Open Air Devotions

Union Meeting Held on Rustic Bridge.
Dr. Crawford Leads.

According to the custom adopted in recent years, the last Union Meeting of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. was held on the campus on Wednesday evening. A goodly number from each of the organizations gathered on the Rustic Bridge and there they took part in what proved to be one of the most interesting meetings of the year. President Crawford, the leader, spoke for a short while upon the work which has been accomplished during the past year. He said in part:

"At this time it has seemed especially fitting to me that we should meet here under the open sky, amidst the singing of the birds and in communication with God's works and here let our minds turn back to the things which have directed the thoughts of the year. Let us consider for awhile the words and the deeds that have influenced us as a school, as an organization and as individuals. For, as it seems to me, there may be many here whose lives have been greatly affected by something that they have heard during this year just passed and the recalling of some of these things may lead to turn some to a new life, to a train of thought which will lead to nobler things. I have thought it fitting, therefore, that we should listen to a short resume of the work of the two societies from the lips of the retiring presidents."

C. E. Hilborn then told briefly what he and the cabinet had aimed to do during the past year and how they think that they have accomplished those things. He said that in many things they were weaker and in some stronger than other years, but weaker in all than they should have been. The main work of the association was the meetings with Rev. Robert E. Brown and Rev. H. L. Smith. The effects of these meetings though not so evident upon the surface has yet been great upon the "undercurrent of Christian life in the school." It has meant the strengthening of the Christian attitude and the enriching of the lives of the Christian men of the college. As for the work of the Mission Study Class, he said that he felt that it had not been what it should have been. In consequence, he thought that the group system should be instituted in the coming year. Another thing which he wished to see started is organized Bible Study. As for the other work both neighborhood work and religious meetings have been very good.

Miss Gertrude Hillman then made her report and she placed special stress upon the work which had been done in Mission Study and in Bible Study. Both of these departments have been strong in their association. Another strong point and one newly begun was the work of the Social Service Committee which has furnished workers for various purposes throughout the year. In closing she said that the purpose of the Association during the past year had been to bring the girls into closer contact with Christ and she hoped that the interest shown this year would continue during the coming year.

After these reports, Mr. Chas. Bishop, the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in Canada, spoke in the interest of the Summer Conferences. He urged that as many men as possibly could do so would go to one of these conferences. In speaking of the benefits to be derived from one of the conferences, Mr. Bishop said: "The Summer Conference is a most important factor in helping young men to demonstrate what a college man should be. There a stimulation is received which often affects the choice of a purpose in life and the course of a man's thought. The fruits of such a conference are inestimable in time and in money. Men gain there life visions and this alone is the one argument for young men to go there even in the face of great odds. And it is for this reason that I wish to see as many men as possibly can do so attend one of these conferences from Allegheny."

The Association is planning to send at least eight men to the conferences this year and as the matter now stands it is very probable that four will go to Northfield and four to Linwood.

Japs Here Tuesday

University of Keio will Play Memorial Day at Athletic Park.

Without doubt the baseball game of this season's schedule in which the greatest interest will center is the game which will be played at Athletic Park on Tuesday forenoon with the team representing Keio University of Japan. This team, which holds the undisputed championship of Japan, is now making a tour of the United States under the management of D. C. Knight of the University of Wisconsin, who was a member of the team from that school which two years ago made a tour around the world. While in Japan, the Wisconsin team defeated every school played except Keio, to which four straight games were lost. The University of Chicago team which made a similar trip last year lost three out of four games to Keio.

