheny, and outside factors do not enter into the case, your stand may be termed as narrow and one-sided.

While you are in Allegheny you are a part of the college. Manhood and honor should make you see that when you knock the college, you throw a brick at yourself, and at conditions which you have helped to create, and for which you yourself are directly or indirectly responsible.

If you have done anything to contribute to the welfare of the college, you can appreciate Allegheny. If you have not, your appreciation is apt to be less genuine.

You are asking for a square deal from the college. Show that you are sincere, and give the college a square deal.

"What is the end of fame? 'Tis but to fill a certain portion of uncertain paper!" With these few words from Don Juan, the Campus staff turns over the works—lock, stock, and barrel, including waste-basket, rented typewriter and good will, to the new editor and his corps of assistants.

At last, the valiant warrior's dead. Heap cabbage blossoms on its head and hark! Our sad typewriter sings its little dirge of earthly things—in stenographic syncopation, a veritable self-ovation. Intrepid, blithe and debonnaire! Solid as ivory, light as air! Let all who weep remember this and lift their eyes in thankful bliss—the thing that used to make us sore, the staff don't do it any more! Precisely such reforms as these make death a thing of joy and ease!

And so it ends! Bring on the hearse! Our joy is done; it might be worse. Our race is run, our space is filled, our singing Underwood is stilled. Farewell! Farewell to pomp and pride! Lock up the forms and let'er ride!

The Campus Staff meets every Thursday at one o'clock in the Campus office in Bentley Hall. Competitors (business staff excepted) meet every Friday at one o'clock in the office in Bentley Hall.

CHICAGO ALUMNI REUNION

Twenty alumni, ex - students and friends of Allegheny College met for the annual dinner of the Chicago Association at Hotel LaSalle on Friday evening, May 14. A fine spirit and interest in Alma Mater was manifest thruout the evening. Dr. W. A. Elliott was over from the General Conference at Des Moines, Iowa, to represent the college. He spoke in his usual felicitous manner regarding the ideals of the college and alumni interest in the old school. Dr. F. S. Breed, '98, assistant professor of education at the University of Chicago, and Julius Reynolds Kline, prominent attorney, were also speakers. Clyde P. Warner, '92, president of the association, was toastmaster. The Rev. Dr. E. A. Bell, '88, head of the Midnight Mission in Chicago, and Dr. George A. Mulfinger, formerly professor of German at Allegheny College, delivered extemporaneous toasts.

Resolutions were adopted by the association unanimously endorsing the great work of President Crawford while at Allegheny and wishing him a prosperous and happy period of rest, now that he is retiring after so many years of fruitful service. These resolutions were sent in the form of a telegram to Easton, Penn'a, where Dr. Crawford was a guest of honor of the college presidents of Pennsylvania. A letter of condolence was also sent to Mrs. Cobern and family. Dr. Cobern was most favorably known among the alumni in Chicago, where at one time he held a prominent pastorate and was closely identified with the work of social reform.

Those present were Dr. and Mrs. Bell, '88 and '90; B. I. Weller, '99; Dr. and Mrs. F. S. Breed, '98; H. M. Weeter, '13; C. S. Jewell, '91; J. R. Kline, '89; C. P. Warner, '92; Dr. and Mrs. G. A. Mulfinger; Miss Myrta Mercill, '02; Miss Gertrude Mueller, '14; Miss Charlotte Dutton, sister of the late Prof. W. T. Dutton; C. L. Mulfinger, '15; George Hartung, '19; Jack Williams, ex-'21. Regrets were received from many who were unable to attend.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: C. P. Warner, '92, president; J. R. Kline, '89, vice-president; C. L. Mulfinger, '15, secretary; C. S. Jewell, '91, treasurer.

LIBRARY

The shelves of the library have greatly increased in value during the past few weeks owing to the addition of a nine volume set of Rudyard Kipling; a thirty volume set of Charles Dickens with illustrations and a four volume set of Little Nature Library, (Weed, Butterflies; Rogers, Trees; Blanchan, Birds; Blanchan, Wild Flowers.)

