

Provo, Utah, Oct. 29, 1914.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I have just finished reading your wonderful little book "The Business of Being a Woman", and I cannot lay it aside without expressing, as one of the thousands of women to whom it must have come as an inspiring vision, my gratitude and appreciation. You certainly have a clear grasp of a perplexing situation and the ability of making it clear to others. For a long time I have not read anything that gave me so much satisfying food. With sincerest gratitude for the help you have given me to better see (and I hope perform) my business of being a woman, and with hearty congratulations and wishes for your continued success, I am very truly,
Mrs. Elsie C. Carroll.