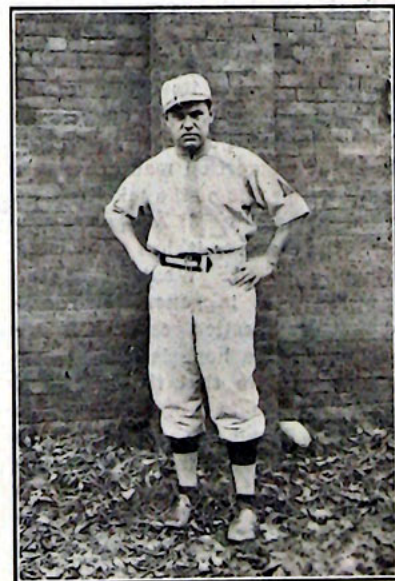

The team left Japan on April 12 and arrived at Seattle, Wash., on April 28. Since then they have played practically all the big university and independent teams in the western and central states, and with but a very few exceptions have been the winners. On last Saturday the University of Cincinnati was defeated 6-1. The teams which have been met the past week are Ohio Wesleyan, the University of West Virginia, McKeesport and Georgetown University. Today the University of Buffalo will be played. On Monday the team will play Syracuse University and from there will come to Meadville. The other teams which will be played before the American tour ends will be the University of Michigan, Elkhart, Notre Dame, the University of Wisconsin, Ripon College, and the University of North Dakota.

Following the last game on June 14, the team will sail for the Hawaiian Islands, where a ten game series will be played. This is the first year such a tour has ever been made by a Japanese team and it will be the last for several years as a majority of the men will leave school this year by graduation and then they must serve two years in the army. The tour will cover about 18,000 miles.

The team is accompanied by Jiro Murao, professor of physics in the university. They are being coached by Schaffer and Thompson, formerly of the New York National League team.

Baseball, although introduced into Japan about twenty-five years ago, was not taken up by Keio until fifteen years later. Since that time, however, the interest in it there has grown very rapidly. Teams in the Philippine Islands, China and the Hawaiian Islands have been played.

The players are all small men, averaging about 5 feet 4 inches in height, the tallest being 5 feet 6 inches. They are reported to be exceptionally fast fielders and base runners. They are also adepts at the hook slide used by many famous league players. The coaching is all done in English, as these were the terms learned when the game was introduced into the school. Professor Murao is said to speak better English than a majority of Americans.

The line up of the little men is as

An Exciting Meet

Allegheny Wins from University of Rochester Saturday 69-57.

In the first track meet of the season, the Allegheny track team defeated the sprinters from the University of Rochester, last Saturday, by the score of 69-57. Although several of the best dash men were barred from the meet on account of marks, the locals were able to down the visitors in the other events and thus carried off seven firsts out of the fourteen events.

For the visitors, Chamberlain was the star point gainer. In the hundred and the two-hundred yard dashes, he distinguished himself by making almost record time. Scott and Rugg showed up well in the long distances.

In the Allegheny team, Stidger and C. Dotterer led in number of points gained, each scoring two firsts. Osthaus, in the pole vault, changed the record of nine feet six inches to nine feet nine, and Stidger lowered his own time in the high hurdles from eighteen seconds to seventeen and four-fifths. Winn in the two mile came in close behind Scott, whose time was 10:59. Winn was only several feet behind and probably made the run in about 11:04, which is nearly twenty seconds lower than the present college record. Van Horn, in the mile run, also ran a fast race. Stidger smashed his second record in the 220 hurdles making the mark 27 seconds.

Following is the summary:

100—Yard Dash—Chamberlain, R., Perley, A., Beideman, R. Time, 10 1-5.
120 Yard Hurdles—Stidger, A., Beideman, R., Hawk, A. Time, 17 4-5.
1 Mile Run—Van Horn, A., Smith, R., Rugg, R. Time, 4:59 1-5.
2 Mile Run—Scott, R., Winn, A., Hall, A. Time, 10:59.
440 Yard Dash—Hilborn, A., Kuhnert, R., Beideman, R. Time, 56.

Successful Year

Notable Speakers Have Addressed Students on Many Topics.

The position of Allegheny among schools of her size in athletics, oratory and debate, scholastic standing and in religious matters is generally conceded to be very near the top and alumni and students know more or less of the standing in these departments. However, there are very few who realize what an opportunity to hear prominent men speak is given to the students at Allegheny during the course of a year's work. Undoubtedly, a very important part of the good received from a year in college comes from the messages delivered by men prominent in their work and, more especially, from the personal contact with these men which is thus given.