It is not without significance that the denunciations of the prophets Amos and Hosea, became especially stern when they turned to the womanhood of their nation. For they realized, as all keen students of humanity, that

1. THE WOMANHOOD OF A NATION SETS ITS MORAL AND RELIGIOUS STANDARD.

This sounds like an Adamic shifting of responsibility. But it is merely a statement of fact. I am convinced that the above is so from observation of thousands of men on their way to and from France, when they had been deprived of association with American womanhood for any considerable portion of time. American manhood sags, and it is a serious condition. But when American womanhood loses its high character, its purity, and its splendid fineness, there is little hope for the future. And it is significant to note that

2. NO TRULY GREAT MAN EVER HAD AN UNWORTHY MOTHER.

His father may not have passed an examination in character and morals with more than a D-minus, but history will tell you that his mother had always the elements of true greatness and true womanhood. Augustine, Luther, Wesley, Lincoln—the lesson of their parentage is conclusive.

3. Some one has said, "A MAN WILL TRY TO DRAG A WOMAN FROM HER PEDESTAL, AND IF IT FAILS, HE WILL FALL DOWN AND WORSHIP HER."

I dare not slander my sex by affirming this to be true. But, on the other hand, I dare not say that it is wholly false. And there is no doubt that the young woman who lowers the high standards and releases the fine ideals of her mother for the sake of popularity gains a certain measure of popularity—and nothing more!

SUNDAY SERMON

The Reverend Virgil E. Rover, D. D., of the Arch Street Church, Philadelphia, delivered the Sunday morning address in the chapel on May 23. He developed his sermon from the third chapter of the Epistle of St. James, and took as a text the second verse of the 15th chapter of St. Luke, "And he was angry and would not go in; therefore came his father out and entreated him."

In opening his address Dr. Rover said there were two kinds of sin—sin of the body and sin of the spirit. From the New Testament we find sin of the body in the picture of the prodigal son, and we likewise find sin of the spirit in the picture of the other brother.

We must overcome all sin; for even though we overcome sins of the world, and sins of the flesh, the sins of the devil are still to be overcome, and we must guard against them. Probably the most dangerous sins of all are the so-called and so-considered "respectable sins."

The rest of his discourse dealt with and against the evils of respectable sins—hot temper, evil speaking, jealousy and discontent.

Hot temper or anger plays a most important part in the lives of many persons. "What pain is in the body, anger is in the soul." There are hot tempers growing ferocious at mere trifles; sensitive tempers with hurt feelings, and sullen temper always seeking revenge.

The sin of evil speaking is an unruly one, for it takes both God and man working together to control the tongue. The power to speak is wonderful, and man does not always realize this marvelous gift. One-third of our time is spent in talking, and in a single week each of us speak enough words to fill three or four volumes. There is a law against carrying dangerous weapons, but in truth we carry far more dangerous weapons—the tongue.

Jealousy—whoever confesses it or repents of it? There are the professional people who are jealous of people in their own class; there are misfortunate failures of other people's lot and happiness; and lastly there are jealous women. Philosophers say "Man is devoted to a mission and woman is devoted to a person."

The last sin is that of discontent, and such sinners have a foolish and narrow creed of life. This and the three other respectable sins go on cursing the world unchecked, and doing untold harm. It is up to us to check them.

The musical numbers at the service were "Thou Lamb of God," choir anthem. "The Penitent," by Miss Elda Krueger, and "Procession du Saint Sacrament," organ prelude; Marche Anglaise," organ postlude, and the accompaniment by Doctor Church.

The Western Conference, otherwise known as the Big Ten, comprises the strongest teams of the middle west, the universities of Minnesota, Chicago, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Purdue, Ohio State, Northwestern, Iowa and Indiana. Illinois, under Coach Zuppke, has won the championship three times and been runner-up twice in the past seven years. Mr. Applegran played on the team the three years in which it won these championships, one year as guard, another as tackle, and another as end. He is six feet two inches in height, weighs one hundred ninety pounds, and was Eckersall's choice for All-Conference, All-Western and Second All-American. Eckersall is the former University of Chicago All-American quarterback, for the last ten years or more Sporting Writer and Football Critic of the middle west, a man whose word in respect to football carries more weight than any other man in that section. Mr. Applegran is also included in the "Honor Roll of Football Men" selected by prominent coaches for the Outlook Magazine. He went into the army at the outbreak of the war and coached his regimental team in the fall of 1917. In the fall of 1918 he played with and coached his division team on the Texas border. Neither of these teams lost a game, the latter defeating, among others, the University of Texas, Rice Institute and other college teams.

