December 4, 1922

My dear Mr. Kemper:

John Lincoln's will, about which I wrote you in my last letter, is to be found in the papers of a suit brought by one Rymel et Ux. vs. Lincoln. You will find a reference to this in the printed records of Augusta County, volume II.

I want a copy of the will, which you will please have certified, also any references that you may find to Abraham, John or Jacob Lincoln. I shall be obligedif you can send them to me as quickly as possible. You ought to be able to put your hands on it immediately by consulting the printed records.

Yours very truly,