The past year has been one of the best in this line that has been enjoyed by the college body for several years. Men have spoken here who have been masters of oratory, and their messages have been invariably of the greatest interest to college men and women. Especially has this been true of the short chapel talks which have been so numerous this year. Scarcely a week has passed without some bit of advice or information being delivered in a clever and forceful manner. Besides this several opportunities have been given to hear masterful addresses which have been open to all. It may be of interest to mention a few of the men who have spoken during the past year.

Early in October Professor Samuel J. MacWatters of the Chair of Sacred Oratory and Music at Boston University delivered the first address of the year when he spoke in the chapel upon the "Life of St. Paul." It was a most eloquent and impressive address which left a very deep impression upon the minds of all. In the same month came Rev. Robert E. Brown and Rev. H. L. Smith as leaders of the men's evangelistic meetings.

After these, a number of excellent chapel talks were delivered, most notable of which were: that of Bishop M. C. Harris on "Korea," that of Dr. E. A. Smith on "Alma Mater," and that of Rev. D. G. Latshaw, representing the International Railroad Y. M. C. A. A lecture of unusual interest was given by Professor H. A. Trexler.

In the following month, came the address by Riley R. Ross of New York on the "Great Emancipator" and a little later three lectures by Dr. Charles M. Stuart, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate. His subjects were "The American Newspaper," "The College and the Newspaper" and "The Gentlest Art." These were unique and were the subject of much favorable comment outside of the school. The next address was that of Dr. F. C. Lockwood upon "Undergraduate Life at Oxford." Nothing more instructive or satisfying to the

Assembly Meeting

Weekly Rally Devoted to Athletics. Much Enthusiasm Shown.

"Athletics" was the subject under discussion at the weekly assembly morning exercises held yesterday morning. Coach Stewart had charge and after speaking of the interest necessary for the maintenance of athletics at Allegheny called on several men to speak about the various phases of the present athletic situation. H. T. Lavelly, '12, the president of the athletic association, was the first speaker. He told of the present deficiency and although he did not ask directly for money he urged every student to assist, at least in spirit in the relieving of the debt.

Professor Dutton was then called on to speak in behalf of athletics as regarding the faculty. He humorously pointed to himself as a living example of what it was not to take an interest in the college athletics. Captain Abbott, in a short talk, asked for better support of the base ball team. He showed how discouraging it was for the team to have to look into an empty grandstand. Captain Hilborn made an appeal that track athletics should not be forgotten especially since the big W. I. P. A. L. meet is so close at hand. An effort is being made to have a special train to Grove City and if this is done at least one hundred students will have to give their promise to be present. J. W. Barkley, the last speaker, asked the student body for suggestions in the revision of the constitution of the Athletic Association. The present deficiency makes some immediate solution almost imperative, and the revision committee is having an extraordinarily large job in remedying the conditions.

CAUSE FOR CONGRATULATION.

The amicable settlement of the differences between the faculty and the students of the Senior class furnishes just ground for congratulation. The way in which the Seniors went about their efforts for an adjustment is illustrative of the good sense of the members of the class and speaks well for the general atmosphere of the college. It is worth while to contrast the local situation with that which similar occurrences have precipitated at other schools. Both sides refrained from indiscreet conduct and as a result Allegheny was spared much unnecessary humiliation and no little notoriety. A very patent lesson is that of the folly of hasty action and of jumping at unwarranted conclusions whether faculty or students are concerned.

FINDING A WAY.

The facts brought out yesterday morning at assembly, although somewhat overshadowed by the other matters presented, nevertheless made a profound impression on the minds of many of the students. The specter of an athletic debt seems, like the poor, to be destined to be always with us unless some decided action is taken. The trend of opinion seems to indicate that the part which the short-sightedness which has often characterized the athletic board in the not far distant past is disappearing. However, as much as every one is glad to hear that less sentiment and more business is coming to be the rule, it must be realized that new reforms, in order to have a fair trial, ought to start with a clean balance sheet.