With the coaching staff that we have for next fall Allegheny will be equipped to turn out one of the best teams in her history. Prof. Hammett will be Advisory Coach, Mr. Applegran, Field Coach, and John Harbaugh, captain of last fall's eleven and star center on our famous 1915 team, will handle the second team. The schedule is the best we have had in years. For the first time in our history we play Colgate, making the trip to Hamilton on October 9th. And also for the first time in our history Allegheny brings a team from the east to play on our field, Dickinson College, which held Bucknell 0 to 0 in the final game last season. There will be four home games, coming two weeks apart. The other big game away will be with Tech who expects to have the strongest team in years. Twenty-two of the most promising players will be called out early in September for the preliminary two weeks training camp.

MEET TECH HERE SATURDAY

This coming Saturday afternoon the student body will have their first chance of the year to see the track team in action. Carnegie Tech will be the opponents of the Gold and Blue on this date. Since the Geneva meet the members of the team have been practicing faithfully. The good weather has been a big factor in the conditioning of the men especially the older men. Much improvement has been shown in the work of all.

Last week trials were held for places on the team and in all cases the time made in each event was better than at any time during the year. One or two new men came out for the team and made good at their tryouts and will be seen in action Saturday afternoon.

Carnegie Tech will be a hard test for the team as they have not lost a meet to date. They have won over University of W. Va. and also defeated Geneva College. The Plaid team is well balanced as is Allegheny's and the outlook is for close competition in all events.

THE BLOCK "A" CLUB

The Block "A" Club has been reorganized and promises to become one of the most influential and popular clubs on the campus. On Thursday evening, May 6th, the club met and a committee was appointed to revise the Constitution submitted the night of the "A" Club banquet last month. The revised constitution and a set of by-laws will be submitted at the next meeting for adoption.

According to present plans all men in school who have made their letters in any one of the three major sports, namely, football, basketball and track including the managers of those sports shall be elegible to membership in the club. An insignia of some kind will be adopted, likely a block "A" pin.

The club will meet regularly once a month and the influence that it exerts upon the athletic life of Allegheny should be a big aid to athletic affairs at Allegheny. It has been four of five years since the club ceased to exist and its revival is being received with much enthusiasm and predictions for the betterment of athletics. The regular meetings will likely take the form of a business session followed by a smoker and entertainment with possibly two or three boxing and wrestling matches. The new trophy room will be the headquarters of the club and will provide the most attractive surroundings. Once a semester a social event will likely be held involving those who neither wear the mole skins nor traverse the cinder track with their dainty feet. God bless 'em.

It is planned that the club use its influence in getting good prep school athletes to enter Allegheny and also in urging men already in school who are qualified to participate in athletics to try out. In the past there have always been men in school who would not try out for the teams or whose athletic ability was not discovered until late in their school course.

It is proposed that the club take the responsibility of seeing that the members of visiting teams are properly entertained while in Meadville. It has been pointed out that a college rates other institutions in terms of the treatment they give visiting teams. An instance in point is the entertainment provided by Grove City for the football team last fall. While not a lavish affair by any means the members of the team that attended found that the girls and fellows at Grove City were really mighty fine people to meet and not half so bad as we had imagined them to be. In the future Allegheny should do her part to let the men from other institutions know that we are thoroughly alive and anything but narrow and self centered. We ought to at least give them the opportunity of finding out that Allegheny is at least almost what we think she is. There is a proposal that the Student Senate include in the Freshman rules one that requires the Freshmen to meet incoming teams and carry their baggage to their lodgings. A glad hand when entering a town means a great deal and the name of Allegheny would come to mean "the real college with the real spirit" upon the lips of the men in all surrounding colleges. A smoker and entertainment or a dance in the evening after an athletic contest in honor of the visiting team would point out to both teams the truth of, "the other fellow wasn't half as bad as I thought when he shoved my face in the mud in the game."

WORD OF APPRECIATION

The following tribute from one of the alumni has been received and is printed in part as an expression of the universal regard in which Dr. Cobern is held by his students.