Solutions of the difficulty are not easy but a few seem to commend themselves to those in the best position to judge. In view of the fact that the athletic board showed its good will and lack of narrowness by giving to the Y. M. C. A. presidents complimentary admission to the Tech game it seems no more than fair that the local association surrender any claim to the proceeds of the Minstrel Show. The Y. M. C. A. is undoubtedly a worthy cause but its continued existence is not dependent on immediate funds and out of no spirit of hostility is the suggestion made that this year all the profits of the minstrels be devoted to the cause of Allegheny athletics. Once more, it has been very pertinently asked, "What about the Glee Club?" It is generally recognized that the question rests with Manager Bortz. The hope is very generally expressed in that the efforts of Allegheny students will not be made wholly to redound to the profit of one man but that they will in part help to advance the interests of our Alma Mater. At the close of the most successful season of recent years, such a little mite could be given to athletics. The difficulties which loom so threateningly now demand more than anything else some real college spirit and some genuine loyalty.

AN EXCELLENT SUGGESTION.

There was received by the editor this week a letter from one of the younger alumni of the college suggesting that an Allegheny whistle should be adopted by the student body. He mentioned the fact that often on the streets of the city in which he is now located he has wished to attract the attention of some passing alumnus and has been unable to do so. Other advantages equally important were mentioned and still others could be supplied by any who would take the time to consider the matter. Even if it is too late to have the whistle incorporated in the Song Book still it could be worked up and made one of the features of the Minstrel Show and could afterwards be written or pasted in the book. The suggestion could be advantageously brought up and discussed in some assembly in the near future.

SENIOR-SOPH BANQUET.

Allegheny traditions were again upheld on Thursday night when the Seniors and Sophomores met at a downtown hotel for their annual banquet. Word was passed around among the two allied classes for all members to be at the hotel at a certain time and when the feed was ready to be served about fifty men were present. The dinner, which consisted of eight courses, was of the finest and was served according to the latest New York fashion. After the dinner an impromptu toast list was heard as follows:

Toastmaster—E. P. Kennedy, '11
The Yellow Boys .... W. L. Kulp, '11
The Nursery ..... H. J. Wieler, '13
The Missing Link .... C. S. Miller, '13
It's Not Their Fault. .... L. C. Harris, '11

No sign of either a Freshman or Junior was to be seen anywhere and although an attempt was made to round up enough to make at least a semblance of a class fight they kept very well hidden until after the party was dispersed. At Cochran Hall, a few Freshmen attempted to "clean up" some of the older classmen but at the sight of several foot ball stars they were easily quieted, at least enough to allow them to take to their beds.

The Seniors and Sophomores administered a light dose of iodine and egg-nog to all the stragglers from the Junior and Freshman classes and several Juniors were noticed at chapel yesterday wearing an "11" and a "13" on their cheeks.

The following poster was handed out at chapel yesterday morning to inform the defunct classes of 1912 and 1914 that such a banquet had been held:

WHERE WERE THEY?

Seniors and Sophomores will give large reward for information regarding whereabouts of Juniors and Freshmen last night, while the Seniors and Sophs, after having partaken of a sumptuous repast, were scouring College Hill. A tasty mixture of iodine and egg nog was leniently served to the stragglers. For further details inquire of

Yours truly,
Seniors,
Sophomores.

INNOVATION PROPOSED.

Athletic Board May Give Letters to Tennis Team.

The athletic board is at present considering the awarding of letters to the men who represent Allegheny in the Tennis Tournament this year. Heretofore the men have never received any recognition from the school for the work that they have done in this branch of athletics. Considering the fact that for several years, Allegheny men have won either the singles or doubles in this tournament this neglect seems like a lack of appreciation for the work which they have done. The matter has been brought to the attention of the board this year and they are at present acting upon the suggestion.

Several other schools who are represented in this annual match reward their men with some form of recognition and letters have been written to these schools asking for information about their plan. As soon as the answers are received, the board will consider the various methods and also the advisability of the general system.

If the plan is adopted, the means of recognition will probably be a small letter with a smaller "T" on each side of it. This is the method used at most of the schools where tennis is recognized as a college sport. No matter what plan is adopted, the letters will only be awarded upon the condition that the team makes a good showing in the tournament.

R. W. Thomas, the editor of the Y. M. C. A. Manual for this year, has been working upon the book and hopes to have it ready for distribution before the close of school.

ALDEN TEACHERS EMPLOYED.

When in a few weeks Alden Academy closes its doors as a preparatory school forever Allegheny will lose five very efficient and much respected teachers. With but one exception all will continue their work as instructors and have already secured excellent positions for the coming year.

Professor Samuel B. Churchill, who has so ably directed the work of the school for several years has been elected superintendent of schools in Stockbridge, Mass., near his former home. This is considered an excellent position and is well deserved by Professor Churchill.

Professor F. L. LaBounty has been elected to fill the chair of English at the Edinboro Normal. He has accepted this offer and will assume his new duties at the beginning of the next term.

Professor C. F. Lewis will leave shortly after the close of school for the University of Chicago where he will take up the study of law.

Miss Hazel Bullock of the French department will spend the coming year in France traveling and in one of the schools there.

Professor E. H. Hendershot has received a number of good offers for the coming year, but has not as yet decided which he will accept.

BLACK FACE COMPETITION.

Practices have been held during the past week for the Minstrel Show which is to be given on June 8. A large number of men have been competing and an excellent chorus has been assured. A number of men are working on sketches several of which give promise of being very original and also great mirth producers.

The competition for the selection of the end men has been progressing and three of the men have been selected. "Len" Harris, who has done the jiggling act for three years, will again be seen in his place on one end while "Goldy" Gordon and "Dutch" Nevins will occupy two of the other places. Both of these men are well fitted for the parts, while their songs are very "coony" and are sure to be hits. The remaining three men will be picked during the early part of next week and practices will continue regularly till the evening of the performance.

Thomas Hughes, who filled the pivotal position in such a very acceptable manner last year, will again be the interlocutor. Walter H. Fegely will, in all probability, occupy the position at the piano.

SCIENTISTS ON THE WATER.

The regular meeting of the Scientific Club this week was replaced by a picnic on the Cussewago Creek, Thursday afternoon. The party of scientists, numbering twenty-five in all, left the Mead Avenue boat-house at 3 o'clock and after a few unintentional landings and much perspiration on the part of those at the oars, arrived at the picnic ground about two miles up the stream.

Here a bounteous luncheon was served with the ground for a table. The remaining time until the start home was made was taken up with games and singing. A quartet composed of Callahan, Hasely, Gordon and Hamman went out on the water in a boat and gave an impromptu concert. The party returned just as the sun was sinking behind the hills. Dr. and Mrs. Akers acted as chaperons.

SONG BOOK PROGRESSING.

The editor of the Allegheny Song Book have received the proof of their songs and are correcting them this week. Everything is ready for the final compilation of the book, which the committee promises will be on sale the evening of the Minstrel Show. The names of the winners of the two prizes will be announced during the coming week.

As far as can be seen now the book will compare very favorably with song books of other schools. The front will contain an original Allegheny drawing printed on very serviceable linen. The book will contain between forty and fifty songs, fourteen of which will be Allegheny songs, all set to music. The front page will contain the names of the committee who have compiled the book with a brief note as to the purpose of their publication and their expectations of what it will accomplish. The book will be dedicated to the entire student body and to the school in whose honor the songs were written.

COME where you can find the Suit you'll like at a price you'll like to pay. Spring styles are in and they're handsome, $15 up.

News Items

Dr. W. A. Elliott will entertain the members of the Classical Club for the last meeting of the year at his home, Monday evening. The club has enjoyed the hospitality of one of the two faculty members of the club every year since its organization.