"I do not doubt that my experience was that of all who met him. As I think of him it is invariably with the same warming of the heart. He was like a ray of light sweet, cheering, beneficient. He met one as a personal friend not because one had any claims by friendship upon him but because his generous heart, in which the love for humanity was unusually strong, immediately spoke to him and called you his friend.

The world has lost a great scholar, a great champion of Christian liberty, a general in rebuilding the city of Zion, but we who have known him think of him not so much thus but rather claim him as a transcendant friend whose influence is only good."

—Rachel Cousins Ogden.

FINAL EXAM SCHEDULE

The following is the revised examination schedule for the second term. Changes have been made which should be noted. The official copy of the schedule with all changes noted will be posted on May 27. No changes either in place or time of examination will be made thereafter.

There are unavoidably a few conflicts. In such cases apply at Registrar's office for time of examination.

Examinations in one-hour subjects will be limited to one and one-half hours, in two-hour subjects to two hours, in three-hour subjects to two and a half hours, and in four-hour subjects to three hours.

When a student has been absent from class for any cause one-seventh the total number of recitations, or more, a supplementary examination must be taken in the subject. Members of the athletic clubs and the Glee Club are allowed four absences above such fraction each term to fill club engagements.

All supplementary examinations wil be given in connection with the regular examinations.

Examinations in subjects not scheduled will be arranged by the instructors.

Seniors must have completed all examinations before Tuesday evening, June 8. Seniors who are to be examined in subjects scheduled after that date will be examined specially at times to be fixed by the instructors.

ON THE CAMPUS

John R. Giblyn, of New York City, spent the week-end at the Alpha Chi Rho House. Mr. Giblyn will be remembered as the man who, fifteen years ago, founded Theta Delta Psi, a local fraternity which later became Phi Iota Chapter of Alpha Chi Rho.

Miss Louise Root, '18, who is in Y. W. work at Wilmerding, Pa., was a guest at the Hall Sunday.

Mrs. C. M. Hulin, of Franklin, spent a few days last week with her daughter, Miss Louise Hulin, '22.

Mrs. A. B. Kennedy, of Oil City, spent the week-end with Miss Inez Kennedy, '22.

Miss Richards, field secretary of the Y. W. C. A., was a guest of the local Y. W. last week.

Mrs. W. P. Kirk, of Monessen, Pa., is visiting for a few days with her daughter, Miss Ruth Kirk.

Ford Miller's dress suit attended a number of parties during the past fortnight.

L. C. Strong, '17, is at home in Meadville, and will remain until after Commencement. Strong is at present working for his doctor's degree in zoology at Columbia University. He is one of the first alumni to arrive for the Commencement season.

Elections for the president and delegate-at-large of the Athletic Association resulted in the election of S. E. Plumb to the presidency, and the choice of W. D. Melcher to the position of delegate-at-large.

Dr. S. S. Swartly read a paper on "Americanization" at the meeting of the Round Table last night.

Limber, '22, broke into publicity in the last copy of Judge with a seven stanza poem which appeared in the Literary Monthly under the title, "A Freshman's Lament." Best of all at this low fiscal ebb of the semester the poem was paid for, although the amount of the remuneration is not disclosed. Limber recommends the advertising of Judge in the Campus to swell the circulation and thereby enable the publishers to pay more money to their contributers.

Social News

About thirty of the men of Phi Iota Chapter of Alpha Chi Rho entertained their friends at the annual spring party at Saegertown Inn on Saturday evening, May 22. Dancing and other pastimes were indulged in both before and after the dinner was served. The party was chaperoned by Professor and Mrs. Clark.

L'Alliance Francaise met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Adrian W. McCoy, on the Diamond, for the most interesting and delightful afternoon of the year. Mr. Ward gave the story of the opera "Manon," accompanied by appropriate victrola selections; Mlle. Couard read a paper on the subject, "A Few of My Impressions of America," and Mme. Maria Conde sang a generous number of selections in both French and English. Aside from the regular members of L'Alliance, several advanced French students were present. Mrs. McCoy is to be complimented on the success of the afternoon.

Monsieur Beaucaire is the seventh play the club has given and if our judgment counts, Klee-O-Kleet is going one better every year.