The annual Soph-Freshman game has been scheduled for Thursday of next week. It had been planned to have the game this week, but owing to the fact that the 'varsity' will need the field for practice the contest had to be postponed. Both teams have been practicing for several weeks and a close game is promised. The Sophs feel confident that with the 'varsity' men eligible to play and with Crossman pitching they will be able to wrest the victory from their opponents while the Freshies assert that they will be very much in evidence when the game is called.

Miss Louisa Litzel, vice-president of the Cincinnati Deaconess Training School, spent a few hours at the Hall on Monday. Although her stay was very brief, she was able to talk to a number of girls of deaconess and foreign missionary work.

The second of the Y. W. C. A. class meetings, a Junior meeting, was held last Sunday evening on the campus with Miss Ethel Salmon, '12, the leader, spoke about Christian Responsibilities in College Life, and a number of girls gave personal ideas on the subject.

On Monday evening Miss Mae Graham and Mrs. Blanche Davenport entertained the local chapter of Alpha Chi Omega at a luncheon given at their home on Diamond Square.

Yesterday afternoon, Capt. Wells, Doran, Greene and Fahr of the Alden track team left for Rock Springs Park where they will compete in a meet to be held there this afternoon. Owing to the fact that the high school meet was called off the men arranged this meet and they expect to be able to give a good account of themselves. This is one of the biggest high school meets in the country and creates a good deal of interest every year. Some of the best schools along the lower Ohio Valley are entered.

Allegheny maintained its reputation of extending hospitality to all visiting athletic teams, when Phi Kappa Psi entertained the members of the Rochester track team on last Saturday night. The local team was also present and aided in making this informal smoker a great success.

On last Wednesday evening, Professor Trexler delivered a lecture on the subject, "German Student Life." The chapel of the Zion Evangelical church was well filled with an enthusiastic audience. The use of a large number of stereopticon views made this discussion of "German Student Life" vivid and interesting.

The base ball trip to Hiram, Buchtel and Mt. Union, which had been arranged for this week, had to be abandoned as the Hiram team cancelled on account of a three-day Ohio trip which had been arranged for it. The remaining guarantees were not sufficient to make the trip possible.

On last Saturday evening, Alpha chapter of Delta Tau Delta entertained at the chapter house on Highland avenue. There were about one hundred and fifty guests present, including the faculty and town friends. The color scheme of purple, gold and white was beautifully carried out in lattice work around the porches. Japanese lanterns furnished a mellow light which added to the effectiveness of the decorations. During the evening, punch was served in different rooms and dainty refreshments were provided on the porch and in the dining room.

Theta Sigma entertained at dinner at Saegertown last Thursday evening. The party left Meadville on a special car at 5:30 p. m. The whole affair was carried out in the scheme of a May party, the decorations and place cards corresponding. The time before and after dinner was spent in boating and several clever May party stunts.

Owing to the fact that many of the matches were postponed from time to time it has been found necessary to call off the bowling tournament which has been in progress. So many games were bunched together during the hot weather that they could not be played and accordingly the cup will remain in the possession of Phi Gamma Delta.

During the past week the singles in the tennis tournament were played off and Dalzell and Bricker will represent Allegheny in the tournament next week. The finals in the doubles will be played off at the beginning of the coming week between Dalzell and Stidger and Bricker and Nichols. The men that have taken part in the tournaments in past years but they promise that they will give a good account of themselves. Allegheny will be represented in both singles and doubles by men who will be well able to make a good fight for the firsts. The team will be almost the same that won everything at Grove City two years ago and they make a combination that will be hard to beat.

Dr. Mulfinger was called away last Saturday by the death of his brother-in-law in Chicago.

On Friday of last week Alden Academy opened its track season by defeating the team from the Cambridge High School by the overwhelming score of 107-15. The prep men merely played with their opponents who were totally out-classed and the meet proved to be only a little practice for Alden. It did serve, however, to show that the Academy has the material for developing one of the fastest teams in its history.

At the last meeting of the Student Volunteer Band it was decided to hold an open meeting next Wednesday afternoon in the Library. Bishop Thornburn and Mrs. Grassie will both speak informally to the Volunteers and their guests, taking as their subjects, respectively, "The Missionary Work Among the Boys and Young Men of India," and "Women's Work in Turkey." Written invitations have been issued to a number of those especially interested. The work done by the Volunteers has been somewhat unostentatious in nature and this meeting will give the friends of the Band an adequate idea of its scope and purpose.

The annual election of the Student Government Board of Hulings Hall was held last Tuesday evening. The newly-elected board is made up of the following members:

President—Marguerite Shelmadine.
Vice-President—June Shires.
Secretary-Treas.—Barbara Deane.
Junior Members—Edith DeLand and Vera Foster.

After the election an informal reception was held in the parlors, in honor of the retiring and succeeding boards. Ices, Nabiscos and mints were served as refreshments.

PICNICS.

Picnics seem to have been the rage around school for the past week. On Monday afternoon the members of the Sophomore class held their annual picnic at Oakwood Park. The party left on an early afternoon car and spent the afternoon in preparing for the feed of the evening. A heavy rain brought the class back to Meadville sooner than had been planned. Coach and Mrs. Stewart, who chaperoned the party, were adopted into the class, as they also entered Allegheny in 1909.

Freshmen were permitted to give their first function of the year on Wednesday. Oakwood Park was likewise chosen by them and practically the same sort of a picnic enjoyed as their rivals had indulged in earlier in the week.

The biggest event of the week, however, was the Junior-Senior smoker, or pipe of peace party, which was held last night. A special car left the Gymnasium at seven o'clock, carrying about a hundred members of the two classes. On account of the annual ceremony in connection with this tradition few cared to be classed with the absentees.

The pipe of peace and burial of the hatchet were more impressive than usual. Speeches made by Miss Margaret Megirt, '12, J. W. Barkley, '11, W. F. Maxwell, '12, and Miss Sarah McKnight, '11, declared hostilities between the two classes forever at an end and that hereafter each should endeavor to help the other.

Sasaki, short stop.
Kauki, third base.
Fukuda, catcher.
Abe, second base.
Kamayama, middle field.
Murakami, right field.
Sugasi, pitcher.
Kayamai, pitcher.
Fukuda, pitcher.

Sasaki is called the Japanese Ty Cobb, while Sugasi is nicknamed Christy Mathewson. Some idea may be gained of the twirling ability of the latter from the fact that while the University of Wisconsin was playing at Keio in 1909, one of the games went 19 innings and Sugasi was still on the slab at the close. He had struck out eighteen men and allowed but eight hits.

The Kansas City Journal of May 18, in speaking of the Japs after the game there in which a team of league stars, for whom Charles Nichols, a Cleveland big leaguer, did the pitching and was beaten 7-6, says:

"Our stamp on the Japs as ball players is 'O. K.' They steal bases like major leaguers. They work the hit and run to perfection. They know most of the tricks of the game. The Japs are perfect gentlemen, however."

Owing to the terms of the contract with Keio, athletic tickets cannot be honored. The admission is 35 and 50 cents.

annual Founders Day exercises and was generally conceded to be one of the best delivered in recent years.

During the celebration of the anniversary of the King James Version of the English Bible, Dr. Crawford delivered an address upon the "Life and Work of John Wycliff." In addition to this, Dr. Crawford has given some excellent chapel talks. During the same celebration, Dr. Coburn also delivered an address upon a similar subject.

At the closing meeting of the Mission Study class, Dr. A. E. Piper spoke upon "David Livingstone" and left a most favorable impression upon those present. This concluded the regular addresses of the year, but the fact must not be forgotten that during the year those who attended Mission Study have had the opportunity of hearing Dr. Coburn and Bishop Thoburn.